U. S. DROPS ELECTION PROBE

District Attorney Hynes Praised by Preston for Efforts

Evidence Not Sufficient, Says Federal Official in Report

Federal investigation, which has been in progress for nearly a year, and which followed the expose of primary election frauds in Oakland, resulting in the arrest and prosecution of James Higgins, Charles L. Gale and Edward C. Wiles, was dropped today.

In a statement in which he asserts that there is not sufficient evidence to show that indictments should be returnid against persons other than those already prosecuted by the Alameda county authorities, Preston praises the work of District Attorney W. H. L. Hynes, declaring that that officer did everything in his power to bring the guilty to book.

"Our investigation, which has just been concluded," said Preston, "has resulted in our determination that there will be no prosecutions on the part of the federal government.

"The reasons are, first, that sufficient evidence does not appear for the successful prosecution of any person other than those already prosecuted by District Attorney Hynes; and, second, that the fraudulent activity was not directed against any federal officerr or aspirant for a federal office, nor was the activity sufficient to effect the result of the election for any federal office.

"It would take an immense outlay of money to prosecute every fraud committed in the various parts of the United States at elections at which congressmen and senators are to be voted for. The duties of prosecuting such cases should rest with the state authorities and not with the federal government."

When asked his opinion as to the prosecutions of the offenders by the Alameda county authorities, Preston said:

"In my investigation of the case I have found no evidence whatever that would show anything other than that District Attorney Hynes consistently performed his duties in the investigation and prosecution of these cases."

The bag of ballots which have been encumbering the United States Attorney's office will be moved back to the archives in Alameda county.

Joffre's Home City Damaged by Flood

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Oct. 29.—Perpignan, a city of Southern France in the foothills of the Eastern Pyrenees, reports damage amounting to several million francs has been caused in that region by the overflow of the Basse river. At Rivesaltes, the home town of General Joffre, a railroad bridge was swept away and communication with Narbonne was cut.

A vast extent of country at Corneilleroot is under water ten feet deep. Five persons were drowned by the capsizing of a boat in which they were seeking safety.

At Salzes, between Perpignan and Narbonne, part of a road was washed away and two automobiles were dashed into a ravine. Only one of the occupants was saved.

Many business houses at Perpignan lost all their stock. All available soldiers have been set at work pumping water from the cellars.

Widow of Professor Under Observation

Mrs. Sarah A. P. Lemmon, widow of the late Prof. John Lemmon, blockaded traffic in Telegraph avenue today by insisting upon sweeping the street between the car tracks with a large broom. Mrs. Lemmon refused to move out of the way and six street cars were in line when Patrolman Ely arrived and induced her to go with him to the central station.

Mrs. Lemmon was taken to the receiving hospital and will be examined as to her mental condition. She has lived at Sixtieth and Telegraph avenue for many years and is known among the neighbors as being exceedingly eccentric. Her husband was known for many years as one of the greatest authorities on arboriculture and silviculture in the West.

Salaries Declined by Lansdowne and Curzon

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—It has been revealed by the printed answer to a question put to the government in Parliament that the Marquis of Lansdowne, minister without portfolio, and Earl Carson, lord privy seal, declined to accept any salary when they received their appointment in the coalition cabnet.

LONDON, Oct. 29, 4:20 p. m.—Japan has become a party to the agreement not to conclude a separate peace.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 29, 11:25 a. m.—British casualties from the beginning of the war to October 9 were 493,294.

The losses were distributed as follows:

WESTERN AREA.

Killed—Officers, 4401; other ranks, 63,059.

Wounded—Officers, 8169; other ranks, 225,716.

Missing—Officers, 1567; other ranks, 61,364.

TOTAL CASUALTIES IN ALL OPERATIONS.

Killed—Officers, 6660; other ranks, 94,992.

Wounded — Officers, 12,633; other ranks, 304,832.

Missing—Officers, 2000; other ranks, 72,177.

Total—Officers, 21,293; other ranks, 472,001.

The foregoing figures were contained in a written statesment sent by Premier Asquith to the House of Commons.

British casualties up to August 21, as given officially on September 14, were 381,983. This shows a total between that time and October 9 of 111,311, a daily average of 2271. Losses between June 9 and August 21 averaged about 1500 daily. The marked increase in the fall over the summer losses may be accounted for primarily by the heavy fighting on the western front at the time of the British and French offensive movement last month.

CONQUERED HILLS COMMAND TOWN

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 29, 2:58 p. m.—Reuter's Athens correspondent learns from Serbian sources that the French operating in the Strumitsa region have occupied the heights of Valandovo, Rabrava and Tatar Lisofre. These heights dominate Strumitsa, which is not expected to hold out much longer against the French attack.

AISNE FOES LOCKED IN CLOSE COMBAT

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Oct. 29, 2:30 p. m.—North of the River Aisne there was last night very severe fighting with bombs and grenades, according to the statement given out this afternoon by the French war office.

There also was a bombardment in the Champagne district in which both sides took part.

RUMANIA MOBILIZES TROOPS ON BORDERS

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Oct. 29.—The Saloniki correspondent of the Petit Journal here learns from a reliable source that Rumania has mobilized 450,000 men, of whom 200,000 are concentrated on the Bulgarian frontier and the rest on the Hungarian frontier, where impregnable defenses have been constructed.

SERBIAN FORCE IS DRIVEN OVER BORDER

By Associated Press.

BERLIN, Oct 29, via London—Serbian forces opposing the Teutonic advance on the western border of Serbia have been thrown across the frontier west of Visegrad (Bosnia), it was officially announced by German army headquarters. Advances for the Austro-German armies and for the Bulgarian forces in other sectors of the Serbian front also are recorded.

ENGLAND MOURNS HEROINE

ALL LONDON AT MEMORIAL

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 29, 11:35 p. m.—A service at St. Paul's Cathedral today in memory of Miss Edith Cavell, the British nurse, who was executed in Brussels, was attended by a throng which recalled the funeral of Lord Roberts at the cathedral almost a year ago.

Before 8 o'clock a great crowd stood shivering in the first cold fog of the season, awaiting the opening of the doors. Shortly after 10 o'clock signs bearing the words "Church full" were hung at all the doors except the one reserved for ticket holders.

Conspicuous among the crowd which waited patiently in the gloomy fog until the doors were opened was a large number of wounded soldiers, attended by Red Cross nurses. The somber clothing of the congregation which packed the great edifice was relieved here and there by spots of color of the uniforms of soldiers and sailors when military and naval dignitaries took their places. The only other seats reserved were for the lord mayor, the diplomatic corps of the entente powers and 600 of Miss Cavell's fellow nurses.

The service was begun with the "dead march" played on the organ. Then came "Abide With Me" by the First Life Guard band. Except for the "Lord's Prayer" and the reading of one lesson, the service was entirely musical, no sermon being delivered.

King George and Queen Mary were represented by Edward W. Wallington, groom-in-waiting to king: Queen Alexandria by Earl Howe, and Field Marshal Earl Kitchener by Surgeon-General Sir Alfred Keogh, director-general of the British medical service.

Among the other prominent persons present were the premier and other members of the cabinet, representatives of Canada and the other dominions, the Belgian minister and Admiral Lord Charles Beresford. Miss Cavell's mother, other members of the family and deputations of various Red Cross, ambulance and nursing organizations also attended the services.

FIRST TOWN HALL GOES UP IN FLAMES

Oakland's first town hall, dating back to the early history of the city, when the center of civic affairs was south of Fifth street, was destroyed by fire early this morning. The old town hall, known only to a few of the oldest residents, was until last night a shack at Broadway near Third street, used as a second-hand junk shop.

The old town hall was the first of five buildings which have housed headquarters of the municipal government. The second was out in Brooklyn township across the lake, and later the one which burned down many years ago was erected at Fourteenth street facing down Washington, to be succeeded by the building which was torn down when the new city hall was erected.

The fire this morning threatened to spread to a number of shacks in the neighborhood. The flames were put out by the joint work of the police and fire departments.

The fire was discovered by Patrolmen Connolly and Kelly at 2:15 a. m. and an alarm was immediately turned in. The firemen, assisted by a posse of patrolmen rushed to the scene by Captain J. F. Lynch, awakened the people sleeping in adjoining buildings and led them to safety in the street.

The building in which the fire started belonged to Mrs. H. Levy, Hotel St. Francis, San Francisco. It has not been learned whether insurance was carried. The property damaged in Third street was owned by Moneyback Smith and Louis Asher.

The origin of the fire has not been determined.

KING GEORGE HURT IN FALL

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 29, 2:35 p. m.—An accident to the king happened yesterday morning. The king was thrown from his horse and severely bruised. The following official announcement was made today:

"While the king yesterday morning was inspecting his army in the field his horse became excited by the cheers of the troops, reared up and fell. The king was bruised severely and will be confined to bed for the present."

A later bulletin under today's date says: "The king has had a fair night with some sleep. The temperature is now 99.2 and pulse 75. His majesty's general condition has improved and no complications have arisen."

It is understood that the accident to the king was not serious, although no details have been made public beyond those disclosed in the official announcement.

Announcement was made on Monday that King George was in France, having gone to visit the British army. On Tuesday, the king, with the Prince of Wales, President Poincare and the then French war minister, Alexandre Millerand, reviewed the British troops. He then called on General Joffre and witnessed a review of French colonial troops.

MORGAN OPERATED ON FOR APPENDICITIS

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—J. P. Morgan underwent an operation for appendicitis at his country home at Glencove, L. I., today. The operation was reported successful, and Morgan is resting comfortably.

Morgan was at his office Wednesday, but was indisposed yesterday and remained at his Glen Cove home. His physicians discovered he was suffering from a mild attack of appendicitis. In order to guard against a recurrence the physicians decided to remove the financier's appendix.

The operation was performed at noon today and was reported to have been successful in every way. Morgan was said to be resting comfortably. His general condition is so excellent that his prompt recovery is looked for.

So far as could be learned today's operation is in no way the result of the shooting of Morgan by Frank Holt at Glen Cove on July 3 last.

Morgan has been at his office since early August and has been very active in business during the last few months, especially in connection with the Anglo-French loan.

BERKELEY TO MUFFLE MILK WAGONS

The clatter of milk wagons and roar of mufflers on the trucks used by certain dairies in the early morning hours will cease in Berkeley.

Following an open session of the council this morning in which over one hundred persons attended in the council room to express their views on the question not one opposed the daylight schedule. The council did not learn that there was no opposition to the proposed ordinance which will limit the deliveries of milk to the hours of 5 o'clock in the morning and 6 o'clock at night until a dozen speakers had plead for the measure. A call for opposition found no response.

From every possible angle was early delivery attacked. Led by Mrs. Harry Manville Wright, society leader and prominent for her humane work, the hillside population pleaded for less noise and for the protection of horses used in the milk delivery. Professors C. E. Coy, W. T. Clark, C. L. Roadhouse of the University of California and Chief of Police Vollmer, M. E. Witchett of the Milk Drivers' Union and representatives of the Milk Dealers' Association all spoke for the new ordinance.

ESKIMOS SLAY BAND LED BY PRIESTS

By Associated Press.

THE PAS, Manitoba, Oct. 29.—Two Catholic priests and two prospectors are reported to have been murdered by Eskimos north of Chesterfield Inlet, Hudson Bay, according to Captain Lockart of the Royal Northwest Police boat Village Bell, which arrived hede today from northern waters.

Captain Lockhart said he believed the four men had been murdered by the same inland tribe of Eskimos that attacked Rafford and Street, the explorers. The peaceful shore Eskimos told him that the inland tribe had heard the constables were looking for the men who attacked the explorers and therefore were suspicious of all strangers.

BATTLE MAY SEAL FATE OF REBEL

"Convention" Forces March Against Town Held by Carranza

Attack by Bandits on U. S. Troops Complicate Situation

By Associated Press.

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., Oct. 29.—Bandits early today made two attacks upon a half company of United States infantry stationed at Capote, a village about 65 miles up the Rio Grande from here. No casualties were reported on either side.

The attacks occurred shortly after 1:30 o'clock this morning. The number of the attacking party was not established. After the first attack the infantry was reinforced by half a troop of the Third Cavalry from Hidalgo, three miles distant.

Luis de La Rosa, the Mexican bandit leader, suspected of recent outrages on the American side of the border, is reported captured on Mexican soil by a detachment of Carranza soldiers, following a battle between the Carranza soldiers and a band of outlaws. News of the battle and the rumor of De La Rosa's capture was received today at the Matamoras headquarters of General Carranza, who had issued an order to his troops to chase the bandits from the Mexican border until all were killed or captured.

VILLISTAS REFUSE TO PROTECT AMERICANS

By Associated Press.

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Oct. 29.—Two developments in the Mexican situation stirred civil and military authorities along the border today.

Carlos Randall, Villa governor of Sonora, was reported upon reliable authority to have issued a proclamation from Cananea to the effect that since the United States had seen fit to recognize Carranza, Villa authorities were not responsible for the lives of Americans in Sonora.

Urbalejo, the Yaqui Indian chief, demanded $25,000 from Epes Randolph, president of the Southern Pacific Railway of Mexico, under pain of destruction of the railroad's property if not paid. The time limit expired last night at 6 o'clock, but so far as known no property has been destroyed yet.

Thirty Americans in Cananea and eighteen in El Tigre, some of whom already are in the hands of Villa troops, are believed to be facing a critical situation as the result of the Randall proclamation.

NACO IN PERIL.

Urbalejo's demand caused some apprehension at Naco, Ariz., west of here, opposite the Mexican town of Naco, Sonora, now in Urbalejo's hands. Seventeen carloads of oil are standing in the railroad yards on the Mexican side. If fire were set to these, the burning oil, because of the nature of the ground slope there, would flow into the American town. Tension among American troops at Naco has been relieved by Urbalejo's failure to execute his threat.

Additional artillery was received here today for the defense of Agua Prieta, Sonora, just across the border, against an expected attack by Villa forces, and word was received that 5000 Carranza troops were coming to strengthen the garrison commanded by General P. Elias Calles.

TROOPS EN ROUTE.

Twenty-five hundred men, with their arms in bond in a sealed car, will arrive here from Piedras Negras tonight or tomorrow, it was stated by Rodolfo Garduna, Mexican consul here. A similar force will follow Sunday or Monday.

Sixteen 75-millimetre or three-inch guns and 24 machine guns arrived here today in bond for General Calles, Consul Garduna said.

The Villa forces have not been sighted yet, but an attack is expected at any hour. Villa's situation, it was stated, will permit no alternative, for his troops are in a country practically without water, with scant provisions and no excess ammunition. His forces are between the border and the Carranza troops under General Diegue, which are reported moving northeastward from the Guaymas district in Southern Sonora. In Diegue's path, however, is Urbalejo with 800 Yaqui Indians holding Anavacachi pass, 15 miles west of here

TROOPS PROTECT TOWN.

It is believed in some quarters that Villa's original intention was to attack Douglas itself, in order to precipitate intervention, but with approximately 6000 American soldiers on guard with sixteen three-inch guns, this contingency is regarded now as a thing of the past.

Seven American employes of the El Tigre Mining Company, who left El Tigre, southeast of here Monday, have not been heard from. Friends of the men express themselves as worried, but it is believed the men are being held by Villa troops around Fronteras to prevent

Police in Pistol Duel With Thugs

Interrupt Robbers in Act of Looting Postoffice

PALO ALTO, Oct. 29.—Using dynamite for nitroglycerine in a sufficient quantity to almost wreck the building, two bandits attempted to blow open the safe in the postoffice at Palo Alto early this morning. Although surprised and apparently surrounded by three police officers, with whom they exchanged shots, the robbers succeeded in making their escape. Every window in the postoffice was shattered and a partition was blown down by the force of the explosion. The bandits had previously ransacked drawers and had hoped to obtain at least $1000 from safe. They escaped without getting any loot save $1 from a cash drawer. Previously they had attempted to ransack the offices of the Standard Oil Company.

SLAYS WOMAN HOUR AFTER DIVORCE

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—Less than two hours after his wife, Fannie, had obtained a divorce decree in Superior Judge Troutt's court, Isaac Sugarman, an expressman, forced his way into the family home at 750 Fulton street, shot her dead and fired a bullet into his brain. He is dying at the Central Emergency Hospital.

Mrs. Sugarman appeared in court today, testified to the extreme cruelty of her spouse and received a decree with the custody of her four children, ranging in ages from 8 to 17 years. Surrounded by her family, she was in the dining room at luncheon at 2:15 o'clock this afternoon when the doorbell rang. Bessie Sugarman, age 13, answered the call, saw it was her father and attempted to close the door.

He pushed her aside, hurried into the dining room and with one bullet ended the life of his wife. Turning the gun upon himself he fired two shots. The children ran hysterically to the street and employes of a nearby brewery called for the police and an ambulance.

New Citizens Must Abjure Even Hyphen

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—Federal and county judges of Chicago have tightened procedure in naturalization in cases for the purpose of eliminating the hyphen.

In practically all cases applicants are asked if they would bear arms for the United States against their native country, and whether they expect to be known as Americans or European-Americans. Despite this it is said that aliens are becoming naturalized here in increasing numbers.

Austria Renews Old Protest on Munitions

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The text of the Austrian government's second note to the United States on munitions shipments to the allies has been received at the State Department. It conforms to cabled summaries and will not be given out for publication here. It is not probable that a reply will be sent, as officials consider the tenor of the communication indicates Austria does not desire one.

Charges Threats to Blow Up His Home

BERKELEY, Oct 29.—Threats to blow up his home with dynamite were made by Joseph and Frank Cirando, according to Anthony Carbopo, who has brought a charge of disturbing the peace against Joseph Cirando. The men are neighbors at Fifth and Addison streets and following disagreements between them Carbopo declares the threats were made. The police are investigating.

COIN PLANT RAIDED IN ALAMEDA

Workman's Home Hiding Place of Dies and Apparatus

Plasterer Confesses to Counterfeiting Plot; Exonerates Wife

ALAMEDA, Oct. 29. — In a raid headed by secret service operatives, John A. Forrester, a plasterer of this city, was taken into custody at his residence today, charged with making spurious coins, and a complete counterfeiting plant was confiscated. Forrester has made a full confession of his offense, according to H. M. Moffitt, chief of this division of the United States Secret Service, who headed the raiders.

The prisoner and his wife have resided here for the past three years at 2061 Alameda avenue. Recently Detective William Wahmuth of Alameda secured information that Forrester had moulds and was at work on counterfeit coins. He notified the secret service operatives, who further investigated, and decided on this morning's raid.

WAS EXPERIMENT.

Following the entrance into the home by the officers, Mrs. Forrester stated that she was fully cognizant of her husband's operations. The prisoner said that his work was simply in the experimental stage, and that he had not attempted to pass any of the coins made by him. He had specialized in silver coins of $1, 25c and 50c denominations, but was not satisfied with his workmanship, and was attempting to perfect the spurious pieces. Officers claim that for a novice Forrester had displayed ability as a coinmaker, and that had he succeeded in keeping his operations secret a short while longer he undoubtedly would have flooded this section of the state with thousands upon thousands of dollars in spurious coin.

Both the prisoner and his wife talked freely of the counterfeiting plant, though the husband exonerated the woman from actual participation in the work. Whether or not he intended to have her act as a passer of the spurious money could not be ascertained. However, according to the officers, the woman, though cognizant of her husband's unlawful operations, will not be prosecuted as an accessory.

MOULDS FOUND.

Plaster of paris moulds, metal-heating devices and a quantity of metal were taken in charge by the secret service men, and will be used as evidence against the man who will face indictment by the United States grand jury. The prisoner, who is 54 years of age, is a native of Scotland, and with his wife has always been held in high esteem by co-workers and neighbors. The maximum penalty for his offense is ten years in a federal prison.

Fires Caused by Same Bombs Plotters Used

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Secret service men assigned to the case of Robert Fay, the confessed bomb plotter, and four others charged with conspiracy in planning to disable ships laden with war munitions for the allies, worked on a report today that the bombs used by the men are the same which had caused fires on certain trans-Atlantic ships last summer.

Secret service men said the fires on the ships were caused by chlorate of potash, the same material which Fay says he used in preparing bombs to attach to ship's rudders and propellers, and that several of the ships which discovered fires aboard had sailed from piers in the Hudson river, not far from the boathouse at Weehawken, N. J., where Fay, with Walter L. Scholz, his brother-in-law, kept a powerful motor boat, together with explosives.

Physician Asks for Arrest of Auto Driver

Dr. A. R. Brandon, a San Leandro physician, whose automobile was run down last Monday evening, today applied to Deputy District Attorney Wm. T Satterwhite for a complaint for the arrest of J. Ramos, 318 East Fourteenth street, whose machine collided with his, on a charge of having violated the state law which makes it a penalty for an autoist to leave a victim.

Dr. Brandon was cranking his machine in front of the San Leandro postoffice on Monday evening when a car driven by Ramos crashed into the rear of the physician's auto Ramos is alleged to have sped on his way toward Oakland without first stopping to ascertain the result of the accident.

DEATH DUEL FOUGHT HIGH IN AIR

By Associated Press.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 29.—A horrified crowd today saw a death duel sixty feet in the air on an arch of the new high level bridge over the Cuyahoga river, in which Frank Wright, storekeeper for bridge contractors, was killed by a fellow workman with an iron bar. The killing was witnessed by Wright's wife, who was making her way up to him with his lunch. Police have arrested Jack Browning in connection with the crime. The killing was preceded by a grim struggle, in which the two men wrestled back and forth on an arch, and both came near to falling into the river several times.

After Wright had been slain the assailant jumped from platform to platform until he reached the ground and then fled.

MRS. FLAGLER'S 'DOUBLE' GOES TO JAIL

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Mrs. Zorah Emma Johnson, an elderly woman, who by representing herself as the widow of Henry M. Flagler, late Standard Oil millionaire, procured from Frank J. Mahoney, a telegraph operator, his savings and all he could borrow from relatives, a total of about $32,000, was today by Judge Mulqueen to serve from three to five years in Auburn prison.

At Mrs. Johnson's trial, Mahoney testified that he gave the money on her representation that she was Mrs. Flagler and would make him her private secretary at $[illegible] a year. He was to receive also a bonus of $100,000 when the defendant's mythical castle in Spain materialized.

TWO MEN HELD UP ON TRAIN BY TRAMPS

SAN BERNARDINO, Oct. 29.—Charles Hinson and Benjamin E. Ingersoll, ranchers living near here, were held up and robbed of $650 early today on board an Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad train near Victorville, 45 miles north of here. Two tramps entered a car where the men were sleeping. Hinson was beaten unconscious with a revolver by one of the men, and Ingersoll was pounded into submission. A posse was sent from here to pursue the tramps, who jumped from the train about 15 miles north of here.

PATIENT PERISHES IN HOSPITAL FIRE

BURNS, Oregon, Oct. 29.—One patient was burned to death and several others were carried through smoke and flames to safety in a fire that destroyed the Harney County Hospital here early today. Hospital attendants and firemen worked heroically to save all the inmates. They were unable, however, to rescue David Miller, a pioneer merchant of Drews Eye, Ore.

SUISUN CITY SUED FOR DIVERTING WATER FLOW

FAIRFIELD, Oct. 29.—The case of Joseph L. De Freitas vs. Suisun City is before a jury in the Superior Court, for the third time. The plaintiff alleges that when Suisun attempted to get sufficient water to fill its reservoir on the "Twin Sisters," about ten miles from town, the tunnel dug diverted the flow of water from his wells, thereby causing them to become dry.

The suit was tried December 10, 1911, and a verdict for $3191 and costs was granted and the case was again tried. In September, 1912, a jury awarded the plaintiff $4000 and costs. The city then took the case to the Appellate Court, which reversed judgment and ordered a new trial.

POSTMASTER FIGHT ON FOR NEVADA CITY OFFICE

NEVADA CITY, Oct. 29.—Two petitions for the appointment of Postmaster in Nevada City in place of James F. Colley, whose term is about to expire, are in circulation in this city.

Friends of John C. Nilon, former deputy county clerk were about with a petition for his appointment. Nilon is a new candidate, whose hat has been shied into the ring at the request of friends.

Former Assemblyman George B. Finnegan is also busy with a petition. He has been a receptive candidate for some time, and Nilon's coming into the open has caused Finnegan to make more than the passive effort heretofore. There seems to be a strong sentiment in Nevada City that Finnegan has the right of way, as he is a strong personal friend of Judge Raker, congressman from this district. He studied law in Raker's office.

BERLIN DENIES SPY STORY.

information of Villa's movements reaching the border.

A detachment of fifteen Mexican soldiers, supposed to be a Villa forage party, drove off several head of cattle and horses from the slaughter ranch on the border twenty miles east of here last night.

Brigadier General Thomas F. Davis of the Sixth Infantry Brigade assumed command today of the United States troops here. It is said Major General Frederick Funston will arrive soon to take command.

14,000 MEN SENT TO AGUA PRIETA

By Associated Press.

LAREDO, Tex., Oct. 29.—Fourteen thousand men with twenty-five cannon, have been [illegible] Carranza General Obregon's forces at Torreon and have been sent overland to Sonora, in addition to the force of 5000 to be sent through American territory to Douglas, Ariz., to concentrate at Agua Prieta, where a battle is expected with the Villa forces in Sonora. First Chief Carranza still remains at Torreon.

MAZATLAN BANK ORDERED TO LEND

By Associated Press.

MAZATLAN, Mexico, Oct. 29, by radio to San Diego).—The Mazatlan authorities are reported to have levied a forced loan of 100,000 pesos upon the Occidental bank here, a foreign-owned corporation, principally Spanish. The bank is said to have been given ten days in which to pay, after which a penalty will be added daily for twenty days, and then, if not paid, the bank's property will be confiscated. The bank is said to have refused to pay.

Francisco de Sevilla, an official of the Occidental bank, and a Spaniard, was executed last October by the Mazatlan authorities on the charge that he had sent a compromising letter to his sister, the wife of the Spanish ambassador to Mexico, concerning some political matter. Sevilla was more than 70 years old when executed and the letter had been sent two years before.

Local merchants here have no telegraphic or radio communication with the outside and the local authorities have refused to transmit commercial messages.

Exchange at Mazatlan is 17 and 18 pesos for $1 gold, while at Guaymas exchange for the same money is arbitrarily set at 14 for 1 by Carranza officials arriving direct from this port.

A steamer sailed for Guaymas last night loaded with horses and 400 women camp followers.

The United States flagship San Diego arrived here at noon yesterday and sailed last night for San Blas and Tepic.

READY FOR BATTLE.

By Associated Press.

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Oct. 29.—The scenes were all set today for the third battle to be staged at Agua Prieta, Sonora, since Madero opened the war in Mexico in 1910. An audience numbering several thousand has gathered on the American side.

Five thousand American troops, with sixteen 3-inch guns, are mobilized here to see that the Mexicans shoot only on their own side of the boundary. Carranza troops lie behind an elaborate system of earthworks, awaiting the onset of the invading Villa army.

Fighting may begin today, tomorrow, Sunday or some time next week. That is dependent entirely upon the plans, disposition and condition of Villa's troops, but the outcome probably will determine whether Sonora, turbulent for thirty years, shall come under sway of the once-dominant general or whether he will be driven as a fugitive across the American border.

The relation of Douglas to the situation is shown by the attitude of citizens and visitors who crowd the hotels, boarding-houses and dwellings. There has been and there is still some apprehension as a result of experience here during previous battles at Agua Prieta, when stray bullets from the Mexican side killed perhaps five persons on Douglas streets or in buildings and wounded twenty others. Yet it is practically certain that the roofs of most of the buildings in town will be popular when the next battle begins.

LOCAL INTEREST ONLY?

The European war has been forgotten. The Teuton drive through Serbia or the murderous deadlock in France cannot be compared in the interest shown here in what is believed to be Villa's win-or-lose-all struggle.

Although undoubtedly outnumbered and probably for outmatched in artillery, General P. Bliss Calles, in command of Agua Prieta, regards his position as impregnable. The town lies on an eminence, the easiest point of attack being to the eastward. Here Carranza engineers have devoted most attention to fortifications.

Villa is reliably reported to have twenty-eight field guns, some as large as 4-inch pieces, though these are believed to be hardly more than 50 per cent efficient. His army is estimated at from 6000 to 12,000 men. The Carranza equipment, without the sixteen cannon accompanying the delayed Piedras Negras contingent consists of six 3-inch American-made guns and thirty machine guns.

On the American side, counting the battalions of the Seventh and the Twentieth United States infantry regiments, which arrived last night, there are approximately 5000 United States soldiers, with four batteries of artillery, or sixteen guns. Two batteries arrived early today from Nogales, and approximately 1000 more men will arrive from Fort Bliss tomorrow or Sunday.

VILLA CONSULATE CLOSED.

EL PASO, Oct. 29.—The Villa consulate here ended its official existence today. Announcement of its discontinuance was made by Consul Francis McManus.

PROBE CATTLE STEALING

By Associated Press.

FORT WORTH, Texas, Oct. 29.—An investigation of alleged wholesale cattle rustling on the Texas-Mexican border, assembling of stolen cattle in Oklahoma and the re-shipment of them in Texas was begun here today by County Judge Hamilton of Waurika, Oklahoma, and Special Inspector Martin of the Texas Cattle Raisers Association.

TROOPS FORWARD TODAY.

By Associated Press.

EAGLE PASS, Texas, Oct. 29.—It is expected that the 5000 Carranza troops to be sent from Eagle Pass, Texas to Douglas, Arizona to reinforce the Carranza garrison at Agua Prieta, across the international line, will leave on special trains over the Southern Pacific this afternoon. Cannon, arms, ammunition and supplies have been loaded on the American side. Railroad officials have been at work day and night assisting in the entraining.

GREECE MAY TURN ARMS ON ALLIES

France Fears Saloniki Attack Which Sir Edward Grey Deems Impossible.

advantage by procuring free passage down the Danube.

A flotilla of steamers is said to be ahead waiting to transport war material and infantry. It is stated confidently by Austro-German and Bulgarian leaders that Serbia cannot interfere with these arrangements and Bulgaria's ammunition shortage should soon be relieved and her offensive power greatly strengthened.

The progress of Bulgarian troops east and northeast of Nish both threatens the city and places the Serbian army in a position of increased danger. Moreover, like the union of Bulgarian and Teutonic armies further north, the capture of Nish would have more than mere military or strategic advantage, since it would make possible rapid establishment of railroad communication through Belgrade, Nish and Sofia, among Austria, Germany and their allies.

TEUTONS ADVANCING SOUTH.

From the north the Germans and Austrians are advancing over a wide front, which runs slightly southeast from Valjevo and swings in a broad curve northeast almost to the Danube at Kladovo, where it joins the right wing of the Bulgarians.

Rumor continues to ascribe to the Greek government intentions hostile to the entente powers, even going so far as to say Greece has an understanding with Bulgaria and at the psychological moment will fall upon the allied troops which landed at Saloniki. No such designs are really credited to Greece in London, but France continues to watch proceedings at Athens with unconcealed anxiety. Other reports are that Greece has been assured Rumania will soon join the Teutonic allies.

Sir Edward Grey, the foreign secretary, said today that Greece's espousal of the cause of the central powers was an impossibility and similar assurances come from authoritative Greek sources.

The activity which has marked the situation on the western front for some time is still unbroken. In the east Field Marshal von Hindenburg's attack in the Riga district has entered upon no new phase.

FRENCH SUCCESSES MAY SAVE SERBIA

Anti-German Movement in Turkey Reported From Constantinople.

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Oct. 29.—The correspondent of the Havas News Agency at Athens telegraphs under Thursday's date that the aspect of operations on the Serbian front is changing since the French successes at Veles and Strumitsa. The Bulgarians, he says, are on the defensive northward along the Nish railroad.

A big battle is expected in the neighborhood of Istip toward which the Franco-Serbian army is marching. The Bulgarians are entrenching themselves on the heights around the town.

According to dispatches received by Athens newspapers, the Bulgarians operating in the valley of the lower Timok, between Orahovo and Strumitsa have been cut off and annihilated.

Advices from Sofia say that at a meeting of military parties called to protest against the bombardment of Dedeaghatch and Porto Lagos ended in disturbances during which subjects of the entente powers were severely handled.

WOMEN CRY FOR PEACE.

At Burgas and Stara Zagora there was a demonstration by Bulgarian women against the war, the women crying "Give us back our men. We want bread!" Police who interfered, were received with showers of stones, and troops had been summoned before order was restored.

A dispatch from Saloniki says that a Bulgarian column moving toward Katsinik and Mitrovitza is seeking to join hands with the Austrians who have crossed the Drina.

News from Constantinople, said to be authoritative, says that the anti-German movement is growing daily and that Ahmed Riza, leader of the Young Turks party who wished to interpellate the government regarding Turkey's reasons for entering the war, was not permitted to do so. The government has forbidden senators and deputies to discuss Turkish foreign policy.

MORE ARMENIANS SLAIN.

Fresh Armenian massacres are reported in the region of Gurfa.

Bulgarian troops advancing from Egri Palanka have entered Prisrend after occupying Uskup, according to the Athens correspondent of the Journal. It is believed that the Serbians now occupy a defensive position west of the Vardar river on a line passing by the summits of the Karadzitza and Babuna ranges and that their bases are Monastir and Negotch.

CHICO BREAKS RECORD IN SCHOOL ENROLLMENT

CHICO, Oct. 29.—Passing the mark of 2550, the number of students registered in the various institutions of learning in Chico in 1914, Superintendent of City Schools Charles H. Camper announces the total enrollment in the schools to be 2697 students. This is the largest number in the history of Chico and may be taken as a criterion of the city's growth.

In the Chico State Normal School there are 339 students, and the pupils doing grammar school work in the Training School of the Normal number 398. In the Chico High School there are 450 students, and the various grammar schools of the city have 1429 pupils, distributed as follows: Oakdale, 232; Salem, 295; Chapmantown, 222, Chico Vecino, 248, Nord Avenue, 115, Bidwell, 66, Sacramento Avenue, 49, Rosedale, 101.

PURE RICH BLOOD PREVENTS DISEASE

Bad blood—that is, blood that is impure or impoverished, thin and pale—is responsible for more ailments than anything else.

It affects every organ and function. In some cases it causes catarrh; in others, dyspepsia; in others, rheumatism and in still others, weak, tired, run-down feelings and worse troubles.

It is responsible for run-down conditions and is the most common cause of disease.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the greatest purifier and enricher of the blood the world has ever known. It has been wonderfully successful in removing scrofula and other humors increasing the red-blood corpuscles and building up the whole system. Get it today.—Advertisement.

French Priest Is Courtmartialed

Effect of Sermon Bad, Is Charge

By Associated Press.

GRENOBLE, France, Oct. 29, via Paris, 5:30 a. m. — Abbe Charvet, a Parish priest at Montalieu, in the Department of Izre, has been put to trial at courtmartial, charged with preaching a sermon likely to have a bad effect upon public opinion, and with excommunicating persons who gave evidence when his case was before an examining magistrate.

MAYOR DAVIE HAS MILLER REMOVED

Why Did You Vote for Him? Questions Commissioner Edwards.

Mayor John L. Davie presented an ordinance today to repeal the ordinance providing for the employment of Consulting Engineer M. K. Miller at $300 a month. The ordinance was passed to print by a unanimous vote, Commissioner Jackson, who is said by Mayor Davie to have been Miller's sponsor, being absent.

"You said you knew Miller twenty years ago and that he was no good," said Commissioner Edwards to Mayor Davie. "How about that" He was good enough for your vote when we employed him."

"I did know him," answered Mayor Davie, "but we employed Miller at the request of Jackson on the agreement that he was to go into Commissioner Baccus' department and make a clean-up there that would save us $100,000. But Jackson fell down on us there. That was why you voted for Miller, wasn't it?"

"Not exactly," said Edwards. "I——"

"Keep it up, keep it up'" caroled Baccus, gleefully. "We'll get some inside information."

"Miller has proved that he was not able to do the work satisfactorily when he advised against our getting $70,000 worth of dredging done on the western waterfront for $14,000," said Mayor Davie.

FAVORS REMOVAL.

"It'll be $100,000 next time," commented Baccus. "But I am heartily in accord with you that Miller should go. Only I think this is not the proper legal procedure to follow out to get rid of him. Miller has a contract with the city. We cannot terminate that contract by merely repealing the ordinance under which it was signed. We must cancel the contract itself. Miller will be able to collect his salary after we have passed this repealing ordinance."

Efforts were made to refer the matter to the city attorney, but were blocked by Mayor Davie. Roll was finally called on the ordinance, and it was passed to print. Mayor Davie submitted a letter with the ordinance in which he stated that there is no more work for Miller to do.

Mayor Davie and Commissioner Baccus enjoyed a bout at letter writing on the matter of sewers and sanitation today. The mayor's letter was read, all 1200 words of it, by City Clerk Cummings, while the mayor assumed a proud expression. Baccus then had his letter read, and looked pleasant.

Mayor Davie recommended in his letter that the cove in the beach north of the Key Route mole be filled by dredging at the same time as the filling of the West Oakland marshes.

"How are you going to do that" demanded Baccus. "Don't you know that that is private property, and you can't fill private property. What right have you to fill private property?"

MINOR MATTER SAYS DAVIE.

"Well, to abate the nuisance," said the mayor. "The state board of health has reported that there is an accumulation of filth on this beach caused by the sewage being discharged from a small sewer 70 feet north of the pier."

"You can't dump sand in that cove unless the property owners consent, and then they will have to pay for it," said Baccus.

"That's a minor matter," answered Mayor Davie. "I'll guarantee it'll be attended to."

"Minor matter, minor matter!" jeered Baccus. "What do you mean, minor matter? You wouldn't think it was a minor matter from the letters you write about it."

Solicitors Recruit Soldiers in London

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The system of personally canvassing for recruits under the plan of the new director of recruiting, the Earl of Derby, began in several districts of London yesterday. Soldiers and civilians, with lists of names taken from the recent national register, made a round of visits and brought back distinctly favorable reports, although the officials say that it is too early yet to announce whether the novel method of recruiting will prove successful.

Hau Chang Resigns Chinese Premiership

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The resignation of Hau Shih Chang, Chinese Premier, was announced in an official telegram received here today from Peking. The reason was not given, but it is presumed here that he is out of sympathy with the proposed change from the republic to a monarchy.

BELIEVES MAN TRIED TO KIDNAP HIS CHILD

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 29.—M. F. Silva, father of the little girl on whose identification John Brunt, dredger worker, was arrested on suspicion of improper conduct, now believes that Brunt was trying to kidnap his child from St. Joseph's Academy.

Silva, who came to Sacramento from Grafton, says it is not Brunt, but a friend of Brunt's, whose conduct towards the little girl was improper. The other man has tried before to obtain possession of the child, according to Silva, and he believes Brunt was offered money to get the little girl to go away with him.

As there is some doubt as to the correctness of the child's identification of the prisoner, it is probable that Brunt will be released.

COUNT HEMPTINNE EXECUTED.

By Associated Press.

AMSTERDAM, via London, Oct. 29.—The Echo Belge says that Count Joseph de Hemptinne was executed at Ghent on October 26. He was a member of a prominent Catholic family.

VARNA ATTACKED BY SEA AND AIR

Russian Communique Denies German Report of Warship Damaged.

By Associated Press.

ROME, via Paris, Oct. 29.—A dispatch to the Giornale d'Italia from Kustendje, a Rumanian port on the Black Sea, describes the attack by the Russian fleet yesterday on the Black Sea of Bulgaria. The Russian fleet, composed of battleships and torpedo boats bombarded Varna and Burgas and the neighboring coast. The torpedo boats, the dispatch says, succeeded in warding off attacks of Austro-Bulgarian submarines.

The damage caused by the bombardment is described as very serious. The Bulgarian artillery made a feeble reply. The report says that some detachments among the Bulgarian troops in the coast forts gave cheers for Russia during the bombardment.

AIRSHIPS JOIN ATTACK.

By Associated Press.

PETROGRAD, via London, Oct. 29.—An official communication issued this evening goes more extensively into the bombardment of Varna by Russian warships and the attack by German submarines against the Russian squadron than the communication issued by the war office. The communication says:

"Our Black Sea fleet bombarded Varna with heavy guns for about an hour, while hydroaeroplanes dropped bombs. The harbor works, sheds and coast batteries were damaged, but the town itself was not hit.

"During the bombardment the Russian fleet was attacked by German submarines, which were driven off without our suffering any loss. During the day our wireless station received a telegram from a German station to Constantinople asserting that a German submarine attack had resulted in seriously damaging a Russian battleship of the Pantelemon type.

"This statement is one of the usual German lies, which is proved by the fact that our fleet returned to Sebastopol without sustaining the least damage or loss of life. The driving off of the submarine failed to interfere with the bombardment, because the submarine attack was repulsed by the smaller guns, while the main armament continued to fire on the town.

"After the bombardment the fleet steamed across the bay in front of the town and then headed for Sebastopol.

"Our aviators dropped twenty-one bombs in the vicinity of the harbor. They were subjected to a terrible fire, but none of them was hit and all returned safely."

NEW CABINET TO UNITE ALL FRANCE

Viviani, Resigning, Recalls the Failure of Chamber to Vote Confidence.

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Oct. 29, 1:15 p. m.—President Poincare today received the formal collective resignation of the entire Viviani ministry, giving official form to the decision of the cabinet yesterday to retire. The President requested Aristide Briand to form a new cabinet.

At a meeting held in the foreign office this morning under the presidency of M. Viviani, the decision was reached to submit the resignations collectively.

M. Briand immediately took up the work of forming a new ministry, which already was well advanced in anticipation of President Poincare's formal request.

One of M. Briand's first conferences brought together former Premiers Emile Combes, Leon Bourgeois and Jules Meline: Denys Cochin, Alexandre Ribot, Marcel Sembat and Jules Guesde, members of the present cabinet, and Etienne Clementel and Professor Paul Painlve, all of whom are expected to figure in the personnel of the new ministry, together with other prominent leaders who did not attend the conference.

CAMBON FOR DIPLOMACY.

Briand conferred later with Jules Cambon, who was ambassador to Germany at the outbreak of the war and is expected to take an important part in the Briand ministry as general secretary of the foreign office. In this capacity he is to give special attention to diplomatic questions arising from the war.

Briand requested his colleagues to confer again with him late in the afternoon, when it is expected a definite conclusion will be reached concerning distribution of the various portfolios.

Viviani's letter of resignation reviews the difficulties which he has encountered since an important group in parliament insisted upon secret sessions of the chamber of deputies, which he disapproved. The letter also points out that more than 150 members of the chamber declined to vote on his recent request for a vote of confidence.

Under the circumstances Viviani said he and his colleagues were united in the belief that there should be constructed a cabinet which would be secure in unanimity and consolidate all elements around the government.

"I think that another person could better accomplish this purpose of unification," Viviani concluded, "and for that reason I submit my resignation and that of all my colleagues."

SERBIA IN GREAT NEED OF DOCTORS AND NURSES

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Serbia is still in great need of medical men, and will not have enough physicians, surgeons and nurses to care properly for her wounded, now that fighting has been resumed there, according to Dr. Richard P. Strong, head of the American Red Cross Sanitary Commission, who went to Serbia last spring. Dr. Strong said today that as relapsing fever and typhus are epidemic in the Balkan states, the situation must be watched and any outbreak of these diseases will require prompt and efficient measures. He described the typhus epidemic in Serbia as the worst of modern times, and estimated the number of deaths there from that disease at about 150,000.

U. S. CONSUL TO RETURN.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The Morning Post's Berne, Switzerland, correspondent says that T. St. John Gaffney, until recently American consul-general at Munich, will return to the United States in November, and it is expected that Sir Roger Casement, who has been in Germany for some time devoting himself to his conception of the cause of Irish freedom, will accompany Mr. Gaffney for an American lecture tour.

Third of All Incomes to Be Commandeered

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The Daily Express says that the treasury is considering the advisability of a forced loan, with the object of curbing private expenditure and conserving the national resources for the purposes of war.

"Mr. Montague, financial secretary to the treasury," says the Express, "stated a few days ago in the House of Commons that every citizen ought to be prepared to put half his annual income at the disposal of the nation. We are able to state that the treasury is considering the advisability of acting in accordance with this warning, and if the nation will not save voluntarily, it will be made to do so.

"Not half but a third of every man's present income will be commandeered. Part will be taken as a tax, while for the remainder an equivalent in interest bearing paper will be issued."

Demonstration for Allies in Bulgaria

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Oct. 29, 2:30 p. m.—A dispatch to the Havas News Agency from Bucharest, filed last Sunday and delayed in transmission, says a violent public demonstration against the policy of the government took place there on that day.

One faction of the manifestants sought to reach the palace, but was prevented by troops. Leaders asked for an audience with King Ferdinand.

Dispatches from Amsterdam and Berlin on Tuesday referred briefly to this demonstration, which was said to have been organized in favor of the entente allies.

WHOPPIN' APPLES; AFRAID.

MANSFIELD, O., Oct. 29.—O. L. Bishop of this city has an apple tree which is now bearing fine big red and yellow apples as large as watermelons. One of them weighs a pound and four ounces. The only drawback about raising such apples, he says, is the danger that he may walk under a tree absentmindedly, and one of them might fall on him.

POLICE HOLD ARSON RING LEADERS

W. G. Traux,, Alleged Member of Syndicate, Must Answer Charges.

W. G Truax, alleged to be a member of the "arson syndicate," has been held to answer at Calexico on an arson charge upon the testimony of Charles Lester Burright of this city and Richmond, who is said to have been the brains of the incendiary ring in Central California. Burright was taken so to after making his sensational confession to over a score of incendiary fires, and after pleading guilty with his wife to an arson charge in Oakland.

Burright is being brought back to Oakland by Inspector W. F. Kyle, and will be placed in the county jail to await sentence. He has asked for probation.

The court action at Calexico occurred at the same time as the trial of Mordie Keeney, alleged incendiary and former [illegible] being held at Portland, Ore. The Oakland police say that the California arson gang worked independently of the Oregon gang, but that both used the same methods, having been instructed in the first instance by the same leaders.

Sensational testimony was produced at the Portland trial when Mrs. Grace L. Woolette, a beautiful woman who had narrowly escaped indictment, took the stand and testified against Keeney. Mrs. Woolette told how the plans for an incendiary fire were arranged at a quiet little dinner party, and how the plans were carried out.

TELLS OF PROPOSITION.

"Mr. Woolette and I were dining with Mr. Keeney," she said, "and Mr. Keeney proposed that we buy a house, furnish it, have it insured, and then burn it. He said if we would do this he would help us and that half of the profits would be his share.

"I objected, but my husband wanted to do it, and we bought a house on installments. The contract and insurance were placed in my name, as we thought a woman could more readily collect the insurance than a man.

"After we had lived in the house a few months it was arranged that I should take a trip out of town. While I was gone the fire occurred. The insurance policy was for $800, but all the company would pay was $400, because the adjuster said the fire was suspicious. I paid Mr. Keeney $95 of the insurance money."

On cross-examination Mrs. Woolette told of two other incendiary fires which she said had been set by her husband and her brother, Monty Akayson, another alleged member of the arson ring.

HAD GOOD CASE.

The holding of Truax in Southern California was anticipated here, as George W. Dornin, former president of the Oakland city council and head of the arson committee of the board of fire insurance underwriters, had informed the local authorities that a good case had been established against the defendant.

Truax was held for trial for burning the home of George Bassett in Calexico, in 1913. Burright, who was taken to Calexico to give state's evidence, testified that before setting fire to the house he and Truax had placed a sewing machine, bed springs and other articles in the house to make good the claim for insurance.

"Cavell Cant," Is Term Used by Nachrichten

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 29, 1:53 p. m.—The Hamburger Nachrichten, as quoted by Reuter's Amsterdam correspondent, says in an article under the heading "Cavell Cant," that the recent trial of the conspirators proves that German officials, whose duty, the newspaper says, is to tame and bridle Belgium, will not allow "any English woman or a subject of any other hostile nation to take shelter under the cover of charity or the costume of a nurse in order to assist our enemies behind the backs of our warriors.

"We have forgotten sentimentality," continues the Nachrichten," as the Imperial Chancellor said, 'and regarding the forgiving of English malice, the Kaiser already has spoken."

The newspaper says that Miss Cavell has become the Jeanne d'Arc of Brussels and an English national saint, but "she did not fight with the banner of the church in her left hand and a sword in the other."

DECLARES HIS WIFE HAS TWO AFFINITIES

Robert J. Conway filed a cross-complaint to the divorce action of his wife, Clara D. Conway, in the Superior Court today, denying her various allegations of cruelty and declaring that she has two affinities. The men who have supplanted him in his wife's affections, he says, are Frank A. Davis of Oakland and Eugene Frazer of San Francisco.

Conway also denies that he has $30,000 worth of property, saying that it is worth but $19,000. His wife, in her complaint, asks division of $34,000 worth. She accuses him of various cruelties, such as keeping late hours and using harsh language toward her.

Monument Dedicated to Daniel Boone and Wife

MARTHASVILLE, Mo., Oct. 29.—A monument marking the original graves of Daniel Boone and his wife, Rebecca Bryan Boone, was dedicated at Bryan cemetery here today. Ceremonies were under the auspices of the Daughters of the American Revolution. The monument is a huge granite boulder from the Ozark mountains. Boone selected the site for the grave.

ÍE SET FOR ALAMEDA DAY AT SAN DIEGO FAIR

[illegible] for the Alameda county excursion to the San Diego Exposition has been set for Friday morning, November 7:13, from First and Broadway, and the train will arrive in San Diego early Saturday morning, as that day has been designated as Alameda county day. The train will travel in a special Pullman, and as the train will go through the [illegible] end of the county it is expected that a large number will go from Livermore, Pleasanton and Centerville and other towns. The rate of fare for the round trip will be $22.75; for those who desire to stay longer than the week-end tickets will be good for ten days' stay.

The Southern California committee has joined with the Exposition management in arranging a special program of entertainment, which will include a reception and dance in the evening of Saturday, the 6th. Manufacturers of the county have already sent in hundreds of samples of their goods for free distribution at the Exposition, and it is expected that Alameda county day will be one of the largest of the season. Reservations may be made of Secretary Baker of the Merchants' Exchange, Secretary Caine of the Commercial Club and Secretary Stearns of the Exposition committee.

MAN IS SENT TO JAIL BECAUSE OF AN "L"

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 29.—It must be borne in mind that George Reidel, late of Milwaukee, Wis., now of the Jackson county jail, spells his name with a single "L."

Reidel is charged with forgery by the federal government and was brought here from Milwaukee. May 4, this year, it is alleged, he obtained at the general delivery window in the Kansas City postoffice a letter addressed to George Reidell. Note the double "L." He opened the letter, which was from the Treasury Department, and found in it a check for $18.75.

Reidel says he was in the army five years ago and that the government owed him a sum of money on his clothing account. He says he thought the Treasury warrant he found in the letter was for him.

Recently the government found that the wrong man had received the letter, the money having been intended for a George Reidell of somewhere in Kansas, who had worked on a government reclamation project in Arizona. The wheels of prosecution were set in motion and Reidel, of the one "l," was arrested in Milwaukee.

U. S. WHITE BOOK BARES DIPLOMACY

Letters Between Germany and America Are Made Public.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—A second installment of what has come to be popularly known as the United States government's white book was issued last night by the State Department. It gives the text of important diplomatic correspondence with the belligerent governments of Europe since the publication of the first installment last May.

Besides constituting a public record of the position of the United States as a precedent for the future, the volume reveals to the public a series of charges and counter-charges by the belligerents that reflect the difficulties constantly encountered in the delicate task of observing neutrality. Most of the correspondence never before has been made public in text, although press dispatches have covered much of it in substance.

GERMAN VIEW GIVEN.

One of the most interesting features of the new edition is the publication of the first time of a memorandum of the German Foreign Office referred to in a colloquy between Chairman Flood of the House Foreign Affairs Committee and Representative Bartholdt of Missouri at the hearing on the bills proposing an embargo on arms. Flood quoted the memorandum as a justification of his argument that the German government did not hold shipments of munitions to the allies as illegal. It appears that the correspondence with the German government conducted by Ambassador von Bernstorff developed as a consequence of a ruling by the United States that it was a violation of neutrality for merchant ships to leave American ports for the express purpose of supporting belligerent warships at sea.

BERNSTORF SPEAKS.

"The position taken by the government of the United States as to the delivery of coal and other necessaries to warships of the belligerent states, constituting a violation of neutrality, is, in the opinion of the Imperial German government untenable in international law. The Imperial government has set forth its position on this point in a memorandum which, in compliance with instructions, I have the honor to forward your excellency."

U. S. RULES OTHERWISE.

The Secretary of States in his reply held that:

"The essential idea of neutral territory becoming the base for naval operations by a belligerent is, in the opinion of this government, repeated departure from such territory of merchant vessels laden with fuel or other supplies for belligerent warships at sea; in order to ascertain the vessels which are thus operating, the government has been obliged to investigate certain cases in order that it might determine whether there have been or are about to be a repetition of such acts, but in all respects equality of treatment has been observed toward all vessels suspected of carrying supplies to belligerent vessels."

JAPANESE PAPER GETS OUT PANAMA EDITION

Dealing at length with the Panama-Pacific Exposition, Japan's part in it, the close commercial relations between Japan and America, and containing messages of friendship from famous Americans and Japanese, the great Panama-Pacific edition of the Japan Advertiser, of Tokio, has reached America.

The big special edition, rivaling in color work the great dailies of America, and containing, besides many beautiful views of the exposition, many interesting pictures of Japanese art works, Japanese enterprises, and noted citizens of the Flowery Kingdom, was published in honor of the Exposition. The Advertiser is printed in English and Japanese, and, in its supplement section, contains interesting articles on Japanese commerce and enterprises. The edition gives a remarkable insight into the enormous extent of Japan's commercial activities and into Japan's wonderful progress.

The front page bears pictures of President Wilson and Count Okuma, and emblems of the Japanese and American flags.

PARRISH, FORGER, WEEPS WHEN GIVEN FOUR YEARS

FAIRFIELD, Oct. 29. — James Parrish, convicted of forgery, was sentenced by Judge O'Donnell to serve four years in San Quentin prison.

When sentence was imposed, the prisoner, who is 25 years old, broke down and cried like a baby, almost collapsing in his chair.

"I don't want to suffer for another man's crime. I am innocent," he cried.

Before imposing sentence, Judge O'Donnell denied a motion for a new trial, made by Attorney Beryl L. Gregg, for the defendant.

Parrish was employed in 1913, under the name of J. M. Davidson, as bookkeeper for the Pioneer Fruit company, and was accused of drawing worthless checks totaling $300, his victims being Suisun merchants. He suddenly disappeared, being located in Florida two years later, when he was returned here.

He stoutly maintained he was in England when the forgery took place, and that the case is one of mistaken identity.

PETER CANNOT BOTHER MARIE, DECIDES COURT

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—"She loves me, she loves me not—"

Peter Destarolis, 35 years of age, 608 West Adams street, was the defendant.

"I love this girl, and she has told me she loves me," he told Judge La Buy. "She is only 14 years old, so her father doesn't want us to marry."

"He annoys my girl every day," said James Kofuhos, 630 Blue Island avenue, the father. "She's a cash girl in a downtown store. He goes there every day, trying to make her elope with him."

"Do you love this man?" asked the judge.

Marie Kofuhos, wearing short dresses, looked into her father's eyes, then at Destarolis.

"No—I do not, she said, hesitatingly, "he always bothers me."

"One hundred dollars and costs," said the judge.

Destarolis couldn't pay the amount.

TO DEDICATE WINDOW.

HAYWARD, Oct. 29.—Memorial services will be held in the Trinity Episcopal church Sunday, when a stained glass window placed in the chancel of the church in memory of the late William Angus by Mrs. Angus will be dedicated. Rev. W. A. Rimer will conduct the service at 11 a. m.

CARNEGIE'S FRIEND DIES.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 29.—William M. Frew, wealthy attorney, associate of Andrew Carnegie, and former chairman of the board of directors of the Carnegie Institute, died at his home here last night. He had been ill for more than a year. He was 61 years of age.

COUGHED CONTINUALLY

Day and Night; Man Says Nothing Helped But Vinol.

That statement does not surprise us. We have told the people of Oakland many times during the last ten years that Vinol is the greatest remedy for chronic coughs and colds that we ever sold. Mr. Dunning says:

"I took a heavy cold which settled into a chronic cough. It seemed as though I coughed continually day and night, so I could not sleep. I was all run-down and so weak I could hardly keep about. I tried different cough medicines but seemed to get worse instead of better. I went to the drug store and got a bottle of Vinol. Before it was half gone I was better and its continued use cured my cough, built me up and I am feeling fine." Benj. Dunning, 208 Tenth Ave., Scranton, Pa.

Vinol is not a palliative like cough syrups, but it is a constitutional remedy for coughs, colds and bronchitis, which removes the cause and stops the cough, and the recovery of Mr. Dunning was due to the healing medicinal extractives of fresh cods' livers without oil, aided by the strengthening, revitalizing effect of tonic iron and beef peptone which are contained in Vinol. DISCOVERS HAUNT OF WILD TRIBE

Professor Sends Tidings of Amazon Discoveries to Pennsylvania.

By Associated Press.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 29.—An account of the discovery of the original habitat of the Mundurucus Indians, a little-known tribe of savages, was received here today from Dr. William C. Farabee, leader of the University of Pennsylvania museum's Amazon expedition. Dr. Farabee wrote that he had spent several months in Brazilian wilds never before visited by white men, and that he had made important geographical, zoological and ethnological discoveries.

After going up the Cururu river for some distance the expedition branched off to the east on foot into what is called on the maps "Campo Geral," but of which section little or nothing was known. Dr. Farabee pierced this country for 200 kilometers and it was here that he located the Mundurucus. He spent a long time among these Indians, studying their language, their manners and customs and making a vocabulary, as a result of which he expects to settle absolutely the question of the relations of this tribe to the Tupi. As for the country itself, Dr. Farabee reported that it was nothing but "a worthless, semi-desert area, hilly and rough and unfit for grazing purposes."

The expedition has been in the Amazon country for nearly three years.

AUTO 'KICKS' ARE CAUSE OF HURTS

Colles' Fractures More Common; Cranking Machines Blamed.

By Associated Press.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 29.—That the back-fire kick of automobile cranks has largely increased the number of what are known to surgery as "colles fractures," or fractures of the inner bone of the wrist, just back of the wrist joint, was reported to the annual convention of the Oregon Homeopathic Medical Society here yesterday, in a paper read by Dr. H. S. Nichols, and other doctors present agreed with him.

The cause of this form of fracture, said Dr. Nichols, used to be invariably a fall on the outstretched hand, but now the automobile's back-fire has come to contribute a more frequent cause, and "colles fracture" is the most common form surgeons are called upon to reduce. Discussion of methods of treating such fractures followed.

The meeting closes this afternoon.

GIFFORD PINCHOT LEFT $250,000 BY HIS UNCLE

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—The will of Amos F. Eno, pioneer merchant and owner of much New York real estate, who died on October 21, was filed for probate yesterday and showed he left an estate of an estimated value of more than $8,000,000. Of this amount, nearly $3,000,000 was bequeathed to public institutions.

After all other legacies are paid and trusts established under the will, the General Society of Mechanics and Tradesmen of New York is to receive $1,800,000. New York University, Metropolitan Museum of Art, American Museum of Natural History and the New York Association for Improving the condition of the poor are to receive $250,000 each.

Eno left legacies totalling $4,600,000 to his surviving brother, William B. Eno of Washington, D. C., and his surviving sister, Mrs. Antoinette E. Wood of Simsbury, Conn., and to the descendants of his deceased brothers and sisters.

Eno left $1,500,000 to be divided among the descendants of his deceased sister, Mrs. Anna E. Pinchot as follows:

"To her sons, Gifford Pinchot, Amos R. F. Pinchot, and her daughter, Lady Johnstone, $250,000 each; a trust of $250,000 to each of the two children of Amos Pinchot, and the same amount to Lady Johnstone's son. The sum of $1,000,000 was also left to be divided among several relatives of Eno's deceased brother, John C. Eno.

MACCABEES REVIEWS TO INSTALL OFFICERS

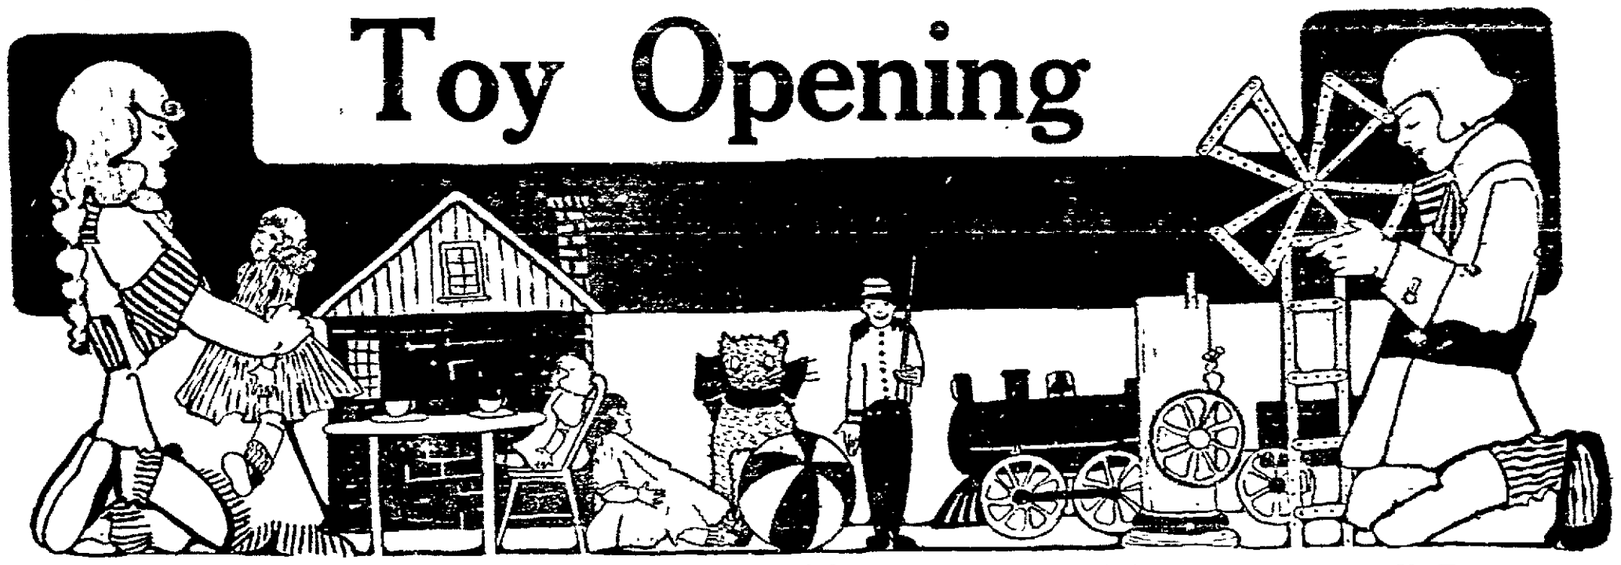

The women of the Reviews of the Womans Benefit Association of the Maccabees of the east bay cities are planning a delightful affair to be held in the Gold and Ivory ballroom of the Hotel Oakland on the evening of November 4 at which time the officers of nine Reviews will be installed by Mrs Minnie W. GED, PENNILESS, SHE SEEKS DEATH nable to Gain Admission to Almshouse, Woman Attempts Suicide.

Unable to gain admission to the in Francisco almshouse, discouraged d penniless, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth eddington, 59 years of age, attempt- to jump into the bay waters from e deck of the Key Route ferryboat aremont last evening, but was re- rained by deckhands, who inter- epted her as she rushed toward the de of the vessel. She is being held the central emergency hospital in an Francisco, pending an investiga- on.

The aged woman has rooms at 537 welfth street, this city, where noth- g is known of her beyond the fact at she recently came here from Sac- amento. She yesterday went to San rancisco, practically without funds. After making unsuccessful attempts dispose of two old cameos, she ught admission to the almshouse, nly to learn that there was not room r her except a cot in a dormitory. She told attendants at the institu- on that she was homeless and iendless, and that she feared she as losing her sight.

Trial Marriages Made Popular

Defect in Law, Says an Illinois Judge

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—Trial marriages not only have become actual facts in Chicago under the Illinois divorce law, but they are decidedly popular, according to the conclusion of Victor Arnold, judge of the Circuit Court, after a six-day assignment to a divorce court.

The State Circuit Court has held that marriages contracted in other states by divorced persons within one year after gaining a decree in Illinois are not legal in this state.

"These trial marriages are taking place every day, beyond question," said Judge Arnold. "It is apparent that under this system persons may marry as often as they wish, try it awhile, and, if not satisfactory, gain a divorce on the plea that the marriage took place within the prohibited period."

SUES FOR DIVORCE AFTER ACQUITTAL

Mrs. Evelyn May Becktell Files Complaint Charging Spouse With Cruelties.

Following her acquittal on the charge of eloping to Lodi with B. F. Woodson, Mrs. Evelyn May Becktell, of this city, has filed suit for divorce against her husband, Otto I. Becktell, the Oakland contractor who swore to the warrants against the woman and Woodson.

Cruelty and failure to provide were alleged in Mrs. Becktell's complaint, which was filed in Stockton, and various incidents in a stormy marital life are set forth. According to Mrs. Becktell's complaint they were married in Oakland in 1909, and she alleges that in 1913 her husband drew a revolver and threatened her life, in San Jose. She says that as a result of his actions her father was driven insane and is now in an asylum.

She also charges that her husband called her vile names and otherwise subjected her to indignities. She seeks custody of three minor children.

The second trial of B. F. Woodson, charged with her of the elopement, comes up in the San Joaquin county courts November 17.

ROTARIANS BOOST $1,000,000 P. O.

Active Campaign Started for New Building on Oakland's Federal Site.

An active campaign for a new million dollar postoffice, adequate to the needs of the Oakland department, was started today by the Rotary Club, which, with other civic and commercial organizations, will take up the matter of the new building as urged by Postmaster J. J. Rosborough. Practically every organization in Oakland will be asked to join in the campaign, and business men's organizations have, in a number of cases, already indorsed the plan.

The proposed new building is to be erected on the present postoffice site and new land adjoining it recently purchased by the government. The placing of the plan before the business men is the result of an inspection by Byron R. Newton, assistant secretary of the United States treasury, who declared that the city really needed the postoffice as proposed.

Oakland's mail carriers will wear shirtwaists and straw hats until November. This is the edict of the postmaster, who states that the use of a summer uniform until this time will be a striking proof of the mildness of California's climate.

Mrs. Jane Morris Ellis was another speaker at the Rotary Club session of yesterday.

MELLEN DENIES HE KNEW OF LETTERS

He Identifies Signatures, But Says He Never Read Epistles.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—At the outset of today's session of the trial of eleven former directors of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad under the Sherman anti-trust law, Charles S. Mellen obtained permission to make a statement in regard to the documentary testimony introduced by the government yesterday, relative to the political activities entered into in behalf of the road by John M. Hall, former vice-president. This was in the form of letters written by Hall.

"I want it to be known," said Mellen, "that I merely identified the signatures to these letters. I had not the remotest idea of their existence until yesterday. I was paralyzed to discover that I had been for ten years within reaching distance of these letter press copy books and was not blown up. I had no connection with these matters, direct or indirect."

The alleged activities of Hall had to do with preventing trolley competition with the New Haven through action by the legislatures of Connecticut and Rhode Island.

Mellen, who had been on the stand for seven days, was then temporarily excused, the defense announcing that they would not cross-examine him at this time. He was asked, however, by the attorneys for the government to remain in the courtroom for possible identification of other documentary evidence.

Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. FORM JOINT ORCHESTRA

Widespread interest is being shown in the plan for the formation of an orchestra to be composed of players from the Young Men's Christian Association and the Young Women's Christian Association and the preliminary meeting of the members will be held at 7:30 o'clock on Monday evening, November 8, in the auditorium of the Webster street Y. W. C. A.

George T. Matthews, the band and orchestral director in the Oakland and Fremont high schools, has been secured to organize and direct the new musical body and it is expected that an enthusiastic group of players will gather at once. Matthews, who comes to Oakland highly recommended from the New England Conservatory of Music, has been associated with successful musical activities in the Middle West and both associations are expecting much from his leadership.

The inauguration of this new musical activity is also expected by those interested to be far-reaching in its effects in promoting musical endeavor among the young people of the city.

SWEDISH DIPLOMAT TO OCCUPY LOCAL PULPIT

August Schvan, writer, diplomat and cosmopolitan, is announced to speak in the pulpit of the Rev. John M. Jackson at the Eighth Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church (Oakland), Sunday night, October 31, on "World Citizenship: Patriotism and The Next Step." Schvan has had a distinguished career as a diplomat and soldier. He was for some years secretary of the Swedish Legation at Petrograd from which post he was elevated by King Oscar to the position of Royal Chamberlain at Stockholm. Three years ago Schvan was tendered personally by the Kaiser of Germany a call to a chair in the German War College at Berlin. He is now in America on a lecture tour. He has already appeared in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, coming thence to San Francisco. His ideas have attracted wide attention. He was recently given for a day the editorship of a San Francisco daily newspaper which printed a special "Peace" edition.

MACHINE MADE OF TIN, NOVEL DAMAGE DEFENSE

E. A. Young, a local meat dealer, had a new defense when testifying for himself in the extra sessions department of the superior court yesterday in a $25,000 damage suit filed by Fred H. Parker, who was hit by the former's automobile. "I couldn't have hurt him much," Young testified, "because so far as I can discover my car is made of tin."

Parker was awarded damages in the sum of $250.

E. W. NEWHALL DIES.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—Edwin W. Newhall, member of the pioneer firm of H. M. Newhall & Co., and well known for his philanthropic inclinations, passed away yesterday morning at his late residence, 2930 Pacific avenue. The end was not unexpected, as Newhall had been lingering since July, 1914, when he was stricken with paralysis, following the death of his daughter, Virginia, which greatly affected him.

Biliousness and Constipation.

It is certainly surprising that any woman will endure the miserable feelings caused by biliousness and constipation when relief is so easily had and at so little expense. Mrs. Charles Peck, Gates, N. Y., writes: "About a year ago I used two bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets and they cured me of biliousness and constipation." For sale by Osgood Bros. Drug Stores.—Advertisement.

COMMERCIAL CLUB PLANS CAMPAIGN

Membership Teams for Big Expansion Movement to Have "Livest Wires."

The dates of November 15 to 19 are assuming big importance among the business and professional men of Oakland. Those are the days when the intensive selling movement to increase the membership of the Chamber of Commerce to at least 2500 will be carried on, and the plans are getting larger and larger each day, as the committee in charge of the work sees how well it is going and how bright are the prospects for exceeding the goal set when the preliminary work started last Monday.

Many hours a day are now being devoted to the work necessary before the actual selling of memberships begins, and the headquarters of the expansion movement, in the offices of the organization in the Hotel Oakland, are handing an immense amount of detail before the week of real activity arrives.

The city is being districted carefully for the benefit of those who will do the canvassing. There will be forty or fifty membership teams engaged in the work, made up of those who are conceded to be about the livest wires among the business men of Oakland. These men have not yet been finally selected. They will be chosen from lists prepared by the members themselves, 500 of whom have been asked to send in the names of the men they consider best qualified to handle the work. The names on these lists that receive the highest number of votes will be the ones who will be chosen for the actual selling work.

As soon as the teams and their captains are chosen the actual work of training them in selling memberships will be started. This will consist of a regular course in salesmanship as it applies to membership in a commercial organization, and each team member will be instructed thoroughly in the best methods to be used.

A. S. Lavenson, chairman of the committee that is making arrangements for the big luncheon to be given November 12 at the Hotel Oakland in honor of Edward F. Trefz, field secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, today named D. E. Perkins and Dr. J. Loren Pease as the other two members of the committee. It is believed that more than 600 business men will be present at the luncheon.

Will Verify Statement

Mr. Philip Gelber, 545 Bushwick Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y., will verify to anyone interested his endorsement of Fruitola and Traxo. In writing to the Pinus laboratories Mr. Gelber says:

"I suffered with gall-stones seven years—tried various remedies without satisfactory result—was induced to try Fruitola and Traxo. Glad to say I am now feeling better than at any time for years and heartily recommend Fruitola and Traxo."

Fruitola acts on the intestinal organs as a powerful lubricant—softening the congested masses, disintegrating the hardened particles that cause so much suffering and expelling the accumulation with almost instant relief. Traxo is a tonic-alterative acting on the liver and stomach, and is especially recommended in connection with Fruitola to build up and restore the weakened run-down system.

For the convenience of the public, arrangements have been made to supply Fruitola and Traxo through representative druggists. In Oakland they can be obtained at The Owl Drug Co. Stores.

OAKLAND BRIDE IS WINNER OF PRIZE

Marysville Rice Carnival to Be Enlivened by Local Couple's Marriage.

Two Oaklanders, Miss Mary Curti and Francis Fiorentine, have been selected as the lucky couple in a bride and groom contest held in Marysville in connection with the rice carnival in full sway there this week. This evening they are to be married in the big carnival tent.

Choice was made by the committee by the photograph of the most beautiful bride-elect entered, and the local couple won from more than a score of candidates for the houseful of furniture, the wedding trousseau and honeymoon trip to San Francisco offered as a reward.

The groom elect lives at 3525 Midvale avenue, in this city.

COMMERCIAL TRAVELERS TO HOLD 'HICK FROLIC'

Barn dances will never lose their magnetic appeal to the minds and feet of Americans—particularly western Americans. Oakland Council No. 394 of the United Commercial Travelers took this into consideration when its members decided to make its November dance a "hick frolic."

The affair will be held Friday evening, November 5, at Maple Hall, Fourteenth and Webster streets. The word has been passed around by Chairman Carl Remmel of the dance committee that spiketail suits for men and party gowns for the fair sex will be taboo. Instead, those who attend will be asked to garb themselves in appropriate harseed attire.

Prizes are to be given for original rustic costumes—and the prizes will be hams, bacon, ducks, chickens and such dainties.

NO TRADE PERIL IN WAR / TO U. S., SENATOR SAYS

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 29.—Senator James A. Reed of Missouri, in addressing a Democratic rally here today said there was no danger of the United States being flooded by the "pauper made" goods of Europe after the war. He said:

"Every day the war proceeds. Meanwhile America is concentrating her arms and is gaining wealth. Under such conditions it would seem manifest that any danger of Europe competition is being hourly lessened."

STOCKADE SEQUESTRATION SUGGESTED FOR TRAMPS

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 29. — Representatives of five counties met here yesterday in an effort to find a legal method of establishing something akin to the former "shotgun brigade" to picket railroad inlets and remove tramps from trains.

It was generally agreed that this method and the sequestration of the "undesirables" in stockades would be the most feasible plan.

Los Angeles, San Bernardino, Riverside, San Diego and Ventura counties were represented at the meeting, of which Oscar Ford, mayor of Riverside, was chairman.

WAR TENSION IS CAUSE OF DISEASE

Physician Tells of Perils Following on the Heels of Battles.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—The sufferings and emotions of the war are straining the nervous system of millions of people in Europe and in causing organic diseases at a rapid rate, in the opinion of Dr. George W. Crile of Cleveland, a surgeon who was in charge of Western Reserve University unit of the American Ambulance in Paris.

Addressing the New York Academy of Medicine last night, Dr. Crile told how fear, anxiety, exertion, anger and hate engendered by war produce harmful effects. He described this as the "time to drive" and said it starts electric currents which generate acids in the human organism. As a result of the disturbances caused by the conflict or being deeply affected by it, Dr. Crile said the brain, liver and kidneys are injured and chronic maladies may ensue. Photographic studies of soldiers were shown to demonstrate Dr. Crile's statements.

WAR OR JAIL, CHOICE OF CHECK OPERATOR

VALLEJO, Oct. 29.—At Fairfield Wednesday Superior Judge William T. O'Donnell sentenced J. M. Davidson, alias Clifford James Parish, alleged bad check passer, to serve four years in San Quentin prison, but the young man may escape going to prison, as he is to be permitted to return to England, enlist in the army and face death on the battle field. Davidson is an English subject and it is believed that he will take advantage of the chance to fight for his country.

HURT BY AUTO.

VALLEJO, Oct. 29.—Mrs. Laura Sinnott of San Francisco was badly injured here late yesterday afternoon when she was knocked down by an automobile driven by Joe Fertzno of Vacaville. Fertzno lost control of his car and ran up on the sidewalk.

MARE ISLAND NOTES

MARE ISLAND, Oct. 29.—Mare Island is in line to turn out 40,000 of the three-inch shells and 10,000 of the six-inch shells for the government, according to information received at the navy yard yesterday from the ordnance department. The forgings will probably arrive at the navy station in December.

Cards were issued at Mare Island yesterday for an upholsterer, six shipwrights and six helper woodworkers. The shipwrights and woodworkers are to be put to work on the navy receiving ship Rainbow by the hull department officers.

The receiving ship Intrepid is to be placed in first-class shape during the next two weeks, according to the latest orders issued at Mare Island.

The cruiser Cleveland did not leave the navy yard Thursday afternoon as scheduled, due to the fact that a small leak developed in one of her boilers.

Paymaster J. F. Brooks, U. S. N., will shoot ducks at the Cordelia marshes next Sunday in company with Dave Beveridge, the navy yard estimator and crack shot.

W. G. Weir, chief progress man at Mare Island, has been promoted to the position of foreman in the machinery department, according to advices received at the navy yard from Washington, D. C.

C. S. Beardsley, an electrical draftsman from Seattle, reported for work in the drafting room in Building 51 at Mare Island yesterday.

TO FURNISH NEW CITY HALL.

MARTINEZ, Oct. 29. — The city council has taken steps to complete the furnishing of the new city hall. It is a fine public building and occupies a location near the free library, making this the civic center. The council has also adopted a resolution for the laying of concrete sidewalks on many streets that are coming into more general use than formerly.

SCHOOL BONDS ILLEGAL.

MARTINEZ, Oct. 29.—An error in preparing the election call for the special bond election in the Selby School District has invalidated the $11,000 bond issue. Girvin & Miller, who bought the bonds, have refused to take them. The polls were open from 2 to 5 p. m. only, while the law prescribes that the voting continues from 8 a. m. until 6 p. m.

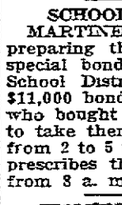

WOMEN ELECT OFFICERS.

MARTINEZ, Oct. 29.—Mrs. H. J. Curry of this city has been re-elected president of the Women's Improvement Club, and Mrs. W. S. Tinning re-elected secretary. The other officers are: Mrs. J. W. McClellan, first vice-president; Mrs. Elam C. Brown, second vice-president; Mrs. Frank Prosser, third vice-president; Miss Ada Lander, financial secretary, and Mrs. C. Van Prooyen, treasurer.

SOCIETY TO SKATE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—The swish and swirl of speedy skates on the smooth surface of glassy glistening ice are to become as familiar on the crest of Nob Hill in San Francisco as they are on the Hudson in winter time. For it became known yesterday the spacious Norman Hall of the Fairmont Hotel is to be converted into a real ice skating rink.

Twin Sisters Attack Grandfather's Will

By Associated Press.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 29.—Two grandchildren of the late James Green, millionaire tea products manufacturer, filed suit here today to contest the will [illegible] estate to three children by a second marriage.

The plaintiffs, Miss Lorna C. and Miss Marion H. Littlebrant, twin children of a daughter of Green by his first marriage, allege that their grandfather was of unsound mind for nine months preceding his death, that he was under the domination of other persons and that he was incapable of understanding what disposition he was making of his estate. Captain William Littlebrant, father of the plaintiffs, is stationed at Presidio, San Francisco, Cal. Their mother is dead.

The defendants in the suit are Ella Green, Mrs. Walter D. Thompson and Harold Rumsey Green.

New Superdreadnaught Nevada Ready for Test

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—The new superdreadnaught Nevada, the first battleship of the United States Navy, lay at anchor off Tompkinsville today, ready for her government tests off the Maine coast. The Nevada, which was recently completed at Quincy, Mass., has been overhauled at the New York Navy Yard. The tests are expected to continue for about a week.

Make your food more tempting with Cottolene

For making cakes, pies and pastry—for all shortening and frying—Cottolene is supreme.

Cottolene is an exact combination of the purest, richest, most carefully refined cottonseed oil and the choicest beef stearine obtained from selected, high grade leaf beef suet. Cottolene is itself one of the purest of pure foods.

Cottolene makes foods more digestible—more wholesome—makes them taste better. Use it for every kind of shortening and frying and for making cakes and pastries.

Cottolene

For a quarter of a century Cottolene has been growing steadily in favor. It is not offered as a substitute or as being "just as good" as other shortening and frying fats. It is an original product and better than anything else that you can use for shortening or frying. Insist on getting real Cottolene.

Cottolene is ready for use as you take it from the pail. It creams up beautifully and blends readily with the flour.

Use a third less of Cottolene than of any other shortening or frying fat. You can use it over and over for frying. Cottolene does not absorb tastes or odors. Always heat Cottolene slowly.

Pails of various sizes, to serve your convenience. Arrange with your grocer for a regular supply.

Write our General Offices, Chicago, for a free copy of our real cook book—"HOME HELPS."

OAKLAND SOCIALISTS TO HONOR LATE KIER HARDIE

A memorial to the Late Kier Hardie, English labor leader and parliamentarian, will be held by the Socialist party of Oakland on Sunday night, October 31, 8 p. m. at Hamilton hall, Thirteenth and Jefferson streets. Kier Hardie was one of the few labor leaders of Europe who stood true to the "Internationals." He refused to stand for the war and his friends attribute his death to a broken heart because of the war in Europe.

Henri La Fontaine of Belgium will speak on "World Organization." Scott Bennett will pay tribute to Kier Hardie and the cause he represented.

The meeting is free except that a collection will be taken up to aid Senator La Fontaine in his work of peace in America.

"HOBO BALL" FOR DEFENSE.

A "Hobo Ball" will be given by the International Workers' Defense League, composed of 56 organizations of labor affiliation, on Saturday evening, October 30, at Dreamland Rink, San Francisco. The proceeds of the affair will go to the defense of David Caplan, a member of the Carpenters' Union, and M. A. Schmidt of the Barbers' Union who are on trial for their lives in Los Angeles.

CARL'S BEDTIME STORIES

UNCLE WIGGILY BEATS A RUG

Copyright, 1915, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

(By Howard R. Garis)

"Well! Well!" exclaimed Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy, the muskrat lady housekeeper as she walked across the parlor of the hollow stump bungalow one day. "Well! Well! It certainly must be beaten."

"Beaten? Beaten?" asked Uncle Wiggily Longears, the rabbit gentleman; "what must be beaten, an egg?"

"Eggs? No, indeed!" laughed the muskrat lady as she tied her tail in a knot so that she would not step on it. "I am speaking of this parlor rug. It must be beaten to get the dust out of it. I suppose I shall have to wait until some big, strong animal-man comes along looking for work to get a night's lodging. He'll beat the rug for me."

"Will he?" asked Uncle Wiggily, sort of making his nose twinkle like the frosting on a chocolate cake. "Oh, no, he will not."

"And why not, pray?" asked Nurse Jane.

"Because I will beat the rug myself," spoke the old rabbit gentleman. "I have nothing to do this morning, and as it is my habit to go through the woods and fields, looking for an adventure, I will beat the rug for you."

"How can you?" Nurse Jane wanted to know.

"With my red, white and blue striped barber pole rheumatism crutch, that you gnawed for me out of a cornstalk. I will beat the rug," answered Uncle Wiggily.

"What about your rheumatism?"

"It will do me good to work," replied Mr. Longears. "I will beat the rug."

"Well, take it out on a line in the back yard," Nurse Jane said, "and please be sure to beat all the dust out, Wiggily."

"I will," promised the bunny uncle.

Soon he had the parlor rug stretched over the clothes line, hanging down on each side, and then using as a stick his crutch, which he did not need to lean on that day, as his rheumatism was not very painful, Uncle Wiggily began knocking out the rug dust.

"Whack! Whack! Whack!" went the cornstalk crutch stick as the rabbit gentleman pounded the rug.

Up in the air flew the dust in a cloud.

"It's just like playing soldier," laughed Uncle Wiggily. "My crutch makes a bang-bang noise like a gun, and the dust is the make-believe smoke from the gunpowder. I did not know rug-beating was such fun! I think Sammie Littletail, my rabbit nephew; Johnnie and Billie Bushytail, the squirrels, and Jackie and Peetie Bow Wow, to say nothing of Billy Wagtail, the goat chap, would like to play this rug-beating game. I wonder if Nurse Jane will let me keep the rug out on the line until the children come home from school?"

As Uncle Wiggily thought of this he made his crutch beat the rug more and more slowly, so he could make the fun last until school was out. But pretty soon the muskrat lady looked out of the back door.

"Isn't that rug beaten yet, Wiggy?" she asked.

"Oh, I haven't gotten half the dust out so far," Uncle Wiggily made answer. "There's oceans and oceans of dust yet to be taken out."

"Well, hurry all you can, please," spoke the housekeeper muskrat. "I want to get the rug back on the floor and the room set to rights before night."

"I guess, after all, I can't make this rug-beating fun last until the boys come home from school," thought Uncle Wiggily. "I wish I could, though."

Then he made his crutch go: "Bang! Whack! Bang!" and the dust flew up in clouds: "Whish, Swish, Swosh!" until you would have thought it was Fourth of July or Christmas.

Uncle Wiggily was beating and beating away and he was wondering what sort of an adventure he would have that afternoon, as he went for a walk down town in the woods, when, all of a sudden, an adventure came to him in the morning, without any trouble on his part.

That is to say, along came the bad old fox, and a fox to Uncle Wiggily was the same as an adventure is to us.

"Ah ha!" snickered the fox. "Beating a rug, I see, Mr. Longears."

"Ye-yes!" said Uncle Wiggily, feeling as though he had a pain in his heart. For well he knew what the fox wanted—the old gentleman rabbit himself.

"Have you almost finished beating the rug?" the fox wanted to know.

"Indeed, I have not," spoke the rabbit gentleman. "It has oceans and oceans of dust left in it. I shall be quite the rest of the day beating it out."

"Oh, will you, indeed?" asked the fox, as politely as he could speak, which is not saying much, I know. "As long as that, eh? Well, I'll wait for you, so don't be any longer than you can help," and the fox lay down on the ground where he could watch the rabbit gentleman, and where, in case Uncle Wiggily tried to run away, or go and hide in the hollow stump bungalow, the fox could catch him.

"Please don't wait on my account," said the rabbit rug-beater, "I may be all night at this."

"Oh, it's no trouble for me to wait," said the fox, yawning sort of sleepy like. Yet Uncle Wiggily knew he was wide awake. "I've waited a good while for you, Mr. Longears, but at last I have you. As soon as you finish beating the rug I'll carry you away with me."

"Oh, dear!" thought Uncle Wiggily, "now I am in for it." He beat the rug as slowly as he could, hoping a policeman dog might come along to drive away the fox, but none came. "I don't want to go to Nurse Jane," thought Uncle Wiggily, "or she would suddenly rush out to help me, and the fox might bite her. What can I do?"

Then the rabbit gentleman all at once thought of a plan.

"Who is that coming up behind you?" he quickly asked the fox. The bad creature turned his head to look, but there wasn't any one at all (Uncle Wiggily just said that to fool the fox). And, the moment the fox turned his head, Uncle Wiggily slipped in between the two sides of the rug, as they hung over the line like a tent.

"I'll hide in the rug," thought Uncle Wiggily, "and when the fox can't see me he'll think I've run away. Then he'll go off and I'll be safe."

And when the fox looked around again, not seeing any one behind him, he did not even see Uncle Wiggily in the rug.

"Come, this is queer!" said the fox. "That rabbit is gone. He must be on the other side of the rug. I'll look.

So the fox did, but of course he did not see Uncle Wiggily, who was in between the rug, out of sight.

"This is very queer!" said the fox. "There is some funny business going on here. Maybe a fairy made Uncle Wiggily vanish. Maybe he'll make me vanish next. Uncle Wiggily has fooled me again! I guess I'd better run away." And the fox did.

Then Uncle Wiggily came out from in between the two sides of the rug, finished knocking the dust out of it, and carried it in the hollow stump bungalow.

"I'm glad I put the rug on the line, instead of in the grass, for I never could have crawled under it to hide from the fox," thought the rabbit gentleman. So everything came out all right, you see. And if the clothespin doesn't pinch the basket of eggs and make them talk in their sleep, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and Billie Wagtail.

WINDOW DISPLAY OF MOTOR CAR ATTRACTIVE

Studebaker Dealers Hit on a Novel Plan for Showing Up Limousine.

(By J. A. HOULIHAN.)

By far the most successful attempt at securing an attractive window display for showing an automobile to the best advantage and in a way to command the greatest attention from passersby is the exhibit which the Chester N. Weaver Co. have had arranged for the last ten days.

Shortly after the first 1916 Studebaker six Limousines was received here Manager Gurley hit upon a plan of getting away from the customary tradition of simply having the car polished up and then placed on show. He wanted some good suggestion for best presenting the enclosed model and his wishes were fulfilled in rather a clever fashion by Harry Noake, one of the salesmen, whose suggestion was that properly gowned wax models be secured from some department store then be placed in the car just as though the scene was in real life.

Having done this with the assistance of H. C. Capwell Co. and Roos Bros., the display was fixed up.

At night the interior of the car is illuminated. The exhibit has won no little praise from every one who has seen it. Word reached the Studebaker factory and an immediate request was wired for photographs with the information that it was the intention of the home office to send pictures of it to their distributors in the larger cities.

NEW SAXON MODELS HERE.

The new series Saxon six has made its appearance. It has been on display at the Peacock Co. salesrooms since Tuesday. Many detail changes have been made which tend to make the six of even greater value than its predecessor. One distinct improvement has been the enlarging of the Tonneau. It has been widened 4 inches.

Where Timken bearings were used in but one or two places in the first series Saxons they are now employed throughout, on the late series.

A two-unit starting and lighting system is another change which has been incorporated to the general betterment of the present models.

"We have had the agency for this car just long enough to dispose of a surprisingly large number. When we first took up the Saxon," states E. L. Peacock, head of the company, "we met a form of opposition that had never occurred to us. Prospective buyers whom our salesmen would call upon invariably appeared disinterested when the name Saxon was mentioned. They, it seems, had in mind our smaller car, which, though excellent mechanically is still characterized as a very small automobile. The fact that a large six-cylinder model was being made by this company which was being sold at a figure under $1000 was not known to many, and time and again our boys had no end of difficulty in getting a future buyer to ride with him. Once they see the car, however, and learn of its standardized component parts and then ride in it our work is usually made very easy.

"That feeling, we are happy to say, is vanishing and the Saxon is taking its place in the minds of the interested automobile was as one of the leading popular priced high grade models on the market."

NEW KING AGENTS.

The agency for the King 8 has been taken over by a company headed by W. E. Paige of this city, and which is to be known as the King 8 Auto Sales Co. The official opening will take place Monday. At this time a salesroom which is being very appropriately fitted up at 2543 Broadway, will be completed.

Paige is a newcomer into the automobile field. He is at present the owner of a hotel in this city. He is surrounding himself with experienced motor car salesmen.

Paige is optimistic over the possibilities for doing a large and successful automobile business on this side of the bay and feels particularly fortunate in having been able to secure the King 8 with which to make his entry into this business.

SELL DIMMING APPLIANCE.

The Perrin No Glare Appliance is to be sold here by Weinstock Nichols. It is a thin aluminum shield which fits around the headlight bulb and deflects the light down and out on the road in such a manner as to remove the glare.

The makers claim that they have fitted something like 150,000 cars in Eastern States with it and that their appliance has won approval from police chiefs in numerous cities.

FRUIT SHIPPING SEASON SHOWS STEADY DECLINE

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 29.—The deciduous fruit shipping season in California is showing a steady decline, and with the exception of grapes but little of other fruit is moving. Grape shipments are continuing to move in good quantity and it is estimated by local shippers that an average of 100 cars a day will be sent east this week. There are probably nearly 1000 cars of grapes yet to be shipped, but commencing next week the daily movement will show a rapid decline until the season is over.

Yesterday's shipments totaled 114 cars against 101 for the same date last year. Grape shipments are heavier at this time than on corresponding days in 1914, 109 cars being shipped Tuesday and 98¼ on October 26, 1914. The total movement of deciduous fruits to date is 14,669 cars, which is only 89¼ cars under the season's shipment to date in 1914.

CONTRIBUTE CUTICLE TO AID BURNED MODESTAN

MODESTO, Oct. 28. — Colonel Cy N. Clark, who was severely burned about the legs and back two months ago at Bakersfield, while trying to clean oil from his clothes with gasoline, has received 250 square inches of skin from three friends for grafting purposes. Dr. J. C. Robertson removed the skin from the bodies of the three and transferred it to Clark's limbs.

It is believed that Clark's recovery will be complete now.

PEDDLER INJURED.

M. C. Lemner, a peddler of 1236 Eighteenth street, was badly injured about the head and face last night, when the wagon he was driving collided with an electric train of the Southern Pacific Company at Eighteenth and Union streets. He was treated at the emergency hospital.

HURT IN FALL.

HAYWARD, Oct. 29.—Joseph Silveira, rancher of Castro Valley, is at the Hayward sanitarium suffering from a fractured skull incurred in a fall from a street car here. It is said he attempted to alight from the car on Castro street while it was in motion. His head struck violently on the street and he was unconscious several hours. He was given treatment at the home of Dr. G. A. Alexander and was later removed to the sanitarium.

"PLUG UGLY" ENDED.

STANFORD, Oct. 29.—Stanford's "plug ugly," the historically traditional upper class men's poster fight, show and Quad rush, was officially killed by the students of the classes of 1916 and 1917 yesterday at an election on the Quadrangle. The vote of the juniors was 144 opposed and 63 in favor, while the seniors voted 119 opposed and 86 in favor.

ISSUES LETTER IN SPEEDY DIVORCE

Attorney Taylor Explains Away Erroneous Ideas in Public Mind.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 29.—An echo of the divorce proceedings between Mrs. H. Theresa Speedy, former member of the Alameda Board of Education, and her husband, T. H. Speedy, was heard today when E. K. Taylor, Mrs. Speedy's legal representative, issued a public statement concerning the act. Taylor says that rumors have been afloat and have been heard by Mrs. Speedy and himself, to the effect that she went into court with her divorce complaint, that it was heard and she was denied her appeal. Taylor says that this was not the case and declares that he issued the statement to correct an erroneous idea in the minds of the public.

Taylor's letter is as follows:

"To the Many Friends of Mrs. T. H. Speddy:

"Owing to an erroneous impression, in effect that Mrs. T. H. Speddy has been denied a divorce, and impelled by my high regard for her and firm belief in the justice of her cause, I am constrained to depart from my custom and state a few facts.

"The lady commenced action and we never had any doubt of its successful termination. The husband answered with denials and a mild cross-complaint. After property rights and custody of minor son were amicably adjusted, as suggested, in order to avoid the necessity of using children as witnesses in suit between parents, that the action be tried on the cross-complaint.

"I honor Mrs. Speddy because her mother love was stronger than pride; and she consented, did not appear at the trial, offer a witness or objection. Her complaint was withdrawn by me, without prejudice, and none of its allegations were ever passed upon by the court.

"A decree of divorce was entered on the cross-complaint, without opposition, and thereby the object sought by Mrs. Speddy was attained. There were no facts in evidence, or in any way learned by me, which, in any degree whatever, were prejudicial to Mrs. Theresa H. Speddy. In this, as in similar cases involving only mental cruelty, which party secures the decree is not important, although as a matter of courtesy it is usually conceded to the wife. Very truly,

"E. K. TAYLOR."

Women's Oratory To Last 24 Hours

Suffragists Will Talk Day and Night for the 'Cause'

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Twenty-four hours of continuous oratory, beginning at midnight tonight with a meeting in Longacre square, will mark the beginning of the whirlwind finish of the woman suffrage campaign.

Forty-eight speakers have been enlisted and will relieve one another at half-hour intervals, so that the meeting will be continuous until midnight Saturday night. The list of speakers includes many of the leaders of the woman suffrage organization.

AGED MAN VICTIM OF CAR.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—G. H. Badger, an aged mechanic of 25 Johnson avenue, was struck by an Ocean Beach car at Geary street and Commonwealth avenue this morning and rendered unconscious. It was some time before he revived sufficiently to give his name. An examination at the Park Hospital showed that he had received concussion of the brain and numerous cuts and bruises.

Wilson's Widow Asks for $111,000 Estate

Mrs. Mabel Wilson, widow of the late John C. Wilson, has filed a petition in the probate department of the Superior Court asking for the distribution of the estate of the late Agnes C. Wilson, her mother-in-law, which is valued at $111,000. The estate is in an involved condition as the result of the bankruptcy of the petitioner's husband shortly before his death.

Wilson was sole heir to the estate of his mother. Being in financial difficulties and needing money before the estate could be probated, he assigned it to Herbert Fleischhacker of the Anglo and London Paris National Bank of San Francisco in return for loans. He later went through bankruptcy and F. J. Sobinsky was appointed trustee of the estate. Upon her husband's death Mrs. Wilson was made administratrix of the estate.

Hensen and Sons Not Arrested for Murder

By Associated Press.

DODGE CITY, Kan., Oct. 29.—Jared Hensen and two sons, reported arrested in connection with the murder last Friday of Miss Nellie Byers, a school teacher, in Grant county, were not taken in custody, officers explained today, but their home near the scene of the crime was placed under surveillance. Hensen was the employer of Archie Sweet, farm hand, held in jail here.

FIRE TRUCK DUE.

HAYWARD, Oct. 29.—The new $6000 auto fire truck is due here from the east Sunday and will be installed in the new firehouse on Castro street. With the acquisition of the truck, which was built to the order of the town board by an eastern motor manufacturing firm, will give this city one of the most up-to-date fire-fighting systems for a place of its size in the state. It already possesses an electric fire-alarm system and other improvements.

WILL THE POLICE SAVE THE CHILDREN?

On this page of The Tribune is printed a letter from the secretary of the Alameda County Society for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis in which he comments upon the vigorous efforts of The Tribune to induce the local authorities to enforce the laws against spitting on the sidewalks, in street cars and other public places. The Tribune has worked assiduously and earnestly to the end of trying to arouse the people of this city to a realization of the great danger to health and life which arises from the filthy condition of our streets, due in a large measure to promiscuous spitting. We have printed interviews from reputable and experienced physicians, scientists, professional men, merchants, bankers and other intelligent citizens, strongly condemning the violation of the spitting ordinance and emphasizing the danger to the city which its continuous infraction involves. The Tribune is particularly concerned about the children of Oakland. Thousands of them have to travel in street cars daily and they are being needlessly, heedlessly and inexcusably exposed to the danger of contracting tuberculosis. It is a well-established fact that young persons contract this disease much more readily than adults in middle life. It is knowledge of this fact which has led us to insist upon an enforcement of the ordinance by the Police Department. The health officer of the city ought to be moving in this direction, even if he is not specifically indicted by the law as the one to call attention to the insanitary conditions of the streets. The Mayor should have taken this matter up long ago instead of spending his time in boasting and bleating at political meetings. The Police Department has shown itself utterly inadequate to the proper meeting of this menace. Loafers daily on the street corners, in plain sight of the police, are spraying sidewalks and curbs with their saliva. If the Chief of Police is not able to enforce this ordinance, the suspicion naturally arises that he is a person without resolution or firmness of character and that he would probably be a positive handicap to the city in the face of a great crisis.

BEFORE AND AFTER

"In a peculiar sense Governor Johnson comes before the people of California today for indorsement. * * * In his belief in the wisdom, yes, the necessity for this step forward in the political progress of the State the Governor has thrown his powerful personality into the battle for the complete elimination of the party from State affairs."—Sacramento Union, October 26th.

"Apparently the people of California went to the polls yesterday determined to vote 'No' right down the line and did it. In no other way can the result of the election be explained."—Sacramento Union, October 27th.

"The main interest was, of course, the non-partisan referendum, and the fact that even so important a proposal as this could bring out only a small vote and this predominantly of the opposition, indicates that the people are for the moment no longer interested in political reforms, using the word 'political' in the narrower sense."—Fresno Republican, October 27th.

"I cannot express an opinion as to the necessity for an extra session, as I have not spoken to the Governor about it."—Speaker C. C. Young of the Assembly, October 28th.

Congressmen and Senators in eighteen States will be the motifs for pleasant little "going-away parties" on November 16th. These States are non-suffrage States and are preparing to take concerted part in a big "drive" for the Susan B. Anthony amendment in Congress this winter. Through the Congressional committee of the national organization for woman suffrage simultaneous suffrage conventions representative of all the suffrage organizations of each district will be held as a farewell reminder to the Congressmen before their departure for Washington. They will be fully and definitely informed as to the sentiment of the women of their separate constituencies and of the fact that the national suffrage organization expects their support. These States are Maine, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Maryland, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Michigan, Missouri, Nebraska and South Dakota. President Wilson in his gracious individual support of the suffrage campaign in New Jersey stated that he was opposed to recognition of the suffrage campaign as a national question. In this respect he was merely giving expression to a plank in the Democratic platform. The President did not aid the cause in New Jersey. His own voting precinct went strong against equal suffrage. However, the Senators and Congressmen will probably enjoy their farewell teas, providing they are not indisposed or called out of town on business.

The City Auditor has acted properly and in the interest of taxpayers in rejecting special bills for professional services rendered by Drs. Higgins and Musser, respectively City Health Officer and City Bacteriologist. These men are in receipt of salaries from the city treasury and should not receive extra pay for small services rendered to city employes injured in the line of duty.

The destruction of a parochial school in Peabody, Mass., yesterday resulted in the loss of the lives of twenty pupils. It is one of the kind of tragedies which will inevitably occur from time to time so long as old frame buildings are occupied as schools.

POLLUTING THE STREETS—LETTER OF THANKS.

To the Editor of The Tribune:

On behalf of our officers and directors I wish to extend to you and the staff of your paper a hearty vote of thanks for the splendid publicity which your paper has recently given to the need for enforcing the Anti-Expectoration Ordinance. Beyond a doubt the forceful manner in which your paper took up this most important factor in the prevention of disease has convinced a great number of our residents of the danger of permitting indiscriminate expectoration. Personal observation on my part has proven that already our downtown street corners are cleaner, and the society hopes that with the aid of the new Don't Spit Signs which we are having prepared and the support which your paper is giving us we will soon be able to point to a material reduction in the filth on our public thoroughfares.

Assuring you of my personal appreciation of your co-operation, I am

Very truly yours,

IS COMMUNITY RESPONSIBLE?

To the Editor of The Tribune:

In The Forum of The Tribune of October 27, Mr. T. E. Smith says some good things regarding the shooting of Dore by Blakie.

I heartily agree with Mr. Smith when he says "I cannot help feeling that the community is morally responsible for Dore's death." He saddles the blame on the pawn shops and other establishments where firearms are sold indiscriminately to all and sundry. I, too, believe with Mr. Smith that the sale and carriage of revolvers and guns should be under strict surveillance by the authorities, but I cannot believe that in the sad incident wherein Dore lost his life, the community is morally responsible only because it has not enacted and enforced strict ordinances relative to the sale of deadly weapons by hardware merchants, pawnbrokers and junk dealers. No, indeed. There is another kind of business for the results of which "the community is morally responsible," inasmuch as the community not only silently looks on while it sells its wares to all and sundry with few restrictions, but actually issues a license permitting the business. I mean liquor traffic. Blakie was under the influence of liquor when he walked into Dore's saloon. Where did he get the liquor that influenced him? Evidently from some firm in the liquor traffic. Why did he go into Dore's saloon? The account says he "demanded a drink." Would he have shot Dore if he had not been influenced by liquor? I believe it is reasonable to say he would not have shot him. Then which is the more responsible for this shooting, the revolver or the liquor, the revolver-seller or the liquor-seller and for which does the community bear the greater responsibility, the unrestricted sale of firearms or the licensed sale of liquor?

Yours for a clean, safe and sane city,
T. A. KILGORE.

JUDGE OGDEN ON THE LORD'S PRAYER.

To the Editor of The Tribune:

Judge Ogden states the original meaning of the prayer. "Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil."

The Savior foretold the disciples they would have many trials of hunger, robbers and assaults; these temptations were inevitable, but the Heavenly Father would, in answer to prayer, deliver them.

The prayer is not for exemption from assault, but for deliverance in victory over temptation.

JAMES B. ORR.

NOTABLE PERSONS.

There is a well-defined rumor in Japan that the Pacific Mail intends to return to the trans-Pacific business, according to H. Surm, who arrived from Japan with his wife and daughter yesterday in San Francisco.

The "Echo Belge" says that Count Joseph de Hemptinne was executed at Ghent on October 26. He was a member of a prominent Catholic family.

Senator Chamberlain of Oregon, chairman of the Senate Committee on Military Affairs, in conference with President Wilson yesterday, urged legislation by both federal and state governments requiring all colleges and schools that receive public assistance to give military training to their students.

Announcement that Pope Benedict had donated 25,000 kronin (about $5000) to the Polish relief fund was made by the Overseas News Agency yesterday.

Dr. Ralph Waldo Mendelson, a navy surgeon, well known in California, has been arrested by the Bulgars, according to a telegram received yesterday by Lieutenant Walter F. La Frenz, executive officer of the St. Louis now in San Francisco.

The Russian Emperor, accompanied by Crown Prince Alexis, has gone to the southern front.

A SONG FOR FALL.

What if there's Fall in the red of the thicket,
Fall in the haze of the flaw-scarred sea,
Fall in the chant of the boist'rous black cricket?
Autumn's no foe to flee!

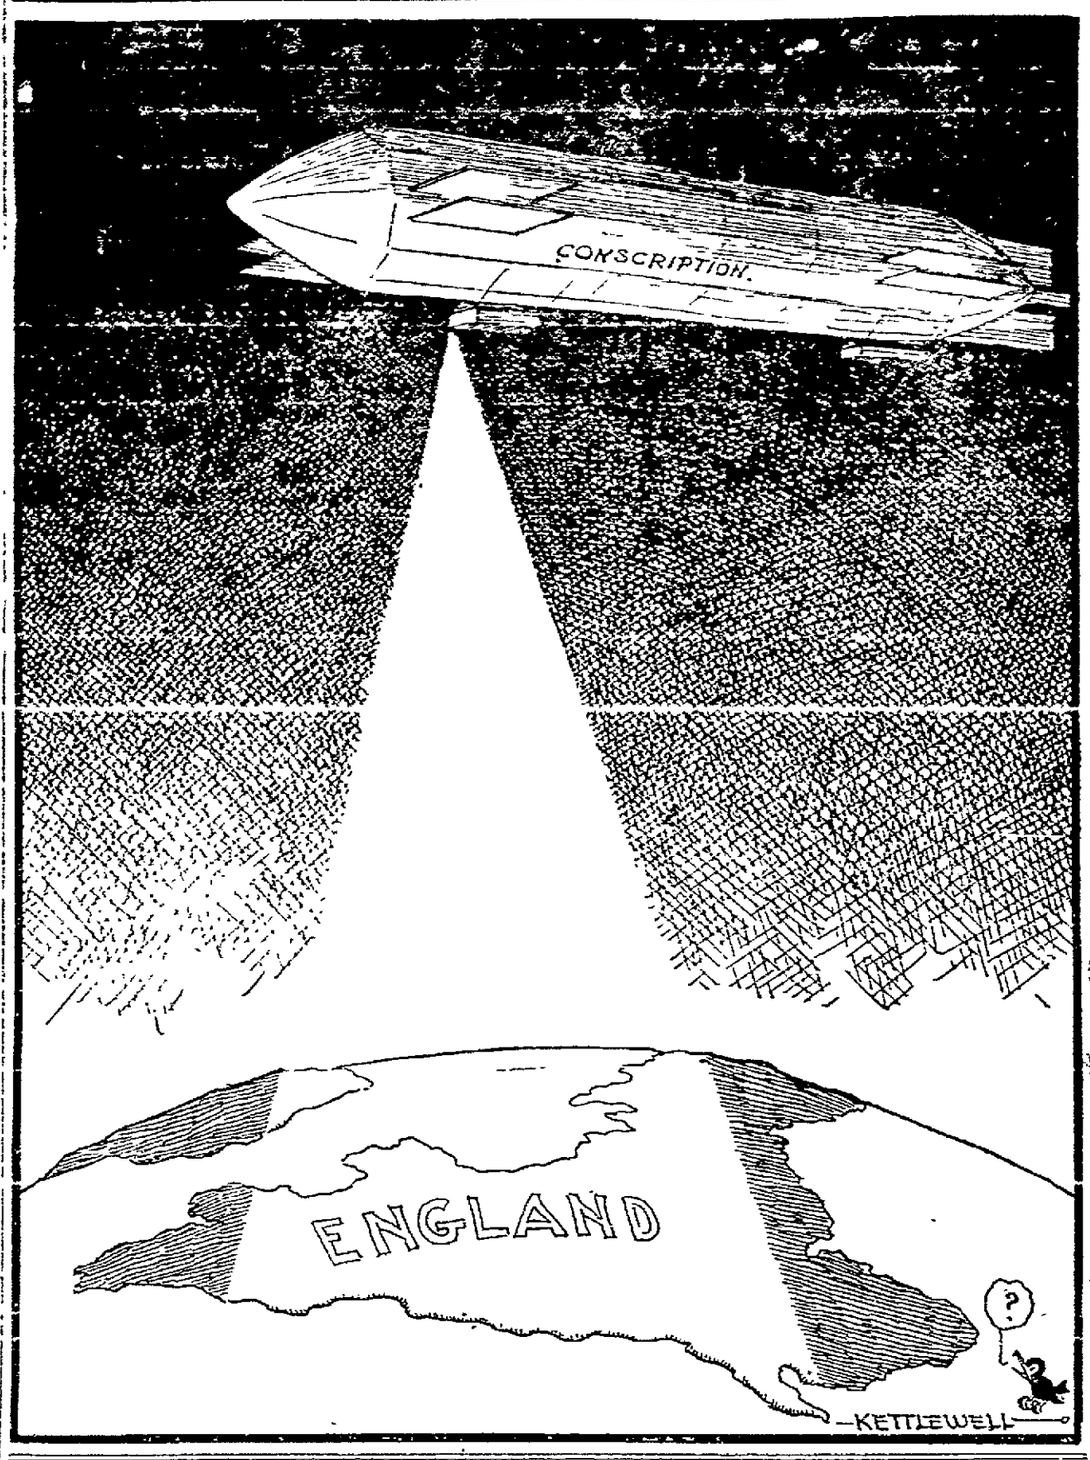

What if the year is today turning over
The rich pageant-page of its gloried close?
If withered brown leaves soon shall cover the clover—
The garden be but one rose?

Love still goes tramping ahead, working wageless,
To play at surveyor and break a new road.
So in thy heart shall the Spring blossom ageless—
Winter can lay no load.
—Edna Mead, in N. Y. Times.

PRESIDENT DID NOT HELP.

Mr Wilson's voting precinct went against equal suffrage. The president supported the cause. But Governor Fielder opposed it, and his district returned a majority in its favor. This the tradition of politics is sustained. Did a candidate ever win by the votes of his immediate neighbors?—N. Y. Sun.

HOVERING!

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY

The pupils of Miss McBride's school of dramatic expression gave an elocutionary entertainment last evening in the First United Presbyterian church at Tenth and Castro streets.

The Bowdin college struggle for the Merritt fortune closed for the week yesterday afternoon. For eight days the defendants piled up testimony to establish the fact that Mrs. Garcelon was weak and vacillating and was influenced by Judge Stanley and S. Purrington.

At a recent meeting of the trustees and library trustees of Alameda to consider the proposition of removing the public library of that city to the city hall, a letter from Public Librarian Peterson of this city was read to the effect that the scheme would be a wise one.

A dispatch from Washington says that the appointment of Warren English of this city as collector of customs at this port has been approved by Assistant Secretary Hamlin of the treasury department, who has charge of the customs.

The Effect of Intercommunication and Transportation on Development

(By THEODORE N. VAIL, ...dent of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company.)

...rcommunication and transportation, ... and efficient, has made possible the ...ment of the world's products in ...section and the assembly of raw ...ial from widely separated sections ... most favorable point for manufac-... and distribution; it has made possi... ...ansactions and intercourse between ...arts of the world. It is now easier to ...ge matters between individuals ... scattered than formerly between ... in the same community. As inter-...unication and transportation de-..., so develops commerce and so-...

... wealth of our country has been ...d by and is absolutely dependent ... these facilities; without them it ... disappear. "Transportation and in-...mmunication change local stagna-... to world-wide prosperity." Trans-...tion and intercommunication have ...ed, and upon their continuance de-... the populous and prosperous com-...al and social centers. All other ... services are subordinate to these. ...rever man lives, in city or country, ... dependent, he must be served ... the beginning these services were ... and welcomed as "beneficial ad-...ges" soon they were regarded as ...ndencies" of public favor, and as public dependence upon them increased, they were regarded more from the point of self-interest, and narrow consideration became prominent in all dealings with them.

This attitude was no new characteristic. Society has never allowed that which is necessary to existence to be entirely controlled by private interest. It has always been brought under sufficient control and regulation to prevent extortion or oppression, without destroying the conventional rights of property, which were additionally safeguarded by its character, its small investment its adaptability to other purposes.

The construction and equipment of present-day utilities requires large "unrecallable" investment in special plant and equipment which has little or no liquidating value as a going concern of the same nature, and without equitable treatment there must be great loss.

These public services, to obtain the maximum benefit at the minimum cost, necessarily assumed the nature and many of the characteristics of "monopolies." This was made an excuse for the enactment of restraining laws, and made them too frequently the target of misrepresentation and at times of veritable persecution which might be brutally described in the expression "might makes right."

The regrettable trouble, the greatest danger of all is the lack of a proper recognition of the close inter-dependent relations between the prosperity of those utilities and the prosperity of the public.

Reckless methods of promotion, and disregard of public rights by some of the many connected with these utilities have antagonized the public and created the idea that the practices of a few were the practices of all. Some of the managers may have given too much consideration to their shareholders and too little to the public, forgetting the mutual inter-dependence and common interests, but there has been and there is a growing tendency to meet the public in a broad and liberal way. In many of the most marked cases of maladministration and reckless financial management the underlying purpose was to profit through the increase and improvement of facilities, and in nearly every, if not every instance, the public have obtained better, more extended and even cheaper services and facilities.

Much of the public misunderstanding and financial loss to the public has been through new promotions, which under the name of "competition" and the cry of "down with monopoly" duplicated in part existing utilities—covered only the profitable part of the business—and did not meet the essential "raison d'etre" of a utility, which is, to afford facilities to all investment was increased without increasing facilities, and the power of the existing utility to extend service was lessened by dividing the profitable business.

ENVOYS DISCUSS CHINESE PROBLEM

English, Russian and Japanese Officials Confer on Contemplated Change.

By Associated Press.

PEKING, Oct. 29.—The Russian minister, M. Krupenski, the British minister, Sir John Newell Jordan and Charge Obata of the Japanese Legation consulted Foreign Minister Lu Cheng-Hsing yesterday at the foreign office concerning the possible results of China's change to a monarchical form of government.

Charge Obata inquired whether President Yuan Shi Kai was confident that he could re-establish the monarchy without untoward results effecting the general peace in the far east. He made a friendly suggestion on behalf of Japan that the change be delayed for some time at least. He disclaimed any desire on the part of the Japanese to interfere with Chinese internal affairs, but urged that with Europe engaged in a dead struggle, China's welfare as well as that of the entire world was dependent upon the prevention of further international disturbances.

OBATA IS SPEAKER.

Charge Obata was the chief spokesman in the audience with the foreign minister, but Sir John Jordan took part in the discussion and M. Krupenski expressed approval of the statements of his associates.

The leading part taken by M. Obata in the conference is causing some comment, because both his associates outrank him in point of seniority.

Lu Cheng Hsing told M. Obata and his colleagues that the future form of China's government was absolutely in the hands of the people who are now voting on the question.

Announcement of election returns in various provinces show no votes against re-establishment of a monarchy. Complete returns will be given officially on November 20.

POSTPONEMENT ASKED.

TOKIO, Oct. 29.—Official announcement was made by the foreign office today that Japan has requested China to postpone the project for re-establishment of a monarchical form of government. The Foreign Office statement uncovers an under current of opposition to a monarchy exists among the Chinese and that it is far stronger than has been imagined In fact, the Foreign Office says, a feeling of unrest is spreading in all parts of China.

The Foreign Office praises the administration of President Yuan Shai Kai, but fears the sudden move to re-establish the monarchy is likely, in view of the widespread opposition to cause disorders such as would endanger the future of China.

10-CENT TAX ON BRANDY IS LIMIT

LODI, Oct. 29.—W. H. Osborn, United States Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C., was informed, in unmistakable terms, by Lodi growers and business men that the very largest tax the wine grape industry can possibly stand on brandy used for fortifying purposes is 9 or 10 cents a gallon. The eastern official was presented with facts and figures, which, in the opinion of local wine grape growers, should convince the United States government that the present tax of 55 cents will defeat its object.

The conference was held at the Mokelumne Club, fifty growers being in attendance.

The California Wine Association was represented by C. J. Wetmore, general manager, and T. Minturn, manager for West & Son. These officials, however, took no part in the discussions.

A general discussion was indulged in by grape growers and local business men, among whom were W. C. Brown, H. E. Welch, John Stein and George Hogan. The revenue men asked many questions about the wine industry. They obtained figures on the expense of producing a crop of grapes, and asked what the growers thought would be a fair proportion of the revenue to be charged to the wine industry. While Osborne was non-committal, it is believed he was greatly impressed, and that he will recommend a change in the proposed tax of $1.10 on brandy used in fortifying sweet wines.

Osborne had little to say, but proved a good listener.

W. C. Brown stated, in answer to a query made by Osborne, that the cost of producing a ton of wine grapes is $6.50. He submitted figures showing the volume of business done by the wineries, the cost of making wine, and the influence of the tax on the industry.

The information will be presented to Congress at the next session, when the brandy tax comes up, it is announced.

MAN COMMITS SUICIDE BY HANGING TO TREE

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 29.—The body of an unidentified man, whose name is thought to be Dorsey or Dersey, was found hanging to a tree near Alvin station, on the Southern Pacific, near the American river, a few miles from Sacramento. A wire was tied about the dead man's neck and to the limb of the tree, and it was evident, according to the coroner's office, that he had hanged himself.

Paul Darco of Wheatland found the body. The man apparently had then been dead about ten hours. His watch still was running.

The man was about 45 or 50 years of age, smooth faced, and apparently was a laborer. In his pockets were a cheap watch, a knife, a comb, a wallet containing 3 cents, a key, and a ticket for a 15-cent bed at the Salvation Army headquarters. This was dated October 22, and bore a name that looks like Dorsey, supposed to be the dead man's signature.

The clothes on the body were rough and somewhat worn. His hat was bought in Reno, Nev.

COOKS ALL DAY, TALKS FOR SUFFRAGE AT NIGHT

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 29.—Miss Jane Thompson, of Chicago, who is now working here for suffrage, recently challenged the anti-suffragists of the city to compete with her in making southern hot biscuits and chocolate cake.

No anti-suffragist came forward to accept the challenge, so Miss Thomson went ahead alone and gave a demonstration in the window of the headquarters. Any hungry man or woman was invited to come in and test the cake and biscuits. After cooking all day Miss Thomson held a street meeting at night, just to show that cookery and civics do not interfere with each other.

'Silent Carson' Again Problem

Lunacy Expert to Once More Examine Convict

By Associated Press.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Oct. 29.—Dr. F. W. Hatch of the State Lunacy Commission will in the near future make another examination of "Silent" Carson, who is under sentence of death for murder.

Carson, shortly after his conviction on the murder charge, lost his speech or refused to talk, and since that time on but two occasions has he uttered a word, although he has been examined several times by sanity experts of the state, as well as been put through severe tests to make him talk.

Dr. Hatch then pronounced Carson insane, and he was committed to the Stockton Insane Asylum more than a year ago, although the death sentence still hangs over his head.

Insanity experts differ as to whether he is feigning insanity or whether he is insane.

JURORS SEEK TO MAKE COMPROMISE

But Judge Ogden Says 'No,' So They Debate 22 Hours, Then Answer "Guilty."

After twenty-two hours' deliberation, a jury brought to an end one of the strangest cases on record in the Alameda county Superior Court this morning, with a verdict of guilty in the case of William L. Cherry, charged with having robbed Herman Hirsch, a retired merchant, of $79. The verdict was brought after the foreman of the jury, W. M. Cronan, who lives at 1503 Eighth street, had tried to induce Judge Ogden to agree that he would place Cherry on probation in the event the verdict of guilty should be returned.

The case was submitted to the jury at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. At 6 o'clock last evening the jury filed into court to speak to Judge Ogden.

"May I speak to you in private?" asked Cronan.

"No, that cannot be permitted," Judge Ogden answered. "What is it you want?"

"We want to know if we can get a promise from you," Cronan answered. "The jury has stood six and six, seven to five and nine to three for conviction. We cannot agree. But those who will not agree to the guilty verdict say they will do so if you will promise to place the defendant on probation."

"I cannot do that," answered the court. "All that you, as jurors are supposed to do is to decide whether or not this man is guilty, and don't bother yourselves about the sentence of the court. You may, of course, make any recommendation that you wish, but it will not be binding upon the court."

The jury again retired, and reappeared at 9 o'clock.

"We want to know," said Crohan, "if we can compromise. Can we find the defendant guilty of some less charge than that of robbery?"

"You can not," the court answered, and the jurors again retired. They remained in the Hotel Oakland for the night, and resumed their deliberations early this morning. They brought in their verdict at 11 o'clock. Even then, there was still confusion in the minds of the jurors, some of them apparently believing that Judge Ogden had agreed to place Cherry on probation.

This was Cherry's second trial, the jury in the first having disagreed. His wife, Hazel Cherry, is to be tried next week on a similar charge. She is alleged to have induced Hirsch to come to her home in Fruitvale that her husband might commit the robbery. Cherry will be sentenced next Wednesday.

IN STERLING LIVES A GIRL

Who Suffered As Many Girls Do—Tells How She Found Relief.

Sterling, Conn.—"I am a girl of 22 years and I used to faint away every month and was very weak. I was also bothered a lot with female weakness. I read your little book 'Wisdom for Women,' and I saw how others had been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and decided to try it, and it has made me feel like a new girl and I am now relieved of all these troubles. I hope all young girls will get relief as I have. I never felt better in my life."—Mrs. JOHN TETREAULT, Box 116, Sterling, Conn.

Massena, N. Y.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I highly recommend it. If anyone wants to write to me I will gladly tell her about my case. I was certainly in a bad condition as my blood was all turning to water. I had pimples on my face and a bad color, and for five years I had been troubled with suppression. The doctors called it 'Anemia and Exhaustion,' and said I was all run down, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought me out all right."—Miss LAVISA MYRES, Box 74, Massena, N. Y.

Young Girls, Heed This Advice.

Girls who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, headache, dragging-down sensations, fainting spells or indigestion, should immediately seek restoration to health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

DRYGOODS MEN WAGE CAMPAIGN

National Retail Association Sends Arguments Against Stevens Bill.

The National Retail Dry Goods Association, in its campaign against the Stevens bill, is sending over the country the following arguments against the provisions of the measure for price maintenance.

1. Such a law would be unconstitutional as class legislation, being in favor of a few thousand manufacturers at the expense of the retail merchants and the consumer.
2. It would make the retailer the agent of the manufacturer, without the usual privileges of an agent in being permitted to return unsold goods. The merchants would supply all of the capital invested in the goods they carried, whereas usually an agent has little or none of his capital invested. In other words, the control of the retail price would be placed in the hands of the manufacturer, although he has no financial risk or equity in the business.

"BLOW AT HOUSEWIVES."

3. It would prohibit low price opportunities to the consumer who wishes to economize. It would, for example, prevent important seasonable reductions in prices upon which most housewives depend—especially those of limited means. It would furthermore produce dull seasons, not relieved by special sales, and therefore discourage employment of a considerable number of the salespeople in various department stores.
4. It would deprive the consuming public of the benefits of merchants' competition, which, if properly conducted, is not only in the interest of the public, but is recognized as an incentive to promote business efficiency among merchants.
5. It would give the manufacturer the right to name the retailer's purchasing price and his selling price, thereby controlling his profits. Thus the manufacturer could arbitrarily raise his price to the merchants while keeping the retail price at a fixed figure, or even reduce the latter, thereby curtailing the profits of the merchant.

RIGHT OF PURCHASE.

6. It is contrary to the understanding which has always existed that a person who purchases an article outright has a right to do with it as he deems best—in the case of the retailer, to resell it at any price to the mutual advantage of himself and his customer.
7. It does not take into consideration different conditions under which an article might be resold. The merchant with large overhead charges, such as big rental, high priced selling force, the necessity for giving unusual service, would require a greater mark-up on his goods than the merchant with a less expensive establishment, in order to get a fair profit on his sales.

BOOST FOR TRUSTS.

8. It would prevent legitimate competition of the small manufacturer who cannot engage in business against the large manufacturer who has created a demand for his brands by a long and continued advertising campaign. Thus it would encourage trusts, as the large and wealthier manufacturer alone can afford to take advantage of his privileges under this bill by forcing a demand for his merchandise by publicity and maintaining a proportionately high price. Having choked out competition he will raise his retail price, the consumer being, as in the case of other trusts, made to stand the burden.
9. It would encourage every manufacturer to brand his merchandise and then add to this cost by expensive advertising campaign in order to create a consumer demand for it.

WAGES TO BE CUT.

10. It would lower wages by so increasing retail costs that many retailers would either be obliged to reduce wages or face bankruptcy.
11. It would not take into consideration the difference in cost between the stores situated near the source of supply and those at great distance. In some cases this difference in cost, transportation, insurance, etc., amounts to more than 5 per cent.
12. The retailer who is in favor of such a law must feel the need of assistance in meeting competition, which would be an acknowledgment of weakness on his part.

CONSUMER TO SUFFER.

13. It would cause the consumer to look to the manufacturer to make good all defective merchandise instead of relying upon the reputation and responsibility of the retailer with whom he does business. This would be an expensive and inconvenient method for the consumer.
14. It has been condemned in principle by the courts as illegal and in many states has been specifically prohibited in many laws passed for the protection of the public.

TEHAMA ADOPTS CHARTER BY SMALL VOTE MARGIN

RED BLUFF, Oct. 29.—Returns from the election received by the county clerk show that the new charter has carried by approximately 100 votes.

Radical changes will be effected in the county government as a result of the adoption of the charter, which was drawn by a committee of fifteen freeholders. In main, the charter provides:

An eight-hour day for all county work, time going to and from work not included. The district attorney's salary is fixed at $1500 per year. No funds will be transferred from one fund to another without a four-fifths vote of the board of supervisors. The maximum tax rate shall be $1.65. The county surveyor will be superintendent of all construction, and the salaries of justices of the peace will be fixed according to the population of their respective districts.

The charter must be ratified by the legislature before its provisions become effective.

WITNESS IN MURDER CASE FINALLY APPEARS

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 29.—Y. Yukoi, witness for the prosecution in the case of Y. Ito, Japanese charged with assault with intent to commit murder, was in police court when the case was called. He was absent last week when some of the testimony was heard, and Police Judge Henderson forfeited the $250 bond which Yukoi had deposited to insure his appearance. There was strong suspicion that efforts had been made to quash the case, and Yukoi could not be found by Detective Tharp when wanted to testify.

BIGGS MEN IN FIGHT.

BIGGS, Oct. 29.—Resenting the threats of Joseph Raglin and having consumed much whisky S. M. Atkins drew a knife and cut Raglin severely on the arm. He also hit Raglin with a rock.

It is said the trouble started over Atkins' alleged attentions to Raglin's wife. Atkins was quickly apprehended and placed under arrest.

AGAIN GOES DRY.

WEAVERVILLE, Oct. 29.—Hayfork Supervisor District No. 2 again went dry at its election. The vote: Wet, 135; dry, 165. The district has been dry for four years. The precincts involved in this contest are Hayfork, Douglas City, Indian Creek, Wildwood and Hyampom.

American Boy Needs Discipline, Declared

SANTA BARBARA, Oct. 29.—"The average American boy has no respect for discipline, his parents or old age," was the statement made here yesterday by C. W. Thomas Jr., Adjutant-General of California, in an address before citizens. The Adjutant-General attended a reception tendered to a naval militia detachment, and it was during the course of his remarks on the need of greater Coast defenses that he said this applied to the youth of the land.

To offset the mental attitude of the average American boy, he advocated the Swiss system of military training.

HAMMONDS MAKE PEACE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—The Hammond, Hall and Hays families have adjusted all their differences, have dropped all their litigation and are the best of friends. This was the result yesterday of a conference [illegible] which has been going on for a week between John Hays Hammond and his cousin John Coffee Hays, assisted by Charles S. Wheeler, attorney for Hammond, and Bert Schlesinger, attorney for Hays.

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets.

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, troubled with undigested food, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can eat what you like. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

THE TRUTH ABOUT CATARRH

A Germ Disease That Can Be Stopped By Killing Germs Which Cause It.

A good many claims are made for this and that remedy for Catarrh and doubtless, if you are a sufferer from this disease, you have yourself tried many of them and received no permanent benefit.

The fact remains however, that there is a way to get rid of catarrh forever and certainly the method most likely to succeed and to cure where all else has failed is one that your own druggist has so much faith in that he will sell it to you on a positive guarantee of success or money back.

That's exactly the way that The Owl Drug Co. and many other leading druggists in this vicinity are selling Hyomei, the great Catarrh germ-killer. A wonderful medicated but pleasant smelling air which you breathe into your nose, throat and lungs through a small inhaling device that druggists furnish with it. Hyomei is made from the pure healing oil of Eucalyptus, combined with other powerful germicidal ingredients and is not only clears up the head and air passages and heals the sore, swollen inflamed membranes of your nose and throat but it goes farther and does more. Its penetrating air is absolute and positive death to every catarrh germ in your system. It destroys them utterly. And when the germs go the disease and all its disagreeable symptoms stop. If you have Catarrh breathe Hyomei. It's the only sensible thing to do and you gain nothing and lose much by waiting until the cold, damp season sets in. Cure that case of Catarrh now while you have the weather in your favor. Don't trust to memory. Cut this out of the paper now and take it into your druggist the very next time you pass his store. Insist on getting the complete outfit which includes the rubber inhaler as it is very necessary to use this inhaler to get best results.—Advertisement

Mrs. Shepard to Give Mother's Fete

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Mrs. Finley Shepard has issued invitations to the mothers of the children in her sewing school to attend a reception at Lyndhurst on Saturday afternoon. There will be an exhibit of the work of the children and diplomas will be awarded. Mrs. Shepard will welcome each mother personally, and it is probable that her adopted son will be with her to help receive.

BANKERS URGED TO OBEY LAWS

Letter Is Issued by Comptroller to Financiers of Country.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Comptroller of the Currency Williams has sent a circular letter to all national banks calling attention to the oath which each director signs when he assumes office not to permit the bank to violate the national bank act and pointing out particularly that part of that act that provides that a national bank may receive interest on its loans "at the rate allowed by the laws of the state, territory or district in which the bank is located and no more."

"This office," says the letter, "regrets to report that the sworn statement of condition of a great many national banks show that section 5197, United States revised statutes against usury, has been grossly violated by these banks.

"You are respectfully addressed and admonished that this provision of the national act shall be faithfully observed by all national banks, their officers and directors, in accordance with the solemn oaths taken by directors.

"You are requested to read this letter at the next meeting of your board of directors and to have it inscribed upon the minutes and to send a copy of this letter to every member of your board who may not be present at such meeting with the request that he promptly acknowledge its receipt to you.

"Within thirty days after your next board meeting and not later than December 20, 1915, you are requested to send to this office letters from all members of your board who may not have been present at the meeting at which this letter is read, acknowledging the receipt by each absent director of a copy thereof, together with a certified extract from your minutes showing that this letter has been read to your board and giving names of the directors present at the meeting at which it is read."

Dunphy Estate Is Divided by Court

ELKO, Nev. Oct. 29.—The matter of the final distribution of the Dunphy estate came up in the District Court here yesterday and was practically disposed of. One of the heirs, Mrs. Flood, was not represented in court and thirty days were allowed her to file objections if she so desires.

The four heirs to the property are: Mrs. Jennie Meyer, Mrs. Mary D. Flood, Mrs. Viola Vernett and James A. Dunphy.

The estate consists of one of the most valuable cattle ranches in the state, located near Beowawe. It contains 151,-000 acres of land, about 800 head of cattle, horses, farm implements, etc., and it is valued at approximately $2,000,000.

She Danced 'Em All; Result: Broken Leg

Beth La Marr, singer in a Tenth-street cafe, is, from now on, opposed to modernity in dancing. She tried a combination of the lame duck, the wave, the fox trot, the canter waltz, the Boston and the Balboa late last night, slipped on the dancing floor and fractured her left ankle. She was first treated at the Emergency hospital by Dr. W. H. Irwin and later removed to her home at 827 Thirty-fourth street.

MIND-READER GIVES PUBLIC DEMONSTRATION

City officials and newspapermen witnessed a remarkable demonstration yesterday at the city hall, when George Lovette, of "concentration" fame, psychological expert, underwent a series of mind reading tests via the telephone. Mme. Zenda and Mme. Crane, his assistants, remained in the Hotel Oakland. From the city hall press room the mind reader rang them up, and then, with a third party on the telephone, forced them, by thought-transmission, to identify persons in the room, mention and play selections thought of by spectators and answer questions.

Police officials and others witnessed the test.

PICKPOCKET ESCORTED TO FAIR

"Here for Pleasure," He Tells Police, and Actually Foregoes Business.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—While Thomas Edison was being shown the beauties of the exposition and feted and feasted and proclaimed as the celebrity that he is, and while Henry Ford, the automobile magnate and philanthropist, was receiving the tribute due his accomplishments at the hands of an enthusiastic populace, there was in San Francisco a third notable and it might be said, notorious, visitor, whose presence was not made known until his departure this morning.

He, too, was carefully guarded while "in our midst," but the guard could not be said to have been one of honor, as was Edison's, and his fame heralded throughout the country was not that of an uplifter of his fellow man.

The visitor referred to Charles Bedell, one of the cleverest of American pickpockets and familiarly referred to as the "Leather Lifter."

Bedell would not have been treated kindly in these parts were it not for a remarkable telegram which he sent to Detective Frank McConnell from Bakersfield while en route to this city, reading as follows:

"I am coming to San Francisco to see the fair. I have some business to attend to, but not in the line of endeavor you might suppose. I want the police to be apprised of my coming and I will report to you on my arrival."

McConnell, in charge of the bunco detail, was surprised to see Bedell step in his office.

"I am here for pleasure and not for business," said Bedell on his arrival Monday.

McConnell detailed himself to accompany Bedell and see that the public was protected while all of the exhibit palaces and the Zone were visited and enjoyed by the "Leather Lifter."

Charles Gross, alias Slough Foot" Golding, and Harry Sterling, alleged well known Eastern bunco men, arrived at the Southern Pacific depot this morning without the formality of informing the police and were promptly booked in detinue at the city prison.

Death Claims Widow of Late N. Rosenberg

Following a brief illness, Mrs. Rosie Rosenberg, widow of the late Nathan Rosenberg, one of Oakland's best known women, passed away today at her home in the Peralta Apartments. The funeral will be held Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Annie Hellgman, 629 Twenty-eighth street.

Mrs. Rosenberg was the widow of a pioneer business man of the bay region. She is survived by the following children: Mrs. Annie Hellgman, Harry Rosenberg, Joseph Rosenberg, Mrs. Jacob M. Strauss of Chicago and Miss Annie Rosenberg, and a grandson, Harry Hellgman.

WAR FUGITIVE SEARCH UNDER WAY ON RUMOR

Federal Official Admits That Clew Is Merely Hearsay Information

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—Local officers of the United States Department of Justice, who instituted a search yesterday for Lieutenant Koch, one of the German naval officers of the interned seaplane Prinz Eitel Friedrich, officially reported to have broken his parole, declared this morning that the officer might not be in California at all. The request to affect Lieutenant Koch's capture did not come from Washington. Information was given to a local official of the department that the lieutenant was in this vicinity, and he communicated with Washington and was requested to arrest Koch if possible.

"My informant told me that Russell M. Cuthbert was the man who knew Koch's whereabouts," declared the official in question this morning. "It may be that we got hold of the wrong Cuthbert. Today we are endeavoring to find out from our informant whether it could possibly be that another Cuthbert was involved. If our information was the result of rumor and if we really did run down the clew without disclosing anything and proved the scent a false one, it will mean that Lieutenant Koch is not in this vicinity. There is no reason to believe him here save for the information given by the persons who came to us."

The Cuthbert referred to is connected with the Chalmers Motor Car company. He has proved to the satisfaction of the Federal department that he knew nothing of the lieutenant's whereabouts.

Lieutenant Koch in company with Lieutenant Bruser and Surgeons Kornick, Kruger and Nolte, left the interned vessel at Hampton Roads while they were supposed to be on parole. Formal report of their escape was made to the secretary of state on October 20.

REPORTED CAPTURED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—The six officers of the interned German raider Kronprinz Wilhelm, who escaped from Norfolk, Va., October 10, on the yacht Eclipse, were captured at sea by a British warship, according to information in a letter received here today. The letter was sent to William Wolff, a New York manufacturer, by his mother-in-law, who was a passenger on the steamer Bermudian, which left New York for Hamilton last Wednesday.

According to the letter, the Bermudian was stopped a short distance from its destination by a British cruiser, which engaged the passenger vessel in wireless conversation. The substance of the talk, as told by the wireless operator of the Bermudian, was that the cruiser, the identity of which is not given, had overtaken the missing Eclipse at sea, made prisoners of the German officers and sunk the yacht. The letter gives no other details.

Reports have been current in shipping circles here for several days that the yacht had been captured by a British cruiser, believed to have been H. M. S. Melbourne.

CLAIM BODIES OF SCHOOL VICTIMS

By Associated Press.

PEABODY, Mas., Oct. 29.—The bodies of all the 21 girl pupils of St. John's Parochial School, who lost their lives yesterday in a fire which swept through the building before they had time to escape were claimed by their parents today. The charred form of a little girl, burned beyond recognition alone remains unidentified.

Mrs. John Ahearn, the mother of Agnes Ahearn, 8 years old, who was unaccounted for, went to the morgue and finally accepted the body as that of her child.

While investigation has not fully established the origin of the fire, Acting Chief Neal of the State Police, after an investigation today announced that he had found no one criminally responsible.

The only fact substantiated was that flames originated in a small room in the basement which was locked. It is known that it was customary to place waste paper and sweepings in wooden barrels in the store room. At one end of the room there was a gas jet. This room was closely examined today for evidence.

Plans for a public funeral for the little ones were discussed and the arrangements were placed in the hands of Rev. Nicholas J. Murphy, pastor of St. John's church.

BURIED COIN TAKEN FROM CACHE

A milk bottle, buried under a water barrel, to which a dog was chained were insufficient to guard $80 in gold coin belonging to Nicholas Chorney and his wife, 2533 East Ninth street. The gold was placed in the milk bottle and interred under the water cask, and the family watch dog was chained to the cask.

But the dog was found dead and the treasure was gone. The police, however, have a theory, and are seeking the arrest of Paul Chorney, son and heir to the family estate. Two suspicious circumstances connect young Chorney with the theft. The first is that he and the money disappeared at the same time that the watch dog was found dead. The second is that he came to the parental roof tree later with Attorney T. L. Christenson and sought to have his mother and father sign a mysterious paper.

Chorney and his wife were suspicious when their son placed a paper before them and told them to sign. Christenson offered them $80 and explained that the paper was a receipt for the money. Young Chorney even attempted to hold his mother's hand over the paper and to guide it in affixing her name. But the aged parents suspected that the paper might be a deed to which they were being asked to affix their names. They refused and Christenson and young Chorney left in disgust.

A warrant has been issued for the young man, and it is anticipated that he will be arrested before nightfall. The complaint charges grand larceny.

SUSPECT IS JAILED FOR WAR PLOT

Dock Fire Plot Is Investigated by Officials at Seattle.

By Associated Press.

SEATTLE, Oct. 29.—Police and fire department officials today were conducting a thorough investigation into the origin of the $500,000 fire which last night destroyed pier 14, used by the Blue Funnel line of British steamers for large shipments of provisions and supplies for England, Russia and Japan. More than a million dollars' worth of freight, mostly imports from China and Japan, were in the warehouse, but hard work by firemen saved half of the contents of the building from destruction.

The fact that the fire started in piles of rattan stored with other highly inflammable merchandise on the second floor in the same manner as two small blazes which were promptly extinguished early last Tuesday caused fire department officials to agree with officers of Dodwell & Co., Ltd., general Pacific coast agents of the Blue Funnel line, that the fire last night as well as those Tuesday, probably was set by some one who objected to the shipment of munitions of war for the Russian armies.

LONGSHOREMAN SUSPECTED.

The police today centered their attention upon tracing the actions of D. Wilmann, a longshoreman, who was arrested last night when he was said to have been loud in his praise of the incendiary.

The attention of the police was called to Wilmann by Joseph Hebb, one of the dock watchmen, who said he heard Wilmann say while the pier was burning, "She's going fine. Let her burn. Pier 5 will be the next one to go."

Pier 5, operated by Frank Waterhouse & Co., has been used largely for the shipment of war munitions to Russia.

Wilmann said he had been in Seattle four months, having come here from Vancouver, B. C. He had worked at pier 14 two weeks.

Pier 14, from which is operated the big British Blue Funnel line fleet, just now engaged mainly in the transportation of supplies and munitions of war for the entente allies, especially Russia, England and Japan, was practically destroyed by fire, together with its contents, involving a loss of $500,000.

INCENDIARISM CHARGED.

Further investigation by the fire department and officials of Pier 14, which was damaged by fire last night, together with most of the merchandise stored therein, confirms the belief that the fire was of incendiary origin.

The pier, owned by Ainsworth and Dunn, suffered damage of $40,000. The loss on merchandise is estimated at a half million dollars. A great mass of tea, rice, hemp, rattan and bamboo today lay on the ground floor of the pier, soaked and for the most part worthless.

The arrest of Wilmann, is not considered important.

Labor Leader Guerra Found Half Starved

By Associated Press.

EL PASO, Oct. 29.—Juan Guerra, formerly president of the Clifton (Ariz.) local of the Western Federation of Miners, who was recently expelled from the union because of an alleged boast that he could send the Mexican strikers back to work at any time, was found half starved and delirious in the hills back of Clifton today, according to reports from Clifton.

By Associated Press.

EL PASO, Oct. 29.—Five paintings valued at $50,000, stolen from the bishop's palace at San Luis Potosi, are believed here to be smuggled across the border and to be on their way East. Government agents are known to be investigating recent express shipments from El Paso.

BUSINESSMEN END TRADE TOUR

Oaklanders Return From Most Succesful Trip in Chamber's History.

Following a tour over the entire Sacramento Valley region, Oakland's businessmen have returned from one of the most successful trade excursions in the history of the Chamber of Commerce, during which they were entertained in many cities, met the business men of the entire region, and spread the fame of Oakland as a commercial center about the counties visited. The trip ended with a big entertainment at Sacramento, where two brass bands and the assembled forces of the commercial organizations and city officials greeted the Oakland boosters, and where the "Get Acquainted Trip" ended with a further cementing of the friendship between the two cities.

The Oakland visitors were entertained at the state capital by 130 members of the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce at a banquet in one of the city's big hotels. D. W. Carmichael, president of the Chamber of Commerce, and Bishop W. H. Moreland were the principal speakers. The "Barbed Wire Quartet" of Oakland, directed by Fred E. Reed, sang, and W. K. Cole, D. H. McLaughlin, O. E. Hollis and V. O. Lawrence, were among the speakers.

The party arrived at Biggs yesterday shortly before noon, to be greeted by a large party of citizens. They were taken on an automobile trip through the rice fields of Biggs and Richvale, and from there proceeded to Gridley, where they were entertained at luncheon. At Oroville they were met at the depot by three dozen automobiles, and were shown Palermo, Wyandotte and the Thermalito districts. C. O. Hamilton and A. L. Andrews were in charge of the reception to the Oakland visitors.

At Chico the travelers viewed the big match plant, the Bidwell estate, orchards and other features of the district, being entertained by the Chico Business Men's Association. In the evening a big smoker was held in Chico Masonic hall in honor of the visitors. John H. Guill of Chico and Joseph E. Caine of Oakland spoke. W. H. Schooler, A. W. Posey, D. H. McLaughlin and Roy S. Smith also spoke.

At Marysville the boosters were entertained by an official committee composed of the following: W. B. Dean, president of the development committee; Edward J. Falk, secretary of the development committee; S. K. Troxel and John C. Burden.

WOMEN in the NEWS

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—Two women, one a blonde and the other a brunette, confessed to Judge Shortall yesterday that the estranged husband of the real estate dealer and theatrical manager, who [illegible] saving, gave him from the wiles and machinations of the other.

The chemist, Max [illegible] Brandt, the present wife, and the blonde, Frances Etta Schmidt, has divorced wife. Each is the other is full of modern guile and ruin Dean's life.

The wife is suing for separate maintenance of $25 a week. She names Dean's former wife as co-[illegible], asserts he transferred property valued at $50,000 to his first wife in order [illegible] pending her [illegible].

The first wife admits the property was transferred to her, but says it was for benefit of a son of herself and Dean. She says the same thing.

The present wife testified yesterday she was married to Dean in Philadelphia in August, 1906, a year after his first wife obtained a divorce. They were happy until they came to San Francisco. Here her husband owns considerable property, she said.

Two years ago her husband began calling upon his first wife, who lives in Alameda. He explained these visits by the statement that he went merely to see his little son.

A year ago he told his wife that his love for his first wife had been revived; that his first wife had confessed to him that he was the only man that she ever loved, that she was jealous of the present wife.

MISS VIOLET STOUT, WHOSE ENGAGEMENT TO MR. ROY KENNEDY WAS ANNOUNCED.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dargie Merritt (Agnes Wells), who were married in New York on Wednesday, will return in November to their home in Livermore, where the Merritts own a large estate.

The wedding took place at the Broadway Tabernacle and Rev. Charles R. Brown, former pastor of the First Congregational church of Oakland, was the officiating clergyman. A wedding breakfast at Sherry's followed the ceremony, which was attended by relatives from Boston and Philadelphia. The bride wore a traveling costume of dark green velvet and a velvet hat, and entered on the arm of her uncle, Mr. Samuel Hazard Wells, associate editor of the Philadelphia Press. After the breakfast the bride threw her bouquet of lilies and it was caught by Miss Mildred Thompson of Buffalo, who was a classmate of the bride at Stanford, and acted as bridesmaid. Mr. Leo Meyer, a former classmate of the groom, was best man and the bride was given away by her aunt, Miss Mary Nicholl.

Miss Nicholl, who accompanied her home east, will not return to California until the first of the year. She will visit relatives in New York and Washington. Miss Lulu Wells, younger sister of the bride, did not go east for the wedding, but remained at the family residence in East Oakland.

PLANS FOR WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. William Fieldhouse, formerly of New York, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Cora Fieldhouse, who have been living at Brookdale for several months, have taken an apartment in Oakland, where they will remain until after the wedding of Miss Fieldhouse to Mr. Raymond Taylor of New York. They arrived yesterday and Mr. Taylor is expected to be here from the east this week. The wedding will take place on November 3 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Holt of Alameda, old friends of the bride's family, who resided for a time in Alameda. The bride will have no attendants and Mr. Taylor will bring his best man from the east. Miss Fieldhouse is a graduate of the Damrosch Conservatory of Music in New York and is very gifted musically. Her fiance, who graduated from Dartmouth, belongs to a well known Illinois family, but make his home in New York.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

Miniature photographs of bride and groom-elect announced the engagement of Miss Violet Stout, daughter of Mr. Ira L. Stout of Oakland, to Mr. Roy Kennedy, at an informal affair given by Miss Stout on Wednesday. The pictures were in tiny frames like betrothal cards, and were presented to the guests. No date is set for the wedding. Mr. Kennedy is an eastern man who has made his home here for the past year. His fiancee's family has resided in Oakland for many years. Among guests at the announcement party were Mrs. Brock, Mrs. Jule Kelly, Mrs. Glissman, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. M. Cuibertson, Mrs. A. L. Aitken, Mrs. Hains, Mrs. Willard, Mrs. Ella Hoffman, Mrs. [illegible] Mrs. [illegible] Ghetaldi, Miss Florence Jacobus, Miss Lottie Aitken, Miss Louise Roesch, Miss Rhoda Hunn.

✡ ✡ ✡

PEIXOTTOS DEPART.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Peixotto, who spent the summer with the latter's sisters, Mrs. Bernard Ransome and Mrs. William B. Pringle, have returned east, where they make their home in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Pringle are considering plans for a new home in San Mateo. They recently bought a tract near the San Mateo Polo Club and will build a residence there. Mrs. Pringle has unusually good taste and a genius for interior effects, so the house will be very attractive.

✡ ✡ ✡

ENCINAL ASSEMBLIES.

Members of the younger set have received invitations for the Encinal Assemblies to be held at the Encinal Yacht Club during the season. The first dance will be given on November 20 and the others will follow on January 8 and February 13, the last to be a masquerade. A coterie of society belles planned the dances, among them Miss Helen Neal, Miss Helen Wilkomm, Miss Eleanor Knowland, Miss Dorothy Baum, Miss Charlotte Culver, Miss Helen Funke, Miss Ruth Baehr, Miss Frances Garrett and Miss Marian Murphy.

The patronesses are Mrs. Arthur Merrill Brown, Mrs. L. F. Baum, Mrs. Joseph Knowland, Mrs. Charles Neal, Mrs. Adolph Wilkomm, Mrs. C. N. Culver, Mrs. Oscar Funke, Mrs. A. J. Murphy, Mrs. William Baehr and Mrs. Walter S. Garrett.

✡ ✡ ✡

RETURN FROM HONEYMOON.

Mr. and Mrs. William Du Val returned on Monday from their honeymoon at Del Monte and are at the Du Val residence in Lennox avenue, where they will make their home. Mrs. Du Val was Mrs. Mason Mather before the wedding a fortnight ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Cravens (Mae Du Val), who were married several weeks ago, are established in the former Mather home in Lenox avenue.

✡ ✡ ✡

MADAME KHAN RECEIVES.

Madame Ali Kuli Khan received informally in the Persian room at the Fair this afternoon. It has been her custom to receive Friday afternoons at the Persian exhibit and the informal teas are frequently attended by friends from this side of the bay.

✡ ✡ ✡

FROM WEST VIRGINIA.

Mrs. George C. Sturgiss of West Virginia, who with her children, has spent the summer in Alameda, which was her former home, is expecting the arrival of Judge Sturgiss from the east the middle of November. The family has been occupying a residence in Central avenue, Alameda, and will remain until the close of the Exposition before returning to Morgantown, West Virginia.

✡ ✡ ✡

IN NEW HOME.

Dr. and Mrs. Hans Barkan (Phoebe Bunker), whose wedding was a recent event in Berkeley, are established in their new home in Lake street, San Francisco, overlooking the Presidio.

PLAN CARD PARTY.

The Boys' Club and the altar boys of St. Francis De Sales church will give a card party at the church on Wednesday evening, November 3. Among the patronesses are Mrs. Peter Crinnion, Mrs. Pasquale Risich, Mrs. J. J. Kennedy, Mrs. M. J. Hanlon and Mrs. Neill Gallagher. A number of the younger girls of the church will be "score girls," and there will be prizes for the highest scores.

✡ ✡ ✡

RETURNS TO TONOPAH.

Mrs. John Tregloan, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. M. E. Larkey, at the latter's home in Hollywood avenue, has returned to her home in Tonopah. Mrs. Tregloan spent most of the time of her visit at the Fair, but there were several informal social affairs in her honor.

✡ ✡ ✡

INFORMAL RECEPTION.

A very delightful informal reception was given Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fabias at their home in Montell street, Piedmont. Among those who contributed to a musical program were Miss Ester Hawkins, pianist, and Mr. S. Goldman, violinist. Later there were several games of bridge. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Preble, Mr. and Mrs. B. Warschauer, Miss Ruth Fornbloom, Miss Helen Tobias, Miss Mitchell Hawkins, Miss Grace Wise, Mr. Joseph Tobias and Mr. Ben Warschauer.

✡ ✡ ✡

LUNCHEON FOR VISITOR.

Mrs. John Codman, who has leased a residence in Berkeley, was guest of honor at a luncheon given yesterday by Mrs. Seward McNear at the Town and Country Club in San Francisco. Among those invited to meet her were Mrs. Mark Requa, Mrs. Harry Alston Williams, Mrs. A. A. Fennoyer, Mrs. George Jensen, Mrs. Edward Merrill, Mrs. Horace Pillsbury and Mrs. Louis Monteagle.

TEA AND MUSICALE.

Several hundred guests attended the musicale and tea given this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Irving Wright of Berkeley for the benefit of war relief work in France. Miss Daisy Polk was among those who contributed to the music program giving violin selections. Mrs. Thomas Arthur Rickard sang, Miss Mary Sherwood played the 'cello and vocal numbers were also given by Miss Louise Gompertz and Mr. Ralph Phelps.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Raymond Wilson, Mrs. A. O. Leuschner, Mrs. Bruce Cornwall, Mrs. Edwin Blake, Miss Carol Day, Miss Ethel MacFadyen, Miss Meta Breckenfield and several others.

✡ ✡ ✡

MRS. HAMMOND A HOSTESS.

Mrs. John Hays Hammond is giving a series of luncheons for her California friends and those who are visiting the Fair from the east. Yesterday she entertained at the Fairmont in honor of Mrs. Robert T. Evans of Boston, and among the guests were Mrs. Charles Butters of Claremont, Mrs. Phoebe Hearst, Mrs. William Bailey Lamar, Mrs. Eleanor Martin, Mrs. Irving Scott, Mrs. George Page, Mrs. Edward Griffith, Mrs. Francis G. Newlands and Mrs. Charles Cobb of Washington, who was Miss Snell of Berkeley.

GIRL ISSUES BAD CHECKS; FOOLS 'EM

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 29.—"I've learned that I am sole heir to my uncle's diamond mines in South Africa, worth $10,000,000, and I want $500 worth of the best dresses you have in the store."

This was the proposition made by Stephenie Fuchs, 24 years of age, a servant girl, to the credit man of a local department store. She got the dresses.

Then she leased a modern apartment house and gave a check for a year's rental. She bought furniture for it on the same terms. An enterprising life insurance agent heard of the newly rich young woman and succeeded in selling her a policy for $250,000 cash, for which she gave a check, and which was to return her $1000 a month for life.

About the time the checks began to come back from the bank Miss Fuchs' sister caused a warrant to issue for her arrest on a charge of insanity. The furniture, some of which had been delivered, was hauled away and the apartment house lease canceled, as was the insurance policy, but the gowns had been altered to fit and were a loss.

Officers say the insane girl's plausibility was marvelous.

EVELYN SERVED WITH PAPERS

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—After escaping once during the afternoon through a ruse by which the process server mistook her negro maid for herself, Evelyn Nesbit was finally served last night at the Alhambra Theater with a summons in divorce proceedings instigated by her husband, Harry Thaw.

Evelyn Nesbit took the summons philosophically, merely remarking: "Well, I suppose it had to come some time, so it might as well be now as later on."

How to Heal Skin Diseases

A Baltimore doctor suggests this simple, but reliable and inexpensive, home treatment for people suffering with eczema, ringworm, rashes and similar itching, burning skin troubles.

At any reliable druggist's get a jar of resinol ointment and a cake of resinol soap. These are not at all expensive. With the resinol soap and warm water bathe the affected parts thoroughly, until they are free from crusts and the skin is softened. Dry very gently, spread on a thin layer of the resinol ointment, and cover with a light bandage—if necessary, to protect the clothing. This should be done twice a day. Usually the distressing itching and burning stop with the first treatment, and the skin soon becomes clear and healthy again. Sample free, Dept. 8-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.

Trading Stamp Laws Before Supreme Court

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The validity of trading stamp legislation in states which have enacted laws against the giving of premiums with goods sold is said to depend upon the outcome of arguments today before the Supreme Court over the constitutionality of such laws in the states of Florida and Washington.

Lawyers seeking to have the laws annulled declared in presenting the cases to the court for decision that last year $125,000,000 were given away as premiums and that the life of the business was at issue. They urged that the laws worked discriminations against one form of advertising and that other methods of advertising might with equal justice be stricken down arbitrarily, if this one is forbidden.

Lincoln's Rifle Brings Big Sum at Sale

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—A rifle purchased by Abraham Lincoln and Henry Brooner for $15 when they lived in Spencer county, Indiana, and which was used by the famous war president in deer hunting, [illegible] $200 in a sale of Lincoln relics here. It was a part of the collection of John E. Burton of Milwaukee. One of Lincoln's law books sold for $55.

New Orleans to Be "Rat Proof," Is Plan

By Associated Press.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 29.—More than $4,000,000 has been expended in the last year in an effort to make New Orleans rat proof and prevent the reappearance of bubonic plague, according to an announcement made here today by Dr. R. H. Creel of the United States public health service, in charge of the work. Seventy-four thousand, five hundred and twenty-six buildings have been made rat proof, about 7000 not considered worth repairing by the owners have been demolished, and work is progressing on 39,000 others. Approximately 37,000 buildings still are to be made rat proof.

Citizens of New Orleans have expended approximately $2,500,000 on their property, while the federal, state and city governments have spent more than $500,000 in the campaign.

EDISON'S SLEEP THEORY REBUTTED

Prof. Stratton Holds Nature Demands Certain Minimum of Mortals.

BERKELEY, Oct. 29. — To sleep or not to sleep—that is the question. Is the one luxury enjoyed in common by the rich and poor to be outgrown as a useless habit? Edison says it is.

In 100 years, according to the master scientist, humanity will have overcome the necessity for sleep, which has been handed down from ancestors who curled up in comfortable slumber whenever the notion took them. Edison may dispense with sleep, but will the majority ever forego this precious gift of nature?

Professor George M. Stratton, head of the department of psychology of the University of California, does not think it likely.

A NEEDED MINIMUM.

"I could not prophesy as to what may happen in 100 years," he says, "and it is probable that a great many people take more sleep than is required; but there seems to be a minimum without which the average person would suffer materially in his physical and mental well being. During daily activities the human system secretes fatigue products and sleep is thus far the only method known which successfully eliminates the fatigue from the system."

After a series of tests on the amount of sleeping required by university students, A. L. Gates, graduate student, working under Dr. Stratton, discovered that the average was eight hours. One Japanese student was found who could do his best work by sleeping in the installments of two hours each. In this manner, with three or four working periods in between, he took six hours of rest and was able to accomplish more in the hours devoted to study.

So the ambitious, who longs to burn the midnight oil and also to bask in the early morning sun, will not find much encouragement either from the investigations of phychology or physiology.

"There will always be exceptional characters, such as Napoleon," says Gates, "who could go for days without sleep, and Edison, who seems to require less than half that of the ordinary person, but the practices of such men cannot be taken as typical of the average. Long periods of sleeplessness have invariably resulted in nervous troubles, the chief remedy for which is rest.

"And even Napoleon was wont to fall asleep on horseback or standing up when he became completely exhausted. It is, of course, a fact that after the first two or three hours sleep becomes less profound, and this might indicate that one could do with a minimum much less than the traditional eight hours."

ALASKA PACKERS TO REBUILD.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 29. — The Alaska Packers' association is now having its large building, known as the "boathouse," reconstructed. The structure was partially burned in a recent fire, the first blaze at the local plant in fifteen years. The re-building is to cost $3500, according to the permit issued by the city to the association.

LECTURES ON SOUTH SEAS.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 29. — An illustrated lecture on the South Sea Islands was given last evening before the Unitarian club members by Roswell S. Wheeler of Oakland. Wheeler toured the islands while on a journey around the world and he made a particular study of conditions and customs of the natives in the islands.

U. C. FINDS BIRDS MIGRATING

Every Kind Trying to Enter State of California

BERKELEY, Oct. 29.—Convincing proof has been found of the great intelligence of birds.

Director Joseph Grinnell of the University of California Museum of Vertebrate Zoology reports that there are already more different species of birds in California than in any other state in the Union, and more kinds coming all the time.

This is no mere question of size. The vast state of Texas is two-thirds as large again as California, but it has nowhere near as many kinds of birds, though it does come second.

What's more, the 541 species of birds already living here are not going to be permitted to enjoy a monopoly. Every kind of bird in the country is trying to move to California. There are fifty more known species of birds in California today than thirteen years ago.

A large share of these additions are unquestionably newcomers. One such "straggler," as the bird-men call such cases of a pioneer seeking to lead the way for its tribe into a new land, was a Mother Cary's chicken (a Wilson Stormy petrel), which has no business anywhere away from the Atlantic ocean, but which was captured off Monterey.

Another venturesome explorer was an Anhinga, or water turkey, which belongs in Florida and the Mexican tropics, but which joined the rush of new settlers in the Imperial valley. The Tennessee warbler and the Louisiana water thrush both grew restless in their southern homes and made their way to California, one being found at Pasadena and the other at Mecca, on the Colorado desert.

Sooner or later, predicts Professor Grinnell, practically every species known in North America will be found in California, at one time or another.

The great advance made in recent years in knowledge of California birds is indicated by the fact that Professor Grinnell's new 27-page book, "A Distributional List of Birds of California," just published by the Cooper Ornithological Club as a contribution from the California Museum of Vertebrate Zoology, lists 541 species of birds as now known in California, as compared with the 302 species catalogued in 1865 by the pioneer ornithologist, Dr. G. G. Cooper, of the Geological Survey, the 445 species catalogued in 1892, the 491 known in 1905, and the total of 559 listed in 1912. Widespread search and the gathering and careful study of great series of museum specimens, through generous provision made by Miss Annie M. Alexander for the maintenance of the California Museum of Vertebrate Zoology, are responsible for this increase, as well as the constant new immigration of birds.

Of the 541 species of which he tells the local status, 168 are water birds, 373 land birds, and 108 game birds. There are six species of hummingbirds and twenty-three species of hawks. While the prolific sparrow is represented by ninety-six species, there are only nineteen different kinds of owls in California.

CANDIDATES DON MOTLEY RAIMENT

Annual "Skull and Keys" Running Brings Out Strange Costume.

BERKELEY, Oct. 29. — The annual Skull and Keys running of the University of California students took place this morning on the university campus. This "running" is a popularity race among the masculine members of the senior class, the members of the society being elected by popular vote following the contest.

In order to make the affair both ridiculous and comical and in order to discriminate the runners from the onlookers, those participating are forced to wear an evening dress coat, soft shirt, black vest, summer trousers, rolled to the knees and opposite colored stockings with low black or tan shoes. Any hat may be worn. The contestants are, at a given time, supposed to approach any of the women students on the campus, bow, and ask if they may accompany them to the car, in the meantime carrying the young lady's books and being generally over polite in every respect. When one co-ed is seen safely through the gates of the university another is approached and the same process gone through until the judges think the candidate has had a sufficient trial. The men are then lined up in a semi-circle and a series of stunts gone through to be original and unknown to anyone else.

With this propaganda in mind the annual running took place this morning and in the neighborhood of thirty seniors took part. The successful candidates will not be known for a few days after the ballots have been counted and the merits of each contestant judged.

LEAVES TO MEET WIFE; HOME IS DESTROYED

George Nichols spent all yesterday afternoon at work preparing his little three-room cottage at 3891 Penniman avenue for the home-coming of his wife, who has been ill at the hospital. He swept and cleaned the place, put flowers in the bedroom and living room, and even ironed a bureau-spread to make the room "just right" for his wife's inspection. Then he hastened to the hospital.

While he was preparing to assist his wife downstairs he was startled to hear the fire siren toll of the number of the fire alarm box near his home. He hastened to the telephone in great apprehension.

Nichols telephoned to a neighbor. His home was in flames. He took his wife back to her hospital room and rushed home.

The place had been almost totally destroyed, and no insurance was carried. The fire was caused by defective wiring in an electric iron which Nichols, in his anxiety to get to the hospital in time, had left connected to the electric light socket.

PHONOGRAPH MUSIC NOT DOMESTIC HARMONY

Both Mrs. Lucellia Pauter and her husband, P. Pauter, have a passion for "canned music." Together they purchased a phonograph and equipped it with many and beautiful records. But though the machine played sweet music, all was not harmony in the Pauter home, and the two agreed to separate.

Last night the phonograph was stolen and Mrs. Pauter complained to the police, saying she suspected her husband. The police questioned Pauter. He admitted taking the music box, saying he could not be happy without it. The police explained to Mrs. Pauter that they could do nothing for her as the husband had an equal right to the property. They advised her to invite Pauter to bring the music box home and to enjoy it again with her.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH IS CAUSED BY GAS JET

Aaron Bretz, 68 years of age, was accidentally asphyxiated by gas at his home, 1404 Twenty-seventh avenue, last night. The body was found by his brother-in-law, E. E. Chamberlain, 2731 Boulevard avenue, who noted, when he passed Bretz' home that the morning paper had not been taken into the house today. Chamberlain and Patrolman Nells broke into the house and found Bretz dead in his bed. The gas stove had been turned on, but the flame had been blown out, permitting the toxic fumes to escape. The body was removed to the morgue, where an inquest will be held. Bretz lived alone in the little house in which he was found dead.

ECONOMICS HONOR MEN.

BERKELEY, Oct. 29. — Five senior men students of the University of California were initiated into Beta Gamma Sigma, the new economics honor society, at its meeting this week. The chief speaker was E. Leslie of the State compensating board. The following were the initiates: S. M. Arndt, H. L. Havermale, M. E. Hazeltine, W. A. Reynolds and O. P. Smith.

HONORS BIRTHDAY.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 29.—Mrs. Morton H. Hughes gave a birthday party in honor of the sixth anniversary of her daughter, Evelyn Gertrude Hughes, on Tuesday last at the Crescent Hotel.

WHIST ATTRACTS CROWD.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 29.—The joint whist party given by the Young Ladies' and Young Men's Institutes at Institute Hall on Santa Clara avenue attracted a large throng.

ACCURATE TIME-PIECE INSTALLED

Astronomical Chronometer Is Added to University Observatory Equipment.

BERKELEY, Oct. 29. — Correct time to the hundredth part of a second can now be obtained on the university campus through the new clock that is installed in the university observatory. The clock is known as a Riefler clock, the most accurate timepiece known to science and has been installed in the west addition of the observatory by Professor R. T. Crawford.

Almost perfect chronometrical conditions have been provided for the clock, which is sealed up in two air tight cylinders in an inside room in the basement of the building. Atmospheric conditions in the inner room are kept practically constant, so that the clock runs perfectly regular. The air in the cylinders surrounding the clock is partially exhausted, permitting the final regulation to be made by changing the pressure.

No one is allowed in the inner room, owing to the vibration and rise of temperature which their entrance would cause. The timepiece is viewed through a long tube with the aid of mirrors, much resembling the modern submarine periscope. The fractions of the seconds are read from the chronograph in the main observatory on which the clock beats. It is automatically wound by electricity every thirty-four seconds.

The new timepiece was constructed in Munich, Germany, at a cost of over $1000.

CHURCH GIFT WINDOW TO BE SHOWN PUBLIC

ALAMEDA, Oct. 29. — Special unveiling services will be held Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at Christ Episcopal church in commemoration of the gift to the church of a window by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Michaels of this city. There will be a short talk, with music by the choir.

The window was made from a picture by Plockhorst, the subject of which is "Christ Blessing the Little Children." There are seven figures in the window, which is a revelation in color effects.

Hardwood floors are being installed in the chancel of the church and will be completed by Sunday.

WILL STOP BOYS FROM WORKING ON U. C. CAMPUS

BERKELEY, Oct. 29.—Managers of university publications sold on the campus will be notified that hereafter the custom of employing small boys as salesmen will not be countenanced by the Berkeley board of education or police department. M. C. James, superintendent of schools, has brought the matter to the attention of the university authorities.

DR. BROUGHER TO LECTURE.

BERKELEY, Oct. 29. — For the benefit of the pipe organ fund of the First Baptist church, Rev. J. Whitcomb Brougher of the Temple Baptist church of Los Angeles will lecture in the auditorium of the Berkeley church, Monday evening. Dr. Brougher's subject will be "What Is Under Your Hat."

IF BACK HURTS TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Says Backache Is Sure Sign You Have Been Eating Too Much Meat.

Uric Acid in Meat Clogs Kidneys and Irritates the Bladder.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.—Advertisement.

URGES PREVENTION OF WOOD DECAY

Orchards Will Remain Profitable Twice as Long, Professor Predicts.

BERKELEY, Oct. 29—Prevent wood decay in peach trees, and California peach orchards will remain profitable twice as long as now, predicts the University of California.

Half the deciduous fruit trees in California are infected with wood rot. This disease shortens the life of orchards and lessens their yield. It is not a natural result of old age or weakness, but due to the action of wood-destroying fungi.

But there are practicable ways to prevent wood rot. Such is the warning and appeal to the fruit-growers of California made by William Davis Horne, associate professor of plant pathology in the University of California, in a new publication on "Wood Decay in Orchard Trees," just issued by the College of Agriculture and obtainable free by writing to the university.

What is to be done to prevent wood decay? Here are some of the practical suggestions made by Professor Horne:

It is through exposed wood, in wounds or scars not protected by bark, and particularly through large, deep cracks in exposed wood that the fungi which cause wood decay succeed in invading the tree. Pruning wounds and broken limbs are danger points.

Should Be Shaped.

Young trees should be shaped, therefore, so as to prevent breaking, and so that in future years it will not be necessary to remove large limbs.

If large limbs must be removed, or wherever wood is exposed, there should be treatment to prevent infection. In the first place, there should be close cutting—close to the trunk—so that the wound may heal over as quickly as possible. When a limb three-quarters of an inch or more in diameter must be removed, the exposed wood should be immediately disinfected with a 1-1000 corrosive sublimate solution, to prevent growth of the spores of fungi.

As soon as the surface is dry enough to hold paint well, a heavy coat of hot asphaltum should be applied, to prevent the spores of fungi from finding their way into cracks or wood. At the end of summer all orchard trees should be inspected and exposed wood disinfected and sealed with hot asphaltum, to protect it from infection during the winter.

Trees in which decay is already well advanced can be treated by the methods of "tree surgery," but these methods are probably too expensive for general orchard application, so preventive measures are the fruit-growers' chief hope.

The vital need of measures to prevent wood decay in orchard trees has been greatly emphasized by discoveries made recently by two students of the College of Agriculture. C. J. Rodgers found that the "sappy bark disease," one of the most serious ailments affecting apple trees in California, is really due to a wood rot. Then W. W. Thomas, another student, made the surprising discovery that hardly any bearing orchard in California is free from wood decays, and that some orchards have scarcely a sound tree. He found that half the bearing trees are already seriously infected.

ALL ARE SUSCEPTIBLE.

The peach tree is most susceptible to decay. Next in order of susceptibility, come the cherry, apple, plum (including prunes), apricot walnut, pear, olive, and citrus trees. Olive and citrus trees may become hollow without showing the more violent effects of rot, but even they are somewhat crippled. It is in the hot interior valleys that wood decay has proved most serious.

There are about a dozen different species of fungi in California which can penetrate into wood and digest it, leaving little but ash behind. Of these, the "oyster-shell fungus," says Professor Horne, does more harm than all the others combined. In appearance it somewhat resembles a small oyster-shell, gray or brown with dark bands on the upper surface, light colored with vertical pores or tiny tubes on the lower. From these tubes millions of spores are scattered, to find lodgment in exposed pruning wounds or cracks in the wood of trees. When sufficient moisture is furnished—perhaps weeks or months later—these spores begin to grow into destructive fungi.

And the great lesson of prevention is: To prevent decay, prevent infection of the wounds of trees.

ALAMEDANS DO HONOR TO LATE WM. HAMMOND

ALAMEDA, Oct. 29. — Hundreds of Alamedans today attended the funeral services for the late William Hammond Sr., which were held at St. Joseph's church. A requiem high mass was celebrated for the repose of the soul of deceased, Rev. J. B. Praught being in charge of the services. The casket was banked high with the beautiful flowers sent by persons in every station of life.

Members of Alameda Lodge of Elks, of which Hammond was a beloved member, were in attendance at the funeral rites.

The pallbearers were William Higgy, Peter Martinetti, Thomas H. Haskins, Captain J. C. Hague, Oswald Lubbock and Frank Fabens.

The city hall offices were closed this morning from 10 to 12 o'clock, out of respect to Hammond, who was at one time a member of the board of trustees of this city.

CONTRACT FOR AUDITORIUM.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 29. — The recreation commission has entered into a contract for the improvement of the lower floor in the building at McKinley park. This will be converted into an auditorium, which will be used as a social center for the children in the district. The clubhouse in the park has a large floor space and when the new work is completed there will be ample room for lectures, moving picture shows, dances and entertainments. William Dufour is making the alterations.

CITY HALL RENOVATED.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 29. — Within a few weeks the city hall will be as new. The exterior has been sandblasted and the cracks in the walls, caused by the shake in 1906, have been repaired. The lower portion of the building is to be tinted, giving the structure a practically new appearance. The gutters and stand pipes have been renewed and other necessary repairs made. Council President E. R. Bullock has been carrying on the work and given it daily inspection.

OUCH! LUMBAGO PAIN! RUB BACKACHE AWAY

Instant Relief With a Small Trial Bottle of Old "St. Jacob's Oil."

Kidneys cause Backache? No! They have no nerves, therefore can not cause pain. Listen! Your backache is caused by lumbago, sciatica or a strain, and the quickest relief is soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil." Rub it right on your painful back, and instantly the soreness, stiffness and lameness disappears. Don't stay crippled! Get a small trial bottle of "St. Jacobs Oil" from your druggist and limber up. A moment after it is applied you'll wonder what became of the backache or lumbago pain.

Rub old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" whenever you have sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism or sprains, as it is absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.—Advertisement.

BOND SALE MEANS U. C. EXPANSION

Four New Structures to Arise on Campus; Large Premium Paid by Buyers.

BERKELEY, Oct. 29. — With the purchase of the $1,400,000 bond issue of the University of California by E. H. Rollins & Sons of San Francisco and Kuntz Brothers of New York, available money for the erection of new canal is buildings is assured and the last remaining obstacle in the way of pushing the work toward a greater university has been removed.

The bond sale was consummated in the State treasurer's office at Sacramento. Eight bids were received for the issue and premiums were offered by all.

The fact that the successful bidders offered $61,592 premium and they the lowest premium offered by any of the eight was $58,700 is taken as an evidence of the demand in which the bonds were held. The purchasers will receive them at par and accrued interest from July 5, last.

Ralph P. Merritt, comptroller of the university, said today that the contracts are ready and that the university will proceed with the construction of four new buildings.

NO HOLIDAY, SAYS U. C. PRESIDENT

Students and Professors Think Differently and Evade the Ban.

BERKELEY, Oct. 29. — The University of California will take no official part in the celebration at the exposition on November 2, according to an announcement made yesterday by President B. I. Wheeler of the State institution and the pleadings and protestings of the students went for naught. The reason for this sudden change in opinion on the part of the university officials is not known and students are bewailing their fate but say "there is always two sides to a question."

However, the fate of the students is not as bad as might be supposed for the reason that several of the professors who will, or rather are supposed to hold classes on that day, have announced to the students that "although they are not allowed to give a holiday on Tuesday next, no roll call will be taken."

In another class it was announced: "I am not going to give a holiday on November 2, because I cannot, but if you students fail to report on that day I cannot help it and no action will be taken."

And in another course: "There will be no holiday on November 2, but I possibly will not be here. Use your own judgment"; and still in another: "President Wheeler will not give us a holiday and I will be here when the first class bell sounds but I am fairly certain I will not be here when the second sounds," and so it goes through the majority of the classes until the students are to have a holiday when there is no holiday. The "men at the top" say no holiday, but the students and professors say "we will have a holiday" and the law is evaded.

1600 STUDENTS AT U. C. IMMUNIZED TO TYPHOID

BERKELEY, Oct. 29.—The opportunity to be vaccinated against typhoid which the University of California offers to all students has proved remarkably popular. During the past two years 1639 students and members of the faculty have been immunized. The same opportunity is now available for everybody also in California, for anti-typhoid vaccine will be sent free to any physician in the state from the State Hygienic Laboratory, maintained on the University campus by the California State of Health.

Particularly in the spring do the students flock to be vaccinated against typhoid, so that they may go on a summer vacation in the country or the mountains with this protection against typhoid—which is primarily a country and small-town disease, since cities, which are more apt to be careful as to their water-supply and sewage-disposal systems, are much less subject to it.

Last spring, also, a large number of the graduating class sought anti-typhoid vaccination before going out to begin their work in life as civil engineers, miners, teachers, or farmers, in the open country or in small towns.

SCHOOL SUPT. DODGES RECIPROCITY LUNCHEON

BERKELEY, Oct. 29. — M. C. James, superintendent of the Berkeley schools, always has been called a brave man. Yesterday, with the 200 mothers who gathered at the annual reciprocity luncheon of the Berkeley Federation of Mothers' clubs that reputation was endangered.

James was to have been the guest of honor at the luncheon and was to have spoken to the women. Thoughts of being the only man in a room containing 200 women are said to have been too much for him.

"Mr. James has a bad cold and cannot be with us," explained Mrs. C. R. Reilly, the president in opening the session. The announcement was greeted with a storm of laughter.

BERKELEY OWLS TO GIVE HALLOWE'EN MASQUERADE

BERKELEY, Oct. 29.—A Hallowe'en masquerade for which a great deal of preparation has been made is that to be given Monday evening at the Masonic temple by the Berkeley Nest, No. 1105, of the Order of Owls. Rivalry as to the best, the most original, and the most comic costumes is keen and the Owls are anticipating a great deal of pleasure in the event.

AGED WOMAN TRAVELS ALONE TO CALIFORNIA

BERKELEY, Oct. 29.—After traveling all alone from Billings, Mont., Mrs. Lydia Mayo, aged 82 years, who is visiting her niece, Mrs. William H. Marston, 1400 Arch street, is planning to return to her home the same way. At the Marston home a few days ago Mrs. Mayo greeted her brother, Wesley S. Reed of Lakeport, for the first time in forty years.

ALAMEDAN PUBLISHES BOOK.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 29. — D. A. Eberly of 2054 Central avenue, this city, has just published a book of verses on modern redemptive philosophy. The booklet is attractively arranged and contains a foreword and footnotes by the author, interpreting the thought and ideas which he has sought to express.

ENTERTAIN AT HOME.

HAYWARD, Oct. 29. — Mr. and Mrs. Victor La Grave entertained a number of their friends at a birthday party at their home here last evening. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. George Hellwig, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Warrell, Mrs. Julia Straven, Miss Lenora Redding, Mrs. H. L. Beck, Fred Beck and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Dressler.

COUNCILMAN RECOVERS.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 29.—Councilman Conrad Roth is again about, following an extended illness which confined him to his home. Roth was a victim of stomach trouble and at one time his illness was critical.

'Movie' Course Latest at U. C.

Picture Films Used for Teaching

BERKELEY, Oct. 29.—The "movies" have at last been annexed by the University of California.

For many years, motion pictures have been used occasionally at the university for various instructional purposes. Now a Bureau of Visual Instruction has been organized by the University Extension Division, to aid schools, libraries, clubs, and other organizations to make use of the enormous educative possibilities of moving pictures. The new Bureau will cooperate also through lending slides for the stereopticon, traveling case exhibits of objects illustrating industrial processes, and other methods of appeal to the eye as a means of instruction in scientific, historical, and industrial subjects.

The bureau now has a number of reels available for use without charge illustrating by motion pictures such industrial subjects as the making of shoes, chocolate, matches, magazines, and chemical products, or the use of dynamite in improving farm lands.

It has available also for rental at $7 a day and expressage, a large number of films showing famous cities, strange scenes in distant lands, the lives of animals and plants, historical episodes, industrial processes, and moving picture versions of Shakespearian plays.

Over a thousand stereopticon slides are already available, also. Schools may obtain a monthly educational news service from the University Extension Division, consisting of written lectures, to be read by some member of a school faculty, together with a set of fifty stereopticon slides depicting current events of the month.

This new Bureau of Visual Instruction is the sixth bureau to be organized by the University Extension Division, the others dealing with correspondence instruction, class instruction, public discussion, information and municipal reference, and lectures.

ALAMEDANS TO HELP IN S. F. CELEBRATION

ALAMEDA, Oct. 29.—Alameda residents are anticipating "San Francisco day" at the exposition, and many will go from this city to take part in the celebration of the Jewel city next Tuesday. A school holiday has been ordered and as a legal holiday has been declared, the city offices will be closed.

Mayor F. H. Bartlett has issued the following letter to the residents of this city:

"I have been requested by Mayor James Rolph, Jr., of San Francisco to call the attention of the people of Alameda to the fact that November 2 is "San Francisco Day" at the Exposition. This day has been proclaimed by Governor Johnson a state holiday. I hope that the people of Alameda will assist in making the celebration of that day a great success.

"The program of "San Francisco Day" has been prepared to match the expectation of an Exposition attendance of over 300,000.

"A most brilliant pageant, a "Parade of the Nations and States," will take place in the morning.

"A realistic land battle between the Army and Navy will occupy a part of the afternoon.

"At night the Monitor and Merrimac will meet in battle, while such fireworks as have never elsewhere been seen will entertain and fascinate the Exposition throngs.

"For every hour of the day and evening some novel feature has been arranged; harness races, aeroplane flights, athletics, concerts and festivals of dancing in the beautiful Exposition courts."

COLLEGE GIRLS ENTER "POPULARITY" CONTEST

BERKELEY, Oct. 29.—Who is the most popular coed in the University of California?

Campus discussion on the subject will be settled during the Christmas holidays when the result of a "popularity" contest being conducted at the university is made public.

Entered as contestants are some of the most widely known of the college girls, many of whom have received prominence in dramatics. As each has her ardent supporters it is expected that by the time midwinter arrives the campus will be as excited as it is on the eve of a "big game."

Among those already entered in the contest are:

Dorothea Torrey, Dorothy Epping, Alice Elliot, Camille Purdy, Catherine Woolsey, Winifred Butler, Frances Cochrane and Ruth Hammond.

CONTRACT AWARDED ON PROFESSOR'S ADVICE

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Oct. 29.—After delaying for several weeks the awarding of the contract for fifty-six motors to be used at San Quentin prison, the State Board of Control has given the contract to the General Electric Company. The amount of the contract is $5700.

Seven bids were submitted, of which the General Electric's was the lowest. Other bidders advised the Board of Control the motors of that company were not as good as those of the higher bidders. As a result, Professor C. L. Corey, head of the electrical engineering department of the University of California, was called in, and on his recommendation the bid of the General Electric Company was accepted.

RETURNS FROM SOUTH.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 29.—Miss Belle Garrette has returned from the South, where she went to attend the Presbyterian synod as secretary of the Occidental Board of Missions. Miss Garrette was in San Diego a week, and while there, with other of the delegates to the synod, was extensively entertained with tours of all the historic spots in the surrounding country, with a visit to the exposition. En route home Miss Garrette stopped over at Los Angeles and in Fresno, where she was the guest of friends.

FLAG WAVES O'ER ALAMEDA.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 29.—Old Glory again waves over the City of Alameda, a flagpole having been erected at the City Hall. The pole has been erected over the porch which covers the entrance to the building. The flag was today placed at half mast, as were the flags on other public buildings and at the Elks' Club, in honor of the late William Hammond Sr.

NINES TO CLASH.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 29.—Baseball teams of Alameda lodge of Elks and the Encinal Yacht club will meet next Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock on the diamond at Lincoln Park. The Elks are anxious to obtain fast practice for their game with Berkeley November 7, and Sunday the Encinals promise to make them move. Roy Pratt is head of the yacht club team.

BLIND STUDENTS TO GIVE CONCERT

Pupils at State School to Appear at Half-Hour of Music in Greek Theater.

BERKELEY, Oct. 29 — A considerable number of the blind students in the California school for the deaf and the blind, in Berkeley, are studying music, and were naturally anxious to hear Kreisler on his recent appearance in the Greek theater but lacked the money with which to pay the full price for tickets. An appeal for a reduction was therefore made with the result that they were invited to attend the concert as the guests of the university and of Manager Will L. Greenbaum.

In recognition of the courtesy extended to them, they decided, with the approval of L. E. Milligan, the principal of the school, and Mr. Chapman, the music teacher, to give one of the half hours of music in the Greek theater and next Sunday, October 31, was assigned them for that purpose. Under the direction of Otto Fleischner, director of music, Mrs. Jeanne E. Jenks-Chapman, violin instructor; Mrs. Marta von Sturmer, vocal instructor, and Miss Gussie Mast, piano instructor, they will present the following program:

Piano solo, "Tarantella," Op. 77, E. Nollet, Rolland Harter; vocal quartet, "Evening Prayer," C. Kreutzer, Frances Phillips, Marguerite McAtee, Alfred Kloess and Rolland Harter; violin solo, "Concerto," F. Seitz, Martha Dean; piano solo, "La Fileuse," Op. 157, Joachim Raff, Bernice La Flamme; vocal solo, "The Princess' Golden Locks," Otto Weyse, Marian Shorten; piano solo, "Ballade," Op. 47, F. Chopin, Alfred Kloess; string quartet, "Minuet," Beecherini, Martha Dean, Anna Schumacher, Rolland Harter and Alfred Kloess.

The public will be welcome. Beginning with this Sunday, these half hours of music will commence at 3 o'clock, instead of 4 as formerly.

BLIND STUDENTS TO GIVE "GREEK" CONCERT

BERKELEY, Oct. 30. — Blind students from the state institution in Warring-street will contribute the program for the half hour of music in the Greek theater Sunday afternoon. It is their return for the courtesy of the University in entertaining them as its guests at the Kreisler concert given recently in the Greek Theater. Many of them had desired to attend the concert and lacking money to pay the full price of admission, sent a request to Manager Will Greenbaum for a reduction in the price that they could meet. The result was that they were invited to be guests of the University and of Manager Greenbaum, and there were no more keenly appreciative members of the big audience in the amphitheater when Kreisler played. With the approval of Principal L. E. M. Milligan of the Blind Institute, they offered to give the half hour program next Sunday when some of the musically gifted students will be heard under the direction of Otto Fleishner and other teachers at the Institute.

Beginning with Sunday the music half hours will begin at 3 o'clock instead of 4 as formerly.

BERKELEY PASTOR TO LECTURE ON IBSEN

BERKELEY, Oct. 29.—Dr. H. J. Loken, a native of Norway, will give a series of three lectures on Ibsen, the mystical Norwegian dramatist. The three typical plays of Ibsen, "The Brand," "An Enemy of the People" and "The Lady From the Sea," will be discussed in this series.

Dr. Loken, who is pastor of the First Christian church of Berkeley, is a native of Norway, and intimately acquainted with the localities described and the social conditions out of which these plays grew, and can thus furnish the local color that is necessary to understand and appreciate these plays to the full. Some beautiful motion pictures of Norway will be used to furnish an atmosphere as a background for the message of these plays.

The lectures will be given Sunday evenings at the First Christian church, the first on next Sunday.

ALAMEDA EAGLES WILL GIVE MASQUERADE BALL

ALAMEDA, Oct. 29.—Branches of the Order of Eagles on both sides of the bay will be represented at a masque ball to be given in Eagles' Hall tomorrow night by the drum and fife corps of Alameda Aerie No. 1075. The visitors will include the drum and fife corps of San Francisco Aerie No. 5, the clown band of Golden State Aerie No. 61 and the corps of other aeries.

In charge of the ball is a committee composed of A. Widasky, A. N. Nylander, C. Marquette, A. Kennedy and W. Kennady.

OAKLAND TO ASSIST IN BIG DAY AT FAIR

Oakland's commercial and fraternal organizations and school children will unite in making San Francisco Day at the Exposition the big celebration of the season, according to plans being finally outlined by the various committees preparing features for the big day. More than ten thousand citizens of the east bay cities are expected to attend the celebration Tuesday.

The University of California and the Oakland and Berkeley schools will send great contingents to assist in San Francisco's celebration, and letters have been issued to all railroads, asking that depots and piers be decorated. Yerba Buena Island and the Exposition pier will also be decorated.

Oakland's school children were given a day off by the board of education in honor of the occasion.

Detailed plans for Oakland's representation were discussed yesterday at the Chamber of Commerce, when, with President Victor Metcalf in the chair, the members took up the various plans suggested for co-operation in the work by the east bay cities. Boosters' organizations will all send their forces, it was reported, and these will parade on the Marina as one of the features of the day.

The meeting yesterday was called at the request of the president of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce. Resolutions were passed urging all Oakland residents to attend the celebration.

The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotic, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells which are likely to become permanent, causing imbecility, mental perversion, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous diseases, such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and lack of staying powers are a result of dosing with opiates or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrups and other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly decried, and the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to dose them willfully with narcotics.

Castoria contains no narcotics if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

HOOPER'S HOMER ALMOST BROKE UP SEAL DEFENSE

Curly Brown Forced to Rush to Rescue of Coast Champions.

Harry Wolverton's champions upheld the honor of the little ol' Coast league yesterday by walloping Oscar Vitt's big time performers 8 to 7 in the opening game of the post season series. A crowd of five thousand people gathered at Recreation Park to see the contest, so that the boys profited pretty well in their undertaking.

Truth to tell, it was a pretty poor game, with the pitching away off color. Joe Oeschger, who started for the All-Stars, was very wild in the opening innings, and when he did put the ball over the Seals knocked him out of the box. Dutch Klawitter was also pounced from the hill, and it devolved upon Bill Prough, another Oak, to finally check the San Francisco onslaught.

Meanwhile Bill Steen was having a pretty good day. He stood by his guns manfully until the seventh inning when Harry Hooper, duplicated his world's series feat by smashing the ball out of sight over the center field fence and scoring Klawitter ahead of him. Following this, Snodgrass walked, Vitt singled and Johnston scored both men with a double, bringing the score up to 8 to 6. The next round saw Steen weaken further. He walked Burns and Ivan Howard, batting for Klawitter. Curly Brown rushed to the rescue, and shut off further damage except for one run, which crossed by virtue of a sacrifice fly.

Hooper's homer was by way of revenge, for in the fifth inning Steen fanned him with two on the paths.

Today's game begins at 2:45.

Garden City Will Greet Cyclists

WALTER JONES, ENTERED BY ACME CLUB IN RACE MEET AT SAN JOSE SUNDAY.

SAN JOSE, Oct. 29. — Attracted by rich prizes and handsome trophies the wheel clubs of San Francisco, Oakland and other outside towns have entered a large field of riders in the meet to be held by the Garden City Wheelmen Sunday at the San Jose driving park. The program includes eight open quarter-mile sprint events and an interclub 30-mile point race between six-men teams.

The Olympic and New Century clubs of San Francisco and the Acme cyclers of Oakland, besides the San Jose club, are entered in the point race.

FRANKIE BURNS AND YOAKUM DRAW

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Oct. 29. — Stanley Yoakum of Denver and Frankie Burns of Oakland, lightweights, fought fifteen fast rounds last night to a draw at Ramona. Both men were bleeding profusely at the windup. The fighters finished strong.

OAKS WILL NOT TRAIN AGAIN AT PLEASANTON CAMP

Elliott May Select New Quarters at Boyes Springs Resort.

(By "BILLY FITZ.")

One of the first official acts of Manager Harold Elliott in behalf of the 1916 Oakland club has been to put the kibosh on Pleasanton as a training site. The Oaks will positively not train at the same place they have unlimbered in the last two years. Elliott has no fault to find with Pleasanton climate, or Pleasanton citizens, but the living accommodations provided the athletes have not been satisfactory.

Elliott will go to Boyes Springs in a few days and look over a site for a training camp, a few miles from the spot made famous by the San Francisco Seals. It is quite probable that an Oakland baseball colony will be founded close to Boyes Springs on a site where mineral waters and hot baths are available the year round.

Of course, this does not mean that the Seals and Oaks would do their training together. Such a thing would hardly be regarded with favor by the bugs of either city, but they are likely to join in making the territory of Boyes Springs the greatest baseball center in the country. Already, many ball players own cottages in that vicinity, among them Duffy Lewis, the greatest hero of them all.

The exclusive story in yesterday's Tribune that Manager Elliott intended to convert Bobby Stow into a shortstop next season is creating much comment in baseball circles. Stow is a mighty good second sacker, but Rowdy claims that he is even a better shortstop. Stow worked out at short at Los Angeles and handled himself in a highly capable manner. The Oaks are not figuring on retaining either Hosp, Duddy or Litschi.

As told in last night's sporting extra, the Chicago White Sox have offered to turn back Jack Ness to the Oaks for $3000. Comiskey secured Ness from the Oaks on option secured when Red Kuhn came to the club. The price of $3000 is regarded as prohibitive by the Oakland club and Elliott will proceed with his plans for re-organizing the infield without figuring on the services of this year's field captain.

BANCROFT'S MAJOR LEAGUERS ARE DUE HERE NOVEMBER 19

(By RIGHT FIELD.)

Frank Bancroft's All-American and All-National baseball teams are now well on their way to the Pacific coast. On Saturday and Sunday they are at Denver and from there they come direct west. The teams are made up of these well-known players, several being taken from the Boston and Philadelphia world champion teams:

All-Americans — Pitchers, Klepfer, Ayers, Harper, James, catchers, Cady, Henry, first base, Hoblitzel; second base, Mullen; shortstop, Shanks; third base, Schang; outfielders, Walker, Strunk, Roth, utility, Pipp.

All-Nationals — Pitchers, Alexander, Pfeffer, Vaughn, Coombs, catchers, Miller, McCarthy, first base, Daubert, second base, Evers, shortstop, Fisher, third base, Groh, leftfield, Carey, centerfield, Killifer, rightfield, Magee.

Their schedule from Denver on is:

Oct. 20, Oskosh, Oct. 21, St. Paul; Oct. 22, Minneapolis, Oct. 23, Sioux City; Oct. 24, Omaha; Oct. 25, Lincoln; Oct. 26, Columbus; Oct. 27, Grand Island; Oct. 28, North Platte; Oct. 29, Greeley, Oct. 30, Denver; Oct. 31, Denver, Nov. 1, Colorado Springs, Nov. 2, Pueblo; Nov. 3, Cheyenne; Nov. 4, Rock Springs; Nov. 5, Ogden; Nov. 6, Salt Lake City, Nov. 7, Salt Lake City; Nov. 8, Pocatello; Nov. 9, Twin Falls, Nov. 10, Boise, Nov. 11, Baker, Nov. 12, Pendleton, Nov. 13, Spokane; Nov. 14, Seattle; Nov. 15, Portland, Nov. 16, Portland; Nov. 17, travel, Nov. 18, Sacramento; Nov. 19, San Francisco; Nov. 20, San Francisco; Nov. 21, San Francisco p. m., Oakland a. m.

Bancroft, business manager of the Cincinnati National league club, has often before piloted major league teams through a post-season series. In this tour he has the approval of the National commission, though it is an independent enterprise. Bancroft made a fine financial success of a trip to the coast and Honolulu last winter with all-star aggregations from the National and American leagues, and believes this trip will be equally successful.

Of course, everything depends on the weather. If Bancroft should miss the rainy season on his way from Denver to the coast and while on the coast he will certainly play to big crowds for while he does not bring out the world's champion teams intact he does bring a fine lot of players and while they are with Bancroft they will have to give to their patrons the very best that is in them.

FOOTBALL FOR ALAMEDA.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 29.—The Ionic Club and the All-Star team from Fort Winfield Scott will meet at Lincoln Park next Sunday afternoon, starting at 2:30 o'clock. This will be one of the first American games played in Alameda this season, and it is expected that a large throng of the devotees of the old style of football will be on hand.

ARROUSEY MATCHED WITH TEVAS

Johnny Arrousey, Los Angeles featherweight champion, who has not been defeated in five years, and Pete Tavas, leader of the local fighting brigade in the race for the lightweight championship, meet in the main event bout of the West Oakland club on next Wednesday. In the special events Frankie Farron meets Tony Freitas, the East Oakland crack, and Kid Smiley battles with Jimmy West. Bouts between Kid Taylor and Young Sylvester and Jimmy Magill vs. Danny Edwards, together with two other tangles, completes the card.

Tribune League Teams Are Ready for Opening

Special Meeting of Directors Adds Finishing Touches

At a special meeting of The Tribune Midwinter League directors last evening for the purpose of putting the finishing touches on the circuits and enlightening new managers on the operation of the league, everything was put in readiness for the opening games Sunday. Several amendments to the league rules were made relative to the official ball to be used, the number of games to be played and the time limit for signing new players.

The restriction placed on the baseball was lifted and any officially recognized league baseball may be used in either division of the league.

In a Class A organization the managers decided that the schedule was changed so that each club meets each opponent twice, which will make a total of ten games. The reasons for the change was that there are so many leagues and on the different teams they would be unable to play out a fifteen-game schedule. The Class B league having eight teams in the league, will also play two games with each other.

Previously the rule in the Class A division concerning the signing of ball manager could take on any player up until a month before the closing of the league. The directors voted that after the teams had played two games they must use the same team intact for the balance of the season. The rule does not apply to the Class B circuit, as the managers in this league have a hard time holding the ball players and would be in a big hole should any of their players drop out. They will be able to sign players until a month before the closing of the season.

Several of the managers deposited their bond money and handed in a list of their players to be used in Sunday's game to Herb Remmer, secretary and treasurer. The limit for this business is today before 2 o'clock.

HOLDS MONSTER RALLY.

The St. Mary's college student body held a monster rally last night in celebration of the Saints' big game of the year with the University of California varsity tomorrow. After an entertaining jinks which took place in the gym, the crowd gathered around a big bonfire and listened to talks delivered by Louis Guisto, 1915 captain; Coach McAndrews, Graduate Manager Nevis, Coach Pete Smith, J. Emmett McNamara, president of the big "M" society, and Howard Magee, president of the student body. Bernard J. Flood, superior judge of San Francisco, and former St. Mary's quarterback, presided at the rally.

READY FOR REGATTA.

With over 350 Oakland youngsters competing, a series of boating events will be held at the Exposition Yacht harbor tomorrow. Twenty-two whaleboats will take part in the regatta. The feature race of the day will be that between the crews of the Fremont, Oakland Tech, and Oakland High schools.

WHITE VS. WELLS TONIGHT.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 29.—Charlie White, Chicago and Matt Wells, England, lightweights, are to meet in a ten round no-decision boxing bout here tonight. White is a slight favorite in the betting. They are to weigh 135 pounds at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The "Farm" is all agog over tomorrow's game between Coach Brown's huskies and the Southern California All-Star team which Mike Narlion and Pat Higgins have exported to these parts. There are several minor reasons why tomorrow's game is causing so much excitement, but the two outstanding ones are that the lineup used tomorrow will be the nearest thing to the one that will face Santa Clara that has shown this year, while secondly, the southerners are represented by a strong team and are considered an excellent chance of defeating the Cardinals.

The visiting team which arrives today, has several real players in their lineup, among the notables being "Deke" Gard, Law, Blair, last year Los Angeles high captain; Mow Mitchell, 1909 Stanford captain; Red Wilson, credited with being one of the fastest backs ever developed in the southern part of the State; E. B. Hall, former Stanford star, Harry Elliott, Blake, Heney, and several other well known rugbyists who have helped to keep the game alive in that section.

Stanford's backfield tomorrow will consist of Erb at half; Urban at first five, Ric Templeton at second five, Danny Carroll at center three, and Dievendorff and Swiggart on the wings, with Bobby Templeton at full. Bloeser, Sample and Knight will compose the front rank, "Swede" Pettingill is a certainty for one of the middle rank positions, while Soper and Rehm will probably be the breaks. The other middle rank and the lock position is unsettled.

The Stanford freshmen play their final game of the year against Chico normal. If the "frosh" win, it will be a big feather in their caps for the Chico team beat Woodland high, 1914 Northern California champs, by a 19 to 0 score. The freshmen who take part in tomorrow's game secure their numerals. Freddie Stevens, 1914 Berkeley wing, is included on the list of eligibles for the game.

The Fremont high school football fifteen will meet the Sacramento high school fifteen, champions of the Sacramento Valley league, on tomorrow afternoon at Eighteenth and Wood streets. The Fremont boys, under Coach Charles Blesse have been improving rapidly since they defeated Oakland high a while back, and the green and gold is represented by one of the best football teams that ever represented the school this year.

Blesse has made several important shifts since the Oakland game. Captain Elwyn Manhardt, who has been playing a fine brand of ball this year, has been shifted to front rank, while Louis Price, 1914 captain, has been stationed at first-five in place of Jimmy Hopkins who will now cavort at full. The Fremont scrum is a remarkable one this year, weight and speed being very much in evidence. Blesse has been using a three-quarter scrum combination and it has worked with great success. Shippe and Roberts, the latter a newcomer, together with Manhardt, compose the front rank, while Stewart, last year lock; Bepler, Parner and Esterbrook complete the formation. Swede Hanson will be seen at wing forward.

Woland at half, Price and Bud Gardiner at fives, and Clem Drew, Quick and Peck, with Hopkins at full, makes up a classy all round backfield. Manager Baumgartner of Fremont and Muldoon of Berkeley have come together and if Berkeley defeats Oakland Tech on next Thursday, thus winning the county title, the green and gold and Berkeley teams will come together. If Tech defeats Berkeley, however, Manager Baumgartner will attempt to arrange a game with Thoburn's team.

Saturday's game will start at 2 o'clock.

The Tech team which will oppose Berkeley high in the county championship game has finally been picked. Up to Wednesday there were two positions in doubt, full back and one of the front rank places. Guy Calden's return necessitated a removal of Phil Dalton from the second-five post, and now, Coach Thoburn has placed Phil at full in preference to both Girvin and Hewson, who were contesting for the job. Thoburn's shifting of Dalton to full and his placing of Calden at second-five shows that he has faith in the three-quarter line, composed of McMeekin, Smale and Torgenson, which was expected to be shaken up a bit. The contest for the front rank position between Dougherty and Hoageman has been straightened out through the stationing of Dougherty in the rear rank. Jack Smith who was playing at rear rank with Van de Peer, will now adorn the side lines.

The College of Pacific and St. Ignatius college teams meet tomorrow in the big game of the year for both institutions, at the St. Ignatius stadium. The Saints held a rally last night where plenty of "Jazz" was shown. Both teams have fairly strong lineups, the Catholics having an edge in the backfield and the Methodists in the scrum. The two teams will line up as follows:

St. Ignatius — Forwards, McHugh, Decker, Boyle, Maroevich, Lennon, Harrigan, Conlan, Ahern, half, Larrecou; five-eighths, Incell, Evans, center-three, Williamson, wings, Morrisey, Flood, full, Dewey.

College of Pacific—Forwards, Sperry, Walker, Atherton, Brainard, Cowger, Winning, Keast, Brown, half, Wright; five-eighths, Henry, Meese, center-three, Marriot, wings, Needham, Shafer, full, Wright.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

LOWENBERG'S STARS WIN.

[illegible] against the best team San Rafael has shown this season, Great Western Power went down to defeat Sunday, after McCreery had pitched a fine game up to the sixth inning when he was touched for four safeties, combined with errors in the outfield with easy chances, allowed five runs to score, losing the game. Eddie Burns was the whole show, however. Walt Croll pilfered two bases off the National leaguer.

The Power club will soon end their season, having lost the services of [illegible] of their best men. Captain Croll has signed for the remaining games Spike Healey, Clara Lodi and Speer. [illegible] Van Ward will probably continue to [illegible] the center garden where he has made some wonderful catches during the last few games. Sunday's score:

HAYWARD HIGH FOOTBALL TEAM GIVEN BANQUET

HAYWARD, Oct. 28.—The high school football team boys were given a dinner by the girl students this week. The spread was followed by a social and dance.

The school baseball team is getting into training for the school league series. In a friendly game this week they defeated a team from the grammar school, 6 to 1.

PUPILS VISIT FAIR.

SAN LEANDRO, Oct. 29.—Over 300 pupils of the local grammar school visited the Exposition yesterday. Principal Guy Smith and others of the faculty had charge of the party which made the trip in three special cars. The students spent a busy day at the fair and were especially interested in the exhibits in the Educational building.

LEIDECKER FACES BOARD'S ACTION

Fruitvale Trade Body May Expel Member if Resignation Isn't Offered.

FRUITVALE, Oct. 29.—Further action against C. Leidecker, local trustee, will be taken at a meeting of the Fruitvale Board of Trade next Friday [illegible] to oust him from the organization after he had failed to explain satisfactorily why he had named himself chairman of a banquet in place of President Henry Barkmeyer. Leidecker, Parkmeyer and other of the members complain, [illegible] the president's place at [illegible] celebration of street work attended by Mayor John L. Davie. At the last meeting of the board Parkmeyer declared his intention of resigning if Leidecker did not do so. A motion was passed asking Leidecker to resign.

"If Leidecker gives trouble at the next meeting and does not hand in a written resignation, as he was requested to do, steps will be taken to have him expelled from membership and his dues will probably be refused," said one of the Board of Trade officers. Leidecker is said to be still defiant and to be bent on retaining his place on the board.

CHARGE VIOLATION OF LICENSE ORDINANCE

SAN LEANDRO, Oct. 29.—Fred J. Hirschmann, prominent merchant and secretary of the Merchants Association has been arrested and will have a jury trial here Wednesday on a charge of violation of the licensing ordinance. He is alleged to have carried on an express delivery business in town without a license. He was liberated on $200 bonds and demanded a jury trial, which will be held before City Recorded J. H. Beecher at 7:30 a. m., Wednesday.

The arrest was made by Marshal Joseph Peralta who says Hirschmann carried goods from an Elmhurst express company into San Leandro in his dray.

This latest licensing case coming close on recent trouble over the payment of city licenses and in which Hirschmann was said to be involved has aroused keen interest in the business community. Hirschmann will be represented by an attorney at the trial. Deputy District Attorney A. A. Rogers will prosecute.

VICTIM OF OWN GUN HAS CHANCE FOR RECOVERY

HAYWARD, Oct. 29.—Fred Perry, a young rancher of Crow Canyon who accidentally shot himself yesterday morning has a chance for recovery. It was stated at the Billingsley hospital where he is now lying that he has regained consciousness and his condition showed slight improvement. While it was at first thought Perry had shot himself in the heart, a later examination showed that that organ was not injured although the charge from the gun passed close to it and lodged in his lungs.

As Perry climbed into his wagon he struck against a shotgun the charge of which was exploded entering his side.

ASKS $10,000 FOR EYE.

MARTINEZ, Oct. 29.—Guy F. Nottingham, a merchant of Walnut Creek, filed suit here yesterday against Dr. E. W. Merrithew, county physician, for $10,090.50 damages for the loss of an eye. Nottingham alleges that on June 23 he went to the county hospital to receive treatment for a piece of steel, which had lodged in his right eye. He declares that for eight days no effort was made to find the steel. On July 16 he says he found it necessary to consult a specialist, who removed the eye. He asks $10,000 for the loss of the eye and $190.50 for the specialist's fee.

ENTERTAINS ALTAR SOCIETY.

FRUITVALE, Oct. 29.—Mrs. C. S. Burke entertained the members of the Altar Society of St. Lawrence's church yesterday afternoon at her home, 3101 Eastman avenue, in Allendale. A social program included musical numbers by Miss Ramsey. The guests were: Mrs. A. Cleu, Mrs. R. Ramsey, Mrs. C. Grieve, Mrs. C. Legallet, Mrs. M. Collins, Mrs. George Clause, Mrs. M. Cummings, Miss M. Lynch, Miss M. Murphy, Mrs. T. Haggerty, Mrs. Showers, Mrs. T. Smith, Mrs. R. Childs, Mrs. Kendres, Mrs. W. Clasman, Mrs. R. Shaw, Mrs. T. Schnarr, Mrs. R. Keith and Miss A. Reid.

CHRYSANTHEMUM SHOW.

SAN LEANDRO, Oct. 29.—A second chrysanthemum exhibit will be held here next week, probably Friday and Saturday, under the auspices of the San Leandro Chrysanthemum Association. Flowers which had not developed sufficiently to be displayed at the last show earlier in the month will be exhibited by boy and girl gardeners who form the association. The flowers will be on view in the school auditorium.

GIVES BIRTHDAY PARTY.

MELROSE, Oct. 29.—Mrs. C. H. McCarthy was hostess to a party of friends at an affair at her home, 1859 Fortieth avenue, last evening, in honor of the birthday of her daughter, Miss Claire McCarthy. Music and games followed a birthday dinner. Those present were: Mrs. H. Knapp, Mrs. J. C. Newcomb, Mrs. J. T. Poresz, Mrs. M. Collins, Mrs. George Clause and Miss Marie McCarthy.

SKIN DISEASES ARE EVIDENCE OF BAD BLOOD

No Matter How the Disease Appears, Whether Boils, Carbuncles, Rash, Eczema, Scrofula or a "Breaking Out," It's Bad Blood.

It is the tendency on the part of so many people to regard so-called skin diseases as just "a breaking out," that leads to so much suffering from them. There is only one way to classify and treat a "breaking out," whether it is a rash, a burning, boil, Eczema, or the trouble having the appearance of being scaly rash. You must regard it as a blood infection and to effect a speedy and permanent cure it must be treated through the blood.

Take a simple example—some people cannot eat acid fruits, such as strawberries, tomatoes, without the acid causing a "breaking out" of hives: red splotches that itch terribly for a few days. Eating the fruit adds poison to the blood already loaded with uric acid and the eating of this little fruit is sufficient to cause these violent and irritating skin eruptions. If the blood was vigorous, healthy and clean, this little acid would not be harmful. This is one of the reasons the appearance of rashes, red pimples, red splotches on the skin must be taken as indicating bad blood. Itching burning skin is a danger sign; sores and old ulcers are proof of blood disorder. All these things are disagreeable truths, but you must know them, you must realize them, and, above all, you must heed the warning if you expect to regain health, strength and the fullness of physical vigor. The object of this message is to tell you briefly about Skin Diseases and of a remedy that for fifty years has proven to be wonderful in its relief because of its action as a blood tonic and invigorator. This remedy is S. S. S., a purely vegetable remedy which has proven its wonderful tonic and curative properties in thousands of blood disease cases.

Skin Diseases are too numerous and complicated to do justice in this short space, but the Swift Specific Company will write you fully about most of them, sending you descriptive booklets which will enable you to identify most of the ailments regarded as skin diseases, but which may be the first indications of diseased blood. You can get from this advice, which is free, information that will enable you to distinguish Scrofula, to classify Eczema, to tell what Boils and Carbuncles really mean. You can learn for yourself that Rheumatism, Malaria, Catarrh, are blood diseases of the most virulent and tenacious kind. You will discover that the simple appearing rashes and skin eruptions you have paid so little attention to, may be the forerunners of these very diseases and unless checked may cause intense suffering.

There is no better way of preventing illness than by checking it when the first symptom appears and before it gets a hold on the system. When the blood is only slightly contaminated S. S. S. will relieve the trouble and restore complete strength and vigor in a short time. This wonderful blood builder and tonic is a powerful stimulant to the blood. It is an antidote to blood poison, neutralizes the effect of uric acid, and drives out the germs that infect and weaken the blood. It aids nature by giving the blood a chance to renew its own strength and perform its natural function of cleansing and invigorating the heart, lungs, kidneys, etc., assisting them in disposing of the body waste and keeping the body in a healthy condition. Prove these facts for yourself. Write immediately to Medical Department 93, Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Ga., for free medical advice, and if you have skin eruptions, pimples or any blood trouble, go to your druggist and get a bottle of S. S. S., take it according to directions and write to us for information about your individual case.—Advertisement.

Broker Indicted for Hanbury Hay Blaze

NAPA, Oct. 29.—William L. Williamson, president of Coats & Williamson, livestock dealers, 127 Montgomery street, was indicted by the Napa county grand jury last night on the charge of conspiring to [illegible] the hay crop on Island No. 2 in the San Joaquin river delta for $[illegible] insurance money. He is out on $[illegible] bail.

POSTPONE EXAMINATION OF ALLEGED BURGLAR

HAYWARD, Oct. 29.—Gottfrede Schwarz, who is alleged to have committed a series of daring burglaries in San Lorenzo and Hayward and who was to have been examined on a charge of burglary before Justice of the Peace Charles Prowse here yesterday, will not come up before November 30. The district attorney's office was not represented yesterday and the examination was accordingly postponed.

Schwarz was arrested several days after the burglaries. Five houses were broken into in the San Lorenzo district alone and nearly $[illegible] worth of jewelry and other articles were stolen.

FRUITVALE MATRONS TO HOLD DOLLAR SOCIAL

FRUITVALE, Oct. 29.—The annual dollar social of the Fruitvale Methodist church will be held this evening, when the women of the church will tell how they made dollars for the church fund. Amusing and novel ways in winning the dollar make the experiences interesting telling. Besides the dollar stories a social program will be carried out by the members of the Ladies' Aid.

Mrs. Otto Merrill entertained the aid society at a social at her home on Logan street yesterday afternoon. Payments on the church piano were completed at the meeting.

WILL OCCUPY PULPIT.

FRUITVALE, Oct. 29.—Rev. Frank Stuart Ford of Winters will occupy the pulpit of the Fruitvale Christian church Sunday morning. Rev. R. L. McHatton, pastor of the church, will preach the evening sermon.

FORESTERS TENDER RECEPTION.

HAYWARD, Oct. 29.—Louis Brownstone, San Francisco, grand junior woodward of the Foresters of America, was given a reception on the occasion of an official visit last evening to Court Hayward of the order. A social and ritualistic program was carried out by the lodgemen in his honor.

CREWS TRAIN FOR MONSTER REGATTA

Oakland Will Send 350 Oarsmen to Exposition for Saturday's Celebration.

Twenty-two rowing crews of Oakland, comprising 3[illegible] oarsmen and ranging in size from ten-year-old girls of the Hawthorne Playground Baby [illegible] crew to the stalwarts of the Polytechnic College of Engineering, are putting on the finishing touches to their training on Lake Merritt in preparation for a "monster" regatta to be held at the Exposition tomorrow morning. The Oakland Department of Recreation is promoting the regatta.

The program includes six races, a marine parade and boat drills. Ten o'clock is the hour announced for the commencement of the program.

The order of events and names of participants follow:

The crews will board their boats, which are twelve-oared double banked naval whaleboats, gigs and cutters, in Fulton basin at 9:45. There will be 22 crews, of which 20 will take part in the first part of the program, the parade and boat drill.

At 10 o'clock the boats will row in a long line from Fulton basin along the Marina to the Yacht Harbor, where they will turn and head back along the Marina. When all have turned, they will form a line and go through a boat drill, as directed by signals from shore.

The order of boats in the drill and parade will be: 1, Y. W. C. A. girls; 2, Polytechnic College boys; 3, Fremont High school girls; 4, Fremont High school boys; 5, Oakland High school girls; 6, Oakland High school boys; 7, Technical High school girls; 8, Technical High school boys; 9, Hawolo Club girls; 10, Jefferson school girls; 11, Intermediate boys; 12, Melrose Heights; 13, Fremont boys No. 2; 14, Hawthorne Playground girls; 15, California School of Arts and Crafts girls; 16, Golden Gate Playground boys; 17, Intermediate girls; 18, Spartan Club; 19, Invincible Club; 20, Hawthorne Babies.

Following the drill, all boats will put into the Yacht Harbor except the following: Polytechnic College of Engineering, Oakland High boys, Fremont High boys, Intermediate school boys and Fremont No. 2 boys, which crews will participate in a flotilla maneuvering drill along the Marina.

At the conclusion of this event, the races will start. Course will be from the entrance of the Yacht Harbor, parallel to the Marina, to a point opposite the ferry slip. The order of races will be:

High school boys' race—Oakland High, Technical High, Fremont High.

High school girls' race—Oakland, Technical, Fremont high schools.

Boys' club race—Spartan Club, Polytechnic College of Engineering, Invincible Club and Querculi Club.

Girls' club race—Y. W. C. A., Hawolo Club, California School of Arts and Crafts.

Playground and grammar school boys' race—Intermediate school, Golden Gate playground, Fremont No. 2.

Playground and grammar school girls' race—Porter school, Garfield playground, Hawthorne playground and Intermediate school.

The officials in charge of the regatta are: H. C. Peterson, referee; E. B. Thorning, starter; George E. Dickie, V. Kottinger, H. Inskeep, judges of finish; Jay E. Nash, Ibert Vail, Wm. C. Tooze, timers.

An officer of the United States Navy will be detailed as marshal of the course.

The committee handling the regatta is composed of George E. Dickie, superintendent of recreation, city of Oakland, general chairman; J. S. Gutleben, manager of Oakland municipal boat house; E. B. Thorning, J. B. Nash, W. A. Weiland, Miss Signe Hagelthorne, Miss Winifred Van Hagen, W. R. Madge, Elbert Vail, Wm. C. Tooze, G. E. Clark, Walter Andrews.

Trophies are to be awarded to the winning crew in each class and to the best drilled crew of boys and of girls.

BENEFIT FOOD SALE.

ELMHURST, Oct. 29.—The Elmhurst Club is holding a sale of food today in the Elmhurst school. Funds raised will be used to take children of this district to the Exposition. A committee of six club women is conducting the sale.

Electric Tower To Be Replaced

San Jose Plans Big Fete at Completion

SAN JOSE, Oct. 29.—A contract for the erection of an electric tower at the corner of Market and Santa Clara streets to replace the landmark ruined by high winds last winter was let by the mayor and council last night. The contract price, $6087, is much higher than originally estimated several months ago on account of the rapidly increasing price of steel since the outbreak of the European war. Most of the money for the construction of the new tower, which will be 300 feet high, was raised by a tower committee through public subscription and by means of a Fourth of July celebration and rodeo. It is hoped that the tower can be erected by January 1, when a big New Year's eve celebration will be held in San Jose to "keep the people at home." The merchants are backing plans for an elaborate winding up of the year.

DENIES MOTION TO QUASH TRUE BILLS

Beggs and Steining Fail in Attack on Legality of Grand Jury.

SAN JOSE, Oct. 29.—Santa Clara county still has a grand jury in spite of the fact that it was summoned as a trial jury and a number of felony indictments will stand, according to a decision handed down by Superior Judge W. A. Beasly, denying a motion to quash and to set aside true bills against Attorney W. M. Beggs and Joseph Steining, a merchant. The two defendants are accused of having extorted $2000 from Joseph De Rosa, a clerk employed by Steining and caught pilfering goods.

In moving for the setting aside of the indictments, attorneys for Beggs and Steining contended that there was no 1915 grand jury in this county, inasmuch as a clerk had used trial jury blanks in summoning the grand jury. If their attack on the legality of the inquisitorial body had been successful it would have affected indictments returned against Joseph Vetrano and Tony Difrance, arrested by Detective W. J. Dreischmeyer here following an investigation of "blackhand" operations in San Francisco, Oakland and San Jose and the dynamiting of the home of A. Trapani, president of the Western Fish Company in San Francisco.

Another indictment which would have been affected was filed against John Boescher, arrested in New York City after his return from Europe, where he is said to have squandered the bank account alleged to have been entrusted to him by his fiancee, Miss Leila Reyland, of San Francisco, whom he met and wooed at the Vendome Hotel in this city.

BEASTLY, EH? BUT WANTS BATH THAT GIVES SHOCK

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Every hotel has its complaint list, but one of the assistant managers of the Biltmore was much surprised on Thursday when Mr. P. J. McFadyn of Ireland, said that everything was all right except "the beastly watah was so wretchedly warm, when one got up in the morning for one's tub."

"Got to have a shock, you know, old dear," said the husky Mr. McFadyn. "Can't take a cold tub when the water's lukewarm, so to speak, with a bit of exaggeration."

"We can fix that," said Mr. Judkins. He knew that there was an ice plant on the hotel roof and possibly he had heard of the man in Chicago several years ago who also found water too warm in the middle of winter.

Mr. Judkins ordered the houseman to fix Mr. McFadyn's bathtub with plenty of fine cubes. Mr. McFadyn appeared for breakfast after his tub. Mr. Judkins asked about the water that morning.

"Perfectly fine; wonderful," answered Mr. McFadyn. "You are a bright young chap, aren't you, now? The only thing about the ice business in one's tub is that one feels just like a beastly brandy and soda, eh, what? And what does one do? Why, perfectly simple. One orders a B. and S., and there you are. All wrong, eh, what? Makes one start the day wrong, by sort of mental business, eh, what? However, as Solomon said, 'Tis better to have drunk after a bath than never to have had a tub at all,' eh, what?"

WOMAN TRIES TO ENLIST; BALKS AT EXAMINATION

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—The Ebling Hat volunteers who asked to be enlisted in Windsor was a woman masquerading as a man, according to Color Sergeant C. V. Strevett, assistant recruiting officer at the armory.

Dressed in a neat blue serge suit and wearing tan shoes, a slim young "man" timidly approached the sergeant with a request to sign up for active service. When the volunteer was asked "his" name, "he" replied, "Charles James Thurston," and gave a Detroit address. The age given was 25.

The queries of the sergeant were answered without hesitation, until the volunteer was asked if "he" was in good physical condition. This, according to Strevett, brought a blush to the would-be soldier's face.

"Oh, do I have to undergo a medical examination?" was asked the sergeant.

"Sure," replied the sergeant. "Dr. Cruickshank will examine you thoroughly before you sign the attestation papers."

"I—" and the volunteer hesitated. "I cannot let that happen because I am a woman," she said as she rushed from the sergeant's office.

Although Sergeant Strevett attempted to detain her she ran to the ferry dock and crossed to Detroit.

CLUB HEARS ADDRESS ON "PRIMITIVE DRESS"

SAN JOSE, Oct. 29.—Modesty was historically the last cause for dress, stated Mrs. L. J. Church, prominent club woman of Saratoga, in an address before the Foothill Study Club, on "Primitive Dress." Dress was first a decoration, said Mrs. Church, because it satisfied the desire of man to set himself, by some visible mark, above his fellows. "So we have introduction of face and body painting. Later came the need for protection, as man began to seek colder places."

ASKS SHORT NAME BE CHANGED TO LONG ONE

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—A strange and romantic story was revealed yesterday when Bruno Carl Schulze, Pine street near Thirteenth, petitioned court of common pleas No. 3 for legal approval for assuming the name of his father, who he says is a German viscount.

Schulze wants his name changed to Bruno von Schoenowitz Freiherr von Uncatswerth und Adlersloewen. In his affidavit he sets forth that his father is viscount of Uncatswerth und Adlersloewen.

SAN LEANDRAN WEDDED.

SAN LEANDRO, Oct. 29.—Miss May Gonsalves, daughter of Frank Gonsalves, a member of the Oakland Court House staff, and Earl Frates were married yesterday afternoon at St. Leander's Catholic church. Rev. Father Francis Garvey officiated. The couple will make their home here on their return from a honeymoon trip.

RESOLUTION OF INTENTION NO. 11605 N. S.

RESOLUTION OF INTENTION TO IMPROVE FARNAM STREET BETWEEN FRUITVALE AND 34TH AVENUES.

RESOLVED, That it is the intention of the Council of the City of Oakland to order the grading, curbing with redwood, guttering with concrete gutters, three feet wide, and paving with oil macadam of Farnam Street in said City from the southeastern line of Fruitvale Avenue to the northwestern line of 34th Avenue, in accordance with the provisions of the Improvement Act of 1911 of the State of California, and in accordance with the plans and specifications adopted for this street work by said Council by Resolution No. 11604, N. S.

Excepting, however, from said work the grading of the northeastern sidewalk of Farnam Street from a line parallel to and distant fifty feet northwesterly, measured at right angles, from the northwestern line of 33rd Avenue to the northwestern curb line of 33rd Avenue.

This Council hereby determines that serial bonds shall be issued in accordance with the provisions of said Improvement Act of 1911 to represent assessments of $25.00 or more for the cost of said work and improvement; said serial bonds shall extend over a period ending 5 years from the 2nd day of January next succeeding the date of said bonds, and an even annual proportion of the principal sum thereof shall be payable by coupon on the 2nd day of January every year after their date until the whole is paid, and the interest shall be payable semi-annually by coupon on the 2nd days of January and July respectively of each year at a rate of 7% per annum on all sums unpaid until the whole of said principal and interest are paid. Said bonds shall be issued in accordance with said Improvement Act of 1911.

Notice is hereby given that Thursday, the 18th day of November, 1915, at 25 minutes after 11 o'clock A. M., is hereby fixed as the day and hour, and the Council Chamber in the City Hall, Oakland, California, as the place when and where any and all persons having any objections to the above described proposed work or improvement may appear before said City Council and show cause why said proposed improvement should not be carried out in accordance with this resolution.

The City Clerk is hereby directed to publish this resolution by two successive insertions in the "Oakland Tribune," a daily newspaper published and circulated in said city and hereby designated for that purpose.

I certify that the foregoing is a full, true and correct copy of a Resolution passed by the City Council of the City of Oakland, Cal., on October 28, 1915.

RESOLUTION OF INTENTION NO. 11603 N. S.

RESOLUTION OF INTENTION TO SEWER TOMPKINS AVENUE FROM VALE AVENUE NORTHWESTERLY.

RESOLVED, That it is the intention of the Council of the City of Oakland to order the following work to be done in said City in accordance with the provisions of the Improvement Act of 1911 of the State of California, and in accordance with the plans and specifications adopted for this work by said Council by Resolution No. 11602 N. S.

That a sewer, having an internal diameter of eight inches, be constructed along the center line of Tompkins Avenue from the center line of Vale Avenue to a point distant 240 feet northwesterly therefrom, measured along the center line of Tompkins Avenue; also

That a lamphole with a top of brick and cast iron be constructed at the northwestern end of said sewer, also

That "Y" branches with five-inch openings be constructed on said sewer so as to provide one such branch for each forty foot lot, and fractional lot remaining, into which the abutting property frontage is capable of being divided.

Said sewer, lamphole (excepting the top thereof), and "Y" branches shall be constructed of vitrified sewer pipe.

Notice is hereby given that Thursday, the 18th day of November, 1915, at fifteen minutes after 11 o'clock A. M., is hereby fixed as the day and hour, and the Council Chamber in the City Hall, Oakland, California, as the place when and where any and all persons having any objections to the above described proposed work or improvement may appear before said Council and show cause why said proposed improvement should not be carried out in accordance with this resolution.

The City Clerk is hereby directed to publish this resolution by two successive insertions in the "Oakland Tribune," a daily newspaper published and circulated in said city, and hereby designated for that purpose.

I certify that the foregoing is a full, true and correct copy of a Resolution passed by the City Council of the City of Oakland, Cal., on October 28, 1915.

CANTELOUPES GO UP PRICE LADDER

Standards Bring $1.25 Crate in the Oakland Market.

A jump in canteloupe prices to a top of $1.25 per crate for standards was the most exciting feature of an otherwise quiet market this morning. Demand, stimulated by warm weather, had increased the arrivals were slightly better and lighter with the result that the quotation rose 25 cents straight. Ponies, according to quality, brought from 40 to 75 cents per crate, and all that were desirably ripe were bought by the trade early. Casabas are now bringing from 40 to 75 cents per dozen, as they are taking the place to a large extent of other melons. Bartlett pears are now almost a thing of the past, and all that is left consists of a few cold storage lugs selling at $2 to $2.25.

[illegible] without selling at a very lively rate, and a considerable quantity of full-colored Tokays had to be held over today by the commission houses. One consignment of Tokays arrived too late from Martinez for the morning trade. Isabellas are now very scarce and are commanding the high price of $1.35 to $1.40 per crate. A few late Coes plums are left on the street, but the quotation has declined to a top of $1, the stock failing to meet any particular demand. Among the fruit shipments was a car of bananas hailing from Port Limon, which supplemented the light supply of Eastern stock.

The important event of today's vegetable market was the general clean-up of tomatoes. Though quotations have not altered, there is a prospect of an advance in the near future, as the season is drawing to a close and the over-supply is almost disposed of. Otherwise no special movement was evident.

ARMOUR CO. TO BUILD GYM FOR ITS EMPLOYES

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—Armour & Co. will spend $50,000 on an experiment in efficiency.

The "experiment" will take the form of a $50,000 gymnasium, to be erected near the Armour & Co. plant at the stockyards, for the exclusive use of the company's office force of 1200 men and women.

According to the plan announced, time off during working hours will be given to each office employe for efficiency development in the new gymnasium. It is expected that the building will be completed by January 1.

The gymnasium will be fitted with the most modern apparatus and will be placed in charge of competent instructors.

NATIONAL CITY BRANCH GETS BRANCH IN S. F.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—The National City bank, through the National City Company, it was learned today, obtained control of the International Banking Corporation, the stock purchase of which was announced Tuesday by J. S. Bachs & Co., local bankers.

The National City Company was formed under the administration of Attorney General Wickersham and followed a ruling that a national bank could not deal in the securities of other companies without contravening the bank act.

By securing control of the International Banking Corporation, it was said the National City Bank is following its policy to expand so far as the Federal reserve act permits. Branches already are in operation in South America, countries, and the acquisition of the International Banking Corporation bill will give it branches in San Francisco, London and various parts of the Orient.

MINING EXCHANGE HAS DULL DAY

Volume of Business Smallest of Any Day This Week; Jumbo Extension Drops.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—Newer issues were more active on the mining market this morning and the volume of business was the smallest, during the same period, of any day this week. Jumbo Extension dropped to 1.27½ and sales of Merger Mines and Kewanas exchanged prices.

Considerable attention centered on Oatman stocks concerning which the visiting delegation from San Francisco had wired highly satisfactory reports. Gold Road Bonanza which was sold up to 20 cents today, has opened an ore body of unusually valuable ore at a depth of 32 feet, indications being similar to those in the other producing properties of the camp.

GRAIN

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—Wheat went sharply higher in price today, owing to British denials that peace was being considered. After opening ¾c to 1½@1¾c higher, the market was steady and at nearly the top of the initial range. First prices were $1.00¾ to $1.02 for December and $1.03¾ to $1.03½ for May.

The close, nevertheless, was weak at 1½c to 2½c net advance, with December at $1.02½@1.02¾, and May at $1.04½@1.04⅝.

Corn developed firmness with wheat, and as a result of a sensational advance in freight rates from Argentina.

Opening prices, which varied from ⅛@½c off to a shade advance, were followed by a moderate general upturn.

The close was unsettled at ⅛c off to ¼@⅜c up, compared with yesterday's finish.

In oats the main feature was buying by houses with northwest connections.

Provisions rose on support from packers.

Following were the closing quotations:

Wheat—December, $1.02¾; May, $1.04⅝.

Corn—December, 58c; May, 59⅛c.

Oats—December, 35⅝c; May, 39½c.

Pork—December, $14.60; January, $16.75.

Lard—November, $8.87½; January, $9.10.

Ribs—October, $9.92½; January, $9.12½.

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—Corn, No 2 yellow, 64¼@65c. Rye, No. 2, $1.05@1.05½. Barley, 54@63c. Timothy, $5@7.75. Clover, $11@18.

French Cities Drained by German War Taxes

By Associated Press.

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 29, via London, 10:10 a. m.—The damage caused by the bombardment of Lille is estimated, the Telegraaf says, at 1,800,000,000 francs. War taxes imposed by the Germans upon the French manufacturing cities of Lille, Roubaix and Tourcoing, according to the same authority, already reach several million francs. Meat is no longer obtainable in these towns.

WAR SHARES IN GENERAL DEMAND

Broad Inquiry for Rails and Coppers Mark Day's Trading.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—A broad and general demand for rails, coppers and war shares marked today's heavy trading, some standard shares attaining highest prices of the year.

Saloniki Landing Is Fiasco, Turk Says

By Associated Press.

AMSTERDAM, via London, Oct. 29, 8:18 a. m.—Hakkai Pasha, Turkish ambassador to Germany, declares in an interview published by a Berlin newspaper that the "fiasco" of the entente powers at Saloniki showed the folly of attempting an important military operation with 50,000 or 100,000 men.

In reply to a question regarding Egypt, the Turkish ambassador said that the launching of another expedition against that country depended upon whether or not the war lasted long enough.

Food Prices Fixed by German Council

BERLIN, Oct. 29, via London, 10:30 a. m.—The Federal Council has issued an order empowering the Imperial Chancellor to fix the maximum price for potatoes, fish and game. The chancellor immediately set the retail price of potatoes at 435 pfennings ($1.09) a metric hundred weight.

MADERANS DECIDE UPON IRRIGATION DISTRICT PLAN

Meet and Outline Methods of Determining Boundary Lines

MADERA, Oct. 29.—The executive committee of the irrigation bureau held a meeting and decided upon a plan for determining the boundaries of the proposed irrigation district. Data will be secured of ranchers who desire to come into the district which will be presented at a meeting to be held next Monday night. D. B. Thompson of Chowchilla was made a member of the executive board and this leaves but one more to be named.

The committee now consists of the following members: Chairman, J. G. Roberts, secretary, W. S. Gray; F. M. McCardle, Claude Hining, J. A. Secara and D. B. Thompson.

Thompson was a resident of Stanislaus county before coming to Madera and is well versed in the preliminaries of organizing districts, and is one of the foremost scientific farmers of the county. After having given pumping plant irrigation for farming a thorough test for a few years, Thompson is thoroughly convinced that it can not be made profitable, unless under exceptional conditions, and in such rare cases a gravity water system would be both cheaper and more efficient.

He is an ardent supporter of a feasible irrigation district. The first question to be determined, he says, is whether or not irrigation water is available. If it can be made so, no time should be lost in acquiring it. He referred to the bonds on Stanislaus county districts land, which are considerably greater than would be required here, saying that those bonds are incomparable with the benefit derived.

JAIL NO PLACE FOR BABY; MOTHER SENT TO HOME

Woman Who Says She Wrote Checks to Keep Hunger Away in Sad Plight

FRESNO, Oct. 29.—There is much of human interest in the plight of Mrs. Hazel Gordon, who is accused of writing worthless checks and cashing them on unsuspecting persons.

It wouldn't be so bad if there were only Mrs. Gordon to be considered by the authorities. But there's the baby, a little child only eight weeks old. So, the authorities of Fresno county decided that the county jail was no place for a woman with a baby. Mrs. Gordon was transferred to the county detention home and there will stay in comfortable surroundings until her case can be tried.

Mrs. Gordon was in court and was arraigned on the charge. Police Judge H. F. Briggs read the complaint and her bond was fixed at $250.

Mrs. Gordon is alleged to have passed 12 checks aggregating $134. Two were passed in this city. She was arrested in Hanford last August but was also tried there on the same charge. She was acquitted there and then was confined in the hospital.

A few days ago she took her eight-weeks-old baby and walked twenty-two miles in an effort to escape, but was followed and arrested for the Fresno authorities.

She is said to have admitted passing bad checks but excuses her offense on the plea that she did so to provide for herself and little baby because her husband was unable to find work after tramping the streets day and night.

The husband is now earning $35 a month doing ranch work at Corcoran.

16 ATTEMPTS MADE TO BURN LUMBER YARD

WESTWOOD, Oct. 29.—Incendiaries made four more attempts to destroy the Red River Lumber Company's Extensive yards at Westwood.

Treasurer Walker, of the big company, stated today that sixteen attempts to burn the plant have been made within the last six days. Four rolls of waste and metallic phosphorus were found secreted in lumber piles in the yards, by special guards who have been employed to guard the property day and night.

Walker is more mystified than ever. "I simply can't explain it," he said. "It might be that someone is merely trying to frighten us. We haven't any theory to advance as to the identity of the firebugs. We are keeping a vigilant lookout, and so far no damage has been done."

The first attempt to burn the yards was made Friday night, when several rolls of rags and phosphorus were found. One exploded, but the flames were extinguished before any damage was done.

The second attempt was made on Thursday night, up to which time guards had discovered eleven rolls of the explosive. The last discovery brings the total up to sixteen.

SLAYS GIRL AND WOUNDS OFFICER

"Bud" Nelson, Colored Cook on S. P., Shoots While Covered With Pistol.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—In an endeavor to arrest James P. Nelson, known as "Bud" Nelson, a colored cook, employed by the Southern Pacific Company, [illegible] his sweetheart, Leona Martin, Patrolman George Hippley of the Southern station, was shot through the left hand at an early hour this morning after he believed [illegible] Miss Martin, whose body was pierced by four bullets, died later at the Central Emergency Hospital.

Patrolman Hippley was on Brannan street [illegible] heard two shots coming from [illegible] street near Third and hurried around the corner. As he did so he saw Nelson dash into the doorway of the Railroad Boys' Club, [illegible] street, and throw himself full force against the panel, smashing the glass. As he ran two other shots were fired, and coming up to Nelson he covered him with his own pistol and ordered him to throw up his hands. The negro obeyed, but as the officer advanced to disarm him with his gun still leveled, the man brought down his revolver and fired. Despite the pain of the wounded hand Hippley succeeded in disarming the negro and handcuffing him.

Walter Farrell, proprietor of the club, came out and aided the wounded officer in picking up Miss Martin, who was unconscious and fast sinking.

According to Farrell Nelson and the Martin woman left the club arm in arm and apparently good friends. They quarreled on the street soon after and the shooting followed. The Martin woman was wounded in the temple, both breasts and the left arm pit.

A later investigation by the police disclosed the fact that the Martin woman was married to Nelson. The couple have a 17-day-old baby.

Pennsylvania Miners Honor John Mitchell

By Associated Press.

HAZLETON, Pa., Oct. 29. — This was Mitchell Day throughout the Anthracite field of Pennsylvania, in honor of the fifteenth anniversary of the termination of the big strike of 1900, the first conducted in the hard coal belt by John Mitchell, the then national president of the United Mine Workers of America. The 1900 strike lasted six weeks and resulted in the granting of a 10 per cent wage increase and other concessions.

TAFT-PENNOYER ASS'N HAS HALLOWE'EN DANCE

On Tuesday evening the members of the Taft & Pennoyer Employes' Mutual Aid Association and their friends to the number of several hundred assembled at Maple Hall to enjoy a Hallowe'en dance under the auspices of that association.

The committee on decoration is entitled to much praise for the very able and artistic manner in which they decorated the hall. Streamers of black and orange were draped from the ceiling to the side walls, forming a canopy which, with the electric lights, made a very pleasing effect. Figures representing witches, devils, cats, bats and owls decorated the walls, while pumpkin lanterns were suspended from the ceiling.

An imitation of a clock was hung in front of the music stand, the hour hand pointing to the next dance and the music to which it would be danced, and across the face the warning "Keep time."

In the center of the floor was stacked a lot of cornstalks surrounded with pumpkins.

M. B. Miranda, who was ably assisted by George Bauslaugh, B. R. Arey, W. H. Theile and O. Vlach, were responsible.

A committee of ladies headed by Mrs. M. Averett served ice cream in cones during the evening.

Mr. Hile and Miss Martin gave an exhibition of fancy dancing and were loudly applauded.

The following named served on the several committees: Committee of Arrangements—J. S. Gilmore, B. R. Arey, M. B. Miranda, W. H. Theile, George Bauslaugh, Garnet C. Brown, Mrs. M. B. Averett, Miss E. Hilt, Mrs. L. White, Miss L. Gacciarino, Miss K. Foley, Miss L. Matthews, Miss L. Buzzalino, Miss E. Mayer, Miss M. Gillick. Reception Committee—Miss G. Newell, Miss L. Zimmer, Mrs. G. Clark, Mrs. M. Patterson, Miss A. Buzzalino, Miss E. Hansen. Floor Committee—H. Stein, C. Sullivan, A. C. Jensen, W. W. Henry Jr., L. E. Christensen. Floor Manager—E. R. Arey. Assistant Floor Manager—George Bauslaugh.

HAD WRONG CAR: JAILED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—While speeding down Fifth street in an automobile this morning, Andrew Fruitas was stopped by Patrolman August Borehero and escorted to the Southern Station, where he was booked on a grand larceny charge. The officer recognized the machine as having been stolen yesterday from George Foley, 1136 Treat avenue.

Woman Escapes From Army Lines

Crawls Under Barbed Wire to Holland; Now in America

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Mrs. Malcolm Carter, an English woman of Belgian birth, who arrived here last night, told her friends the story of how she escaped from Belgium by disguising herself as a Flemish peasant and creeping under the barbed wires on the Dutch frontier. Mrs. Carter came here to seek aid for disabled Belgian soldiers.

She went from London to Belgium to visit her father and says that her passport was taken away on the orders of General von Bissing, the military commander. She was suspected of being a spy, but after two months obtained a new pass from a German commander, but that also was confiscated. She realized then that her only means of escape was by subterfuge.

"There were times," Mrs. Carter said, "when we were crawling on the ground and it was eleven hours before we reached the barbed wire that marks the border."

DIVORCE CHARGES HAVE TRUMP CARD

Mrs. Freed Files Cross-complaint, Alleging Long Series of Offenses.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29. — A series of charges to the effect that her husband, Aleas Freed, president of the Pacific Motor Supply Company, was inclined to be friendly with other women and to forget that he was a married man, were contained in a cross-complaint for divorce filed by the wife, Mrs. Sophia Freed, in the superior court today. In answer to Freed's accusation in his original action for divorce that his wife threatened to go to New York and marry a wealthy man, Mrs. Freed asserts that he tried to get her own sister to marry him when she visited their home, 122 Fifteenth avenue. She says also that Freed deserted her in New York in 1901, and that she didn't see him for five years. Her trump card is played in the final paragraph of the paper in which she says that Freed recently left here for New York, accompanied by a woman, and that the latter, fearing some one would out he was a married man, left the train at Ogden, forcing him to proceed alone.

UNDERWOOD WILL AWAIT REPORTS

Would Not Act Until Experts Have Finished Deliberations.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Oscar W. Underwood, Senator-elect from Alabama, who is here for the opening of Congress, said today in discussing the question of national defense that he would wait until the army and navy experts themselves had reached their conclusions and presented them to Congress before expressing his views on the subject.

The new Senator declared that he favored a reasonable national defense, although he was not prepared now to say what he meant by that term, adding that he was not an expert on these matters. "I am approaching the subject," he said, "in such a way that I will be able to take the opinions of the experts largely into consideration in shaping a final opinion." He added that Congress would now be in a better position in dealing with the subject to profit by lessons from the European war.

Underwood, who, as chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, framed the tariff law when there is talk of revising to meet revenue requirements, declined to discuss the proposal. He said that it would be manifestly out of place for him to do so inasmuch as he was leader in the House when the law was enacted and is not now a member of that body.

Underwood will pay his respects to President Wilson in a few days and probably also will discuss the prospective legislative program.

Senator O'Gorman to Vote for Suffrage

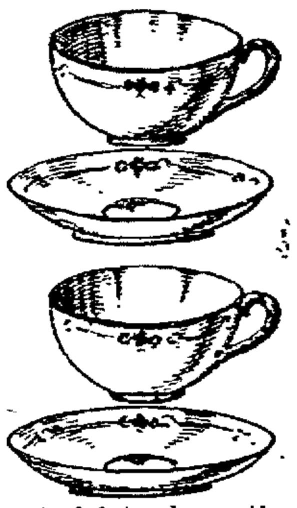

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—United States Senator James O'Gorman announced yesterday that he would vote for woman suffrage and against the revised state constitution at the coming election.

"My sympathies go out to the women of the state who are complaining of the denial of justice," he said. "I shall vote for the woman's suffrage amendment."

The Senator said the constitution was "undemocratic" and "autocratic."
